PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President and members of the Senate, in the war years an amendment was passed amending the Constitution of Pennsylvania so that any taxes derived from the motor vehicle industry should be used for the construction of roads, streets and bridges, with the result that home-owners throughout the state, living in cities, boroughs and townships, have been paying high real estate taxes to subsidize the trucking industry of Pennsylvania.

The home owner first is assessed for the permanent paving of the street he lives on and then the motor truck industry takes over the street as a right-of-way. The heavy trucks destroy the street, and again the home owner is called upon for more money to repave the street. When traffic increases, then traffic control must be afforded, and again the home owner must dig down into his pocket to pay for traffic policemen, traffic lights, a traffic plan. In other words, although on the railroads they have flagmen, the home owners of Pennsylvania are providing private traffic policemen—they are the flagmen for the trucking industry of Pennsylvania.

All of this expense comes out of the pockets of the poor home owner for one reason, because he does not have a lobby at Harrisburg. We find here at Harrisburg a truckers lobby, an oil lobby, and they are only interested in one thing, how they can secure more profit out of their business, with the result that the home owners of Pennsylvania are paying for the operation of the trucking industry in Pennsylvania and the truck owners are getting the profit.

I believe that the time has come to make a change. Since the trucking industry of Pennsylvania sees fit that the money derived from taxes from the motor vehicle industry will be used only for the improvement of roads, streets, highways and bridges, after the home owner is assessed for the permanent improvement I believe that he should not be assessed for any more money for the maintenance of the highways, which are the rights-of-way of the trucks in Pennsylvania.

With this in mind, Mr. President, I am offering an amendment to the Constitution whereby real estate taxes cannot be spent for the maintenance of streets, roads and bridges.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. LORD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LORD, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 51, entitled:—

An Act providing for the observance of September fourteenth of each year as National Anthem Day.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. T. NEWELL WOOD offered the following resolution, which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate, February 17, 1947.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 24, 1947, at four o'clock, p. m.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 24, 1947, at nine o'clock, p. m.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, is this the resolution dealing with the time of next meeting?

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The gentleman from Allegheny is correct.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, why not make it the day after the meeting in Philadelphia, so we can do some work? I think it would be more appropriate that week, because after you come back from this meeting you no doubt will have copies of bills and will introduce bills and start committee meetings and start the doings of the Senate.

One of my colleagues asked me to explain what I mean by meetings, I do not know if you can agree on the Pew program at the Grundy dinner. Do we have to wait until there is another dinner from Joe Pew until we can go along with the session?

I would like the President pro tempore to give me that information

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I think the gentleman from Allegheny has an extraordinary conception of the abilities of this Senate. I think it would be exceedingly impossible for us to come back and pass those bills that Grundy wants us to pass one day after we get our orders, and therefore, if his suggestion is a proper one, I think we ought to adjourn for two or three months until we fully digest what Grundy wants.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, does the gentleman mean digest the food or the bills?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 11, 1947.

Hon. Samuel Wieder Salus passed away December 28, 1945 after a long, busy life laboring in the cause of the people of this Commonwealth.

A lifelong resident of Philadelphia, he completed his formal education at the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1895, and was admitted to the Philadelphia Bar the same year.

He began his political career in 1902, when he served as a member of the Common Council of Philadelphia, representing the Fourth Ward. In 1903 he served his first term as a legislator, representing Philadelphia in the House of Representatives for that term. From 1904 to 1907 he was an assistant district attorney of Philadelphia County under Hon. John C. Bell.

In 1909, he returned to the General Assembly as a Representative. The following year he was elected to the Senate, succeeding Israel Durham from the second legislative District of Philadelphia County. His capability as a leader resulted in his re-election in 1914, 1918, 1922 and 1926.

The year 1925 was rewarding for him since he was then elected President Pro Tem of the Senate, in which capacity he served continuously until 1938. In 1943, he was elected to the House of Representatives again, and was serving his re-election term when he died in 1945, a fitting conclusion to his lifelong service.

Samuel W. Salus, just plain Sam to his friends, was a devotee and advocate of the square deal for all races. Forty-five years ago, Sam decided to do something about the deplorable conditions among the colored children residing in the Fourth Ward in Philadelphia. He rolled up his sleeves, turned his back on pleas from certain acquaintances that he "not get mixed up in affairs of negroes" and went to bat. As a result he obtained school facilities equal to that of any school district in the state for those colored children.

In a letter thanking the late Senator Salus for his liberal donations to a Philadelphia Institution, the N. A. A. C. P. stated:—"Our workers know of your big heart. . . You live to serve, and that's the thing that makes the work of those who are entrusted with the care of the less fortunate easy."

Those of us who knew Sam well realized that he was one of the few men in public office who sincerely appreciated that all men were created equal regardless of race, color or creed.

Sam Salus had no selfish motives in entering politics. But as an American, he knew Democracy thrived upon work and sweat, tears and sacrifice. A man whose profession was essential to the community in which he lived, he did not need politics for extra activities. He was motivated by a love of political philosophy, knowing that every bit he did help make this a greater state.

He gave up the quietness of his home to become the target of political hacks and bigots, yet he took them to see to it that this state would be a better place for us all.

Encouraged by his attitude toward legislation the members of the Senate and the House where he served unselfishly can carry on, knowing full well that behind us, always, is that spirit of Sam Salus, working for the common good for the people of Pennsylvania, therefore, be it,

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs) That the General Assembly of Pennsylvania extends its deep and genuine sympathy to Mrs. Ada R. Salus, his widow, and Arthur S. Salus, Esq. his son, in recognition of the great loss and the terrible anguish of heart and mind that has come to them; and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Ada R. Salus.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, February 17, 1947.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 24, 1947, at four o'clock p. m., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 24, 1947, at nine o'clock, p. m.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate? It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Wagner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Somerset permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAGNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman from Somerset whether or not this bill allows a marriage license issued in one county to be used in any county of the State?

Mr. WAGNER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should also like to know, Mr. Speaker, from the gentleman as to whether or not under this bill the marriage license after the ceremony is performed is returned to the Register of the county where the license was issued or to the Register of the county where the ceremony was performed?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, the certificate is returned to the county where the license is issued, afterwards a record is made specifically and sent to the Bureau of Vital Statistics at Harrisburg.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Under this bill, then, Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman have any objection if the return of the marriage certificate is reported not only in the county where it was issued but also in the county where the marriage was performed?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question I see no reason why any third record should be kept in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of marriages, when the statewide records are kept in the Bureau of Vital Statistics under the act of May 21, 1943 and a record is kept likewise in the county where the license is issued. The issuance of a third record would entail additional work in the county where the marriage was performed, and where in that county the officials do not receive any fee for the performance of that duty.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

In interrogating the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Wagner, concerning this bill, it has always been my thought that the reason that any vital statistic is recorded is for the purpose of setting it up for posterity. Ofttimes we find it is necessary to search in the marriage records, birth records and divorce records long after many of the parties thereto are dead. Ofttimes it is almost impossible to find them because of the fact that we do not get the proper information from parties who are interested in this information. Mr. Speaker, ofttimes if this bill becomes law parties will get a license in Erie County, come all the way to the eastern part of Pennsylvania, to Delaware and Bucks County, to be married. It is a simple thing for a person to remember the county in which they were married, but they may forget the name of the county in which the license was issued. The return being made by the county where the license was issued, it may be necessary to make a search of sixty-seven counties in order to get this record.

That is the reason, Mr. Speaker, why I raised this question. I think this is a bill that affects marriages in Pennsylvania, and for that reason we ought to make it as easy as possible to discover these records if they need to be discovered in the future.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, I have listened very attentively to the argument of the gentleman from Philadelphia. He is very much concerned seemingly with trying possibly in the future to find a marriage license record of some couple who might have been married somewhere in Pennsylvania. The person needs only to write to the Bureau of Vital Statistics in Harrisburg. He doesn't need to write to the sixty-seven counties, and he will be furnished a record of that marriage that was performed, regardless of where the license may have been issued.

For that reason I oppose the motion of the gentleman and ask the House to vote it down.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I did not have very much interest in this bill until I saw a letter from the Register of Philadelphia County, and he did not like the bill. I could not bring myself to the point of having anyone from Philadelphia ask me to do them a favor and sidetrack a bill,—I just could not do it. Now, the Philadelphia delegation may desert their Register, the Majority Leader may desert the Register, the whole House may desert the Register except myself, but I will just have to go along with the Register, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion.

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I want to apologize to the Members of this House. Last week when I suggested considering a recess I was not cognizant of the fact that the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association was meeting next Tuesday. I realize how inconvenient it would have been to have called all the Members from various parts of the State and Philadelphia, had there been no session of the House, and I also realize how lamentable it would have been from the standpoint of procedure.

I now understand perfectly the fact that we have up to this time been rather leisurely in our proceedings, and I see by the press that at this convocation in the afternoon the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association will meet to discuss legislation at Harrisburg. Therefore I am quite confident that the week following that we will have a welfare program, a labor program, and if it shall have been decided up to that time who shall bear the tax load, will agree with Philadelphia that we will have a fiscal program, and then very shortly we will have a budget; then the bills will pour in, and then there will be the usual demand for a hurry-up getaway, a humble-tumble finish to a hectic session.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. No lawyer's questions, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will again warn the majority leader "No lawyers' questions."

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman an invitation to the dinner to which he referred?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have not, neither have any of my colleagues.

And more than that, Mr. Speaker, if the Majority Leader will permit a brief statement that might not be in direct answer to his question: One day I happened to sit, or was going to sit down on one of these chairs on the side line. I was told by the gentleman sitting next that that chair belonged to Mr. So and So. I inquired who Mr. So and So was, and I found that he represented a very, very powerful interest here. Not only do we not have an invitation to this function, but we don't even know the guys around here who make the wheels start.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I am sure that all of the legislative proceedings of this House will be in the gentleman's presence and he need have no fear.

I should also like the record to show that at the time of the discussion of a possible recess by this Legislature, the meeting that is scheduled to take place next week was unheard of.

Almighty God, Thou who art the Author and Finisher of our Faith; the Maker and Builder of men and nations, we come to attention, on this the eve of the anniversary of the birth of the Father of His Country, who was ordained of Thee to bring in a new day for a people of high purpose, and high holy resolve.

Our hearts are stirred in praise and gratitude for that choice gift of heaven, the peerless Washington, who was "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." We thank Thee for this patriot statesman and Christian gentleman, who knelt at the Altar of Sacrifice, that freedom from tyranny might live.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WALKER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 181, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article two, section four, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, fixing the sessions of the General Assembly.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. ROSENFELD asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. ROSENFELD. It is a matter of common knowledge among interested persons and those who are active politically that most of the voting public does not concern itself with the names or the qualifications of candidates for public office.

This subject was given public notice a short time before the last election in a poll conducted by one of the Philadelphia newspapers which indicated that more than four out of five voters did not know the names of the candidates who were campaigning for the office of the United States Senator from Pennsylvania. This, notwithstanding the fact that one candidate was the incumbent and had held that high office for twelve years and the other candidate was the Governor of the Commonwealth, who had been before the public most of his adult life. The score was worse for the lesser offices to be filled at that election. Another poll taken since the election indicates only a slight improvement.

One of the more important reasons assigned for this condition is the fact that we elect too many public officials and it becomes almost impossible for the average voter to acquaint himself with the different offices to be filled, the qualifications for such office, and the many candidates and their qualifications. This results in the average voter either losing interest completely or else taking the easiest method in voting for or against a particular party, by voting a straight party ticket, without regard to the individual candidates or their qualifications. Realizing this, political parties sometimes may not be concerned too greatly with the type or qualifications of its candidates since they realize as a practical matter such candidates are not directly answerable to the people.

Many persons and some politicians prefer to have the situation remain as it is and not a few are in favor of having even more of our officials elected. It is argued that the ideals of a democracy would best be advanced if more officials were elected since they would not be subject to removal by the appointing power, but only by the public which elected them. There can be no complaint with this as a good principle. However, ideals and principles which have theoretical merit but which do not operate in practice, are useless, and applied to this particular problem it is readily seen that unless the voting public begins to interest itself in the individual candidates for public office the principle is worthless.

On the other hand, there are many interested persons who feel that the only method by which the public may take notice and become interested, is by reducing the number of public officials to be elected, to a minimum. It is intended by this means to make it easier for the average voter to concentrate on the few officials to be elected, and the result is certain to be of great benefit to the entire citizenry. The public will then be in a position to make its own demands. The political parties which presently in effect "choose" the candidates for whom the public now votes will, of necessity, be required to be very careful in its selections and these factors in the final analysis must produce much better officials and much better government.

In Philadelphia, the citizenry is now required to elect over each four year period the following officials:

Federal

President
Vice-President
United States Senator
Representatives in Congress
(every two years)

State

Governor
Lieutenant-Governor
State Senator
Representative in General Assembly

Secretary of Internal Affairs

Auditor General
State Treasurer
Judges of Supreme Court
(as vacancies occur)

Judges of Superior Court

City and County

Mayor
District Attorney
Sheriff
Clerk of Quarter Sessions Court
Recorder of Deeds

Receiver of Taxes
 Register of Wills
 Coroner
 Treasurer
 Controller
 3 County Commissioners
 22 Councilmen
 Judges of Common Pleas Court
     (as vacancies occur)
 Judges of Municipal Court
     (as vacancies occur)
 Magistrates Constables

As a result of the number of offices to be filled there are some years when a voting ballot is so cluttered with names that it becomes almost impossible, even for the experienced politicians, to become familiar with the candidates and types of candidates and their qualifications, even though they be the selections of their own party.

There is no logical reason for the election of persons to most of the offices enumerated. Appointments by the appropriate executive officer could be made in most instances, as is now required by law with regard to members of the executive officers' cabinet. There is no present need to elect persons to fill other than policy making offices in the political subdivisions involved. Thus all but the following offices could be filled by appointment and these would remain the only offices which would be filled by election:

Federal

President
 Vice-President
 United States Senator
 Representative in Congress

State

Governor
 Lieutenant-Governor
 Auditor General
 State Senator

City and County

Mayor
 Councilmen (one in each district)
 District Attorney
 Controller

There is neither need nor magic in the election by the people of the State Treasurer or the Secretary of Internal Affairs. Their duties are much less than those of most other cabinet members who are appointed by the Governor. The same is true of the offices of Coroner, Register of Wills, City and County Treasurer, Receiver of Taxes, Recorder of Deeds, Sheriff and Clerk of Quarter Sessions Court, all of whom could be appointed as members of the cabinet by the Mayor with the exception of the Clerk of Quarter Sessions Court who could be appointed by the Board of Judges.

As a practical matter most judges and magistrates are appointed by the Governor as vacancies occur, and they are thereafter elected and reelected by the people because of the sitting judge principle which is usually followed. Many efforts have been and are being made to remove the judges from any direct activity in politics, which I know most of them dislike, and there is no practical reason why the choice of judges and magistrates could not remain with the Governor for appointment and reappointment, giving due regard to representation of both major political parties as now required by law. Federal judges have always been appointed by the President and have been a distinct credit to the judiciary of this country.

In order to accomplish the results intended, I have prepared a series of bills and constitutional amendments for enactment into law. I believe this would be a tremendous step forward in educating the public to its responsibilities and I believe it would be a greater attraction for obtaining their interest. I take no pride in authorship and any other legislators who believe as I do, that better government would result if this proposal would be adopted, are requested to participate. Appropriate changes may be necessary; comment and criticism are invited. My immediate desire is to bring the matter to the attention of the press and to persons who deem this problem sufficiently important to become interested in it.

As a concrete illustration of the change that would take place in a voting ballot I am submitting a sample 1947 election ballot for a West Philadelphia Ward which the voters of that Ward will have before them at the next election and a sample ballot that would be used if the simplified voting plan was enacted into law. The sample ballot indicates that there are thirty-six officials to be elected in this Ward in 1947. If there are Primary election contests the number of candidates would be increased considerably. Multiply this by the number of parties on the ballot and we have a situation that assumes almost comic proportions.

Under the proposed simplified voting plan, only sixteen officials would be elected over every four year period, an average of four each year.

In 1947 each voter would be required to vote only for a Mayor and one Councilman in the voter's district. Focusing of concentrated attention of these two offices because of interest by the press, the general public and even the political parties, would result in the choice of outstanding candidates with unquestionable qualifications.

Having been actively engaged in the "science" of politics for more than twenty years, I am not so naive about these proposals as to expect immediate acceptance by the Legislature and the public.

If the press and enough public spirited citizens think the plan has merit and get behind it, then there is a possibility that the necessary laws could be enacted and constitutional amendments adopted.

These suggestions are non-political. Experience brings realization of the complexities and distractions of our daily lives that leave little time to the great majority of voters for study of civic affairs or participation in them.

It is intended to simplify the ballot and to make it easier for the average citizen to become aware of the qualifications of candidates for public office. It is intended to make the average voter recognize his importance in and to the community, so that in his thoughts our City Hall or the State or National Capitols will not seem like alien territory over which he has no control.

It is my sincere and honest belief that if these suggestions are eventually adopted, we may yet reach that point in contemporary civic history where most of us can take an active pride in our great City and State and our public officials.

EX-GOVERNOR JOHN C. BELL
VISITS SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair notes that we have a very distinguished visitor in the Senate this morning, the former Governor of Pennsylvania, John C. Bell, and the chair invites the former Governor to come to the rostrum.

Mr. BELL. Mr. President and gentleman of the Senate, this is certainly a pleasant surprise. I know how very busy you are, so I will not take any more time than just to say "hello."

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. KLEIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation operates a steel plant in Beaver County known as the Aliquippa Works. This plant employs approximately ten thousand men and women.

During the past several months, there has been a great deal of labor trouble, with the result of work stoppages and serious curtailment of production. This has resulted because in the past few months some men have been killed and others have suffered serious injuries because of the hazardous nature of their work.

I am not mad at anyone, and I have no complaint particularly against the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation. In times of war this steel corporation has made a real contribution, and in time of peace it has likewise made a contribution to Beaver County and to the Borough of Aliquippa. As a young boy I frequently obtained employment during the summer months in this plant, and I am somewhat familiar with the serious hazards and the dangerous conditions that exist in the plant of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation at Aliquippa. We can expect in Beaver County and in Aliquippa a great many more work stoppages and further serious curtailment of operations, unless the dangerous conditions that now exist, particularly in the open hearth department, are remedied.

Mr. President, my purpose in offering this resolution is to see that these people who must of necessity work at this hazardous occupation receive all the protection to which they are entitled. I say that it is wrong for men to die when preventive measures can be adopted that would not only save lives but would secure to working men and to working women some reasonable degree of safety in their employment. I have no gripe, as I said before, against the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation, which has in the past made vital contributions to the welfare of this country, and I am confident that it will continue to make important contributions to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to the County of Beaver, and to the Borough of Aliquippa, but I point out, Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, that it is a crime when men die because someone does not want to spend a few dollars to remedy conditions that can be remedied with an expenditure of a reasonable amount of funds.

So, Mr. President, with this idea in mind, simply to safeguard the welfare and lives of men and women, to protect these men and to protect their families in the future, I offer the following resolution, and move its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTIONS

REQUESTING AN INVESTIGATION BE MADE OF THE JONES AND LAUGHLIN STEEL CORPORATION

Mr. KLEIN offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 18, 1947.

Whereas, The Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation is engaged in the manufacture of steel and steel products in Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The Aliquippa plant of said corporation employs approximately ten thousand men and women; and

Whereas, The work of many of these employes, particularly in the open hearth department, is of a hazardous nature and hence their lives are in constant danger; and

Whereas, The said Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation has failed to provide the necessary safety measures and the proper equipment to assure these employes a reasonable degree of safety; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania request the Department of Labor and Industry to make a thorough and complete investigation of the open hearth department of the Aliquippa plant, Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania desire that, on completion of such investigation, the Department of Labor and Industry, if it finds conditions unsafe for the said employes, shall instruct the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation to provide the necessary safety measures at its Aliquippa plant so that its employes are free from danger and hazardous working conditions.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate my colleague from Lehigh, Senator Tallman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TALLMAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, will my colleague, Senator Tallman, inform me and inform the members of the Senate his reason for objecting to immediate consideration of the resolution?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, the reason for objecting to immediate consideration of the resolution is that it puts the Senate in the position of requesting a Department of the Commonwealth to perform a duty it is bound to exercise in any event; the resolution necessarily assumes, I think, that some department has failed to exercise its duty and I think it is only fair that this resolution should be considered by a committee, so that the chairman of that committee may have opportunity to find out whether there is any necessity for passage of this kind of a resolution.

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, the resolution itself does not indicate in any manner the fact that someone has failed to exercise the necessary precautions, or that any department of this Commonwealth has failed to function with respect to that particular hazard of which I speak.

I say I am familiar with the situation, and the proof that something is wrong is that men have been killed and men have been seriously injured, and will in the future very likely be injured and be killed, and there is immediate need for action, because, as I pointed out, work stoppages have occurred and production has been curtailed seriously; and unless some action is taken immediately, it is very likely that there will be further work stoppages and further serious curtailment of operations, and while we sit here and wait, others may lose their lives.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I should just like to add this further thought, and assure the gentleman from Beaver I think everybody on this floor shares with him his concern about the situation, and I think everyone is concerned about any hazardous situation which may result in the kind of condition that he speaks about, but I remain firm in my position, objecting to immediate passage of the resolution, for the reason that I believe whatever we have to do ought be done in an orderly and proper way.

IN MEMORIAM, W. SEARIGHT STUART

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, because of the many expressions of regret I have received and which I know members of the family of Mr. W. Searight Stuart, a former member of the Liquor Control Board have received, I feel it incumbent upon me this morning to make a few statements before introducing this resolution.

Mr. Stuart was long interested in state government, he was long interested in the Republican party, because he firmly believed in the principles of the Republican party and in good government for the State of Pennsylvania.

Soon after leaving the service in World War I, Mr. Stuart became interested in politics, and never after that do I know of one single instance that he refused to discuss and give advice to the young or old regarding his philosophies, which proved to be sound, for good government in the State of Pennsylvania. He served as Republican county chairman in Cumberland county, he served as a member of the state committee, he served on many special committees and special gatherings in which the policies of the Republican party were discussed and formulated. He served with credit on the Liquor Control Board for five years, and during that time I think the record that has been written into the Senate of Pennsylvania in recent days substantiates his forward looking policies.

Mr. President, it was unfortunate that he should be taken from us at such an early age, just when his usefulness seemed to have reached its peak.

And therefore, Mr. President, and my colleagues, I present this resolution and request its immediate consideration

IN MEMORIAM, W. SEARIGHT STUART

Mr. WADE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 18, 1947.

W. Searight Stuart, an outstanding political figure in the Commonwealth for many years, passed away at his residence on February 11, 1947.

He resided all his life in the place of his birth, Carlisle, Cumberland County; and he was educated in its public schools and at Mercersburg Academy and the Wharton School of Finance. Since 1909, he was in the grain forwarding business with offices at Carlisle and Middlesex.

W. Searight Stuart's life was a full one, largely devoted to the affairs of the Republican party in his community and State and to the service of this Commonwealth.

In 1922, he was elected a State Committeeman. He was Cumberland County Chairman for twelve years beginning in 1926. The year 1940 saw him elected National Delegate.

He served as Clerk of the Courts and Recorder of Deeds for Cumberland County for four years, being elected in 1919. Governor Fisher appointed him a Member of the Securities Commission in 1928 for a four-year term and he was reappointed by Governor Pinchot. Under Governor James, he was Director of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. His last office was as a Member of the Liquor Control Board, to which he was appointed by Governor Martin on May 12, 1943 to fill a six-year unexpired term which began March 7, 1942; he resigned this post a few hours before his death.

Mr. Stuart enlisted in the Regular Army in 1917 and served overseas with the 7th Balloon Company until April 1919. He was a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity, Sons of American Revolution, American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He belonged to the Second Presbyterian Church of Carlisle.

The record of W. Searight Stuart stands out as that of a citizen vitally interested in his community and State. For his indefatigable interest and effort, he was justly known as a Republican leader in this Commonwealth for more than twenty years.

Those who worked closely with him—and they are legion—will miss his sound advice and his wholesome personality; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the passing of W. Searight Stuart, Carlisle and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have lost one of their outstanding citizens whose record of service will stand undisputed in history; and be it further

Resolved, That in evidence of the deep sympathy of this General Assembly, the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to his widow and sons, who reside at 778 West South Street, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 110, entitled:

An Act authorizing cities boroughs towns and townships to regulate parking lots within their boundaries and to collect license or permit fees and require bonds from the operators thereof

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in connection with this bill and House Bill No. 187, Printer's No. 20, on page 5 of the calendar, I believe there should be some declaration as to administration policy. Either it is proposed by this Session to continue the stream of measures affecting municipalities, or it is proposed to enact general legislation which will free all municipalities from the chains that now bind them by reason of the decrees of this House.

I submit to you that it is a bit ridiculous that the municipalities of Pennsylvania should have to come to this Legislature to ask for powers in connection with parking lots, and I submit to you that it is not in line with sound procedure to grant one type of city certain powers of taxation and another type of cities certain powers of taxation, and another type of city certain powers of taxation. If those powers and privileges are all right for one type of city they are the powers which should be enjoyed by all types of cities, to use or not use as they may decide.

I submit further, Mr. Speaker, that if we would by means of broad general legislation give the municipalities of Pennsylvania the powers which they should properly possess, and which we could by one simple act confer upon them, we would not have this stream of legislation granting particular powers that comes before us.

Now, if it is not the intention of the administration to enact any such legislation then we must continue as we have done in the past. If it is the purpose of the administration to grant municipalities this long deferred home rule power that we have talked so much about, then all of these measures should be referred back to Committee until such time as the administration has presented its home rule program for municipalities.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has some points that are well taken. We should like to assure him that this same subject matter was the subject of very serious consideration on our part, as a result of which we understand that the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Stonier, has in mind recommitting House Bill No. 187, referred to by the gentleman, for further study, in connection with the same thought that the gentleman presents here.

As to the present bill, inasmuch as it is somewhat beyond the ordinary powers of raising additional revenue, I am not sure that it falls in the same category, and while I do not attempt to usurp the prerogatives of the gentleman from Delaware, the sponsor on this particular measure, it does seem to me that there is a distinction in the type of the two bills, and while we will leave it to the discretion of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Layer, as to the disposition of his measure, we want to assure the gentleman that House Bill No. 187 will not be acted upon except as indicated, and leave disposition of House Bill No. 110 to the sponsor of the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 113, entitled:

An Act to add section eight point one and to amend section thirteen of the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 626) entitled "An act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of all subjects of taxation in counties of the second class creating and prescribing the powers and duties of a Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review imposing duties on certain county and city officers abolishing the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in such counties and prescribing penalties" by further providing for the assessment and valuation of buildings under construction and land which has been laid out in building lots

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haller, before this bill passes?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haller, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALLER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman be kind enough to tell me what is meant by permanent construction as it appears on page 3, line 5 of the amendment which you have inserted here.

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, permanent construction would embrace any forms of construction such as houses, streets, sewers and water lines, anything that would transform the property in its physical appearance from the acreage in which it existed to building lots.

In order to give you a little bit of the background and possibly answer your question, the practice has been the minute a recorded plan goes on record, to assess those lots as lots, notwithstanding the fact that the physical condition of the property has not changed thereby, resulting in increasing sometimes as much as four hundred or 500 per cent the assessed value of the property, notwithstanding that its physical condition has not changed.

Mr. BROWN. May I further ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if it is not true that under this amendment the acreage may be purchased, may be planted with vegetation, shrubbery; the lots may be recorded and then may be sold at a higher price because of the shrubbery, and the taxing authority would be unable to levy any additional taxes for three years. Is that not possible?

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, as far as shrubbery is concerned, it is not a permanent improvement, but by the same token the increase of value that follows would ultimately result in a benefit to the taxing body. And by the same token it would stimulate improvement of real estate on the part of real estate men and builders.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that the market value of the acreage could be greatly increased notwithstanding the fact that no buildings had been placed upon it?

Mr. HALLER. I do not believe, Mr. Speaker, that the planting of shrubbery would appreciably increase the value of real estate to that extent.

Mr. BROWN. Let us take another example, Mr. Speaker. Let us suppose that the acreage is somewhat hilly and those who purchased the acreage by proper methods of construction would level it off and would then make it salable; still unless buildings were placed upon the lots the taxing bodies would have no power for a period of three years to levy additional taxes on the acreage. Is that not correct?

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, I think the leveling and grading of acreage would constitute a permanent improvement on the theory that you wouldn't put the dirt back again where you had filled, as against the other case in which the shrubbery which more or less can be removed at will. I would think that the grading of the lot would constitute an improvement of that lot.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know that is a fact or is it just an opinion?

Mr. HALLER. Well, Mr. Speaker, applying what I consider the commonsense rule that if you grade a lot you definitely improve it, and by so doing it is a permanent improvement because the character and nature of the land has changed.

Mr. BROWN. Would the gentleman say that is a permanent construction, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. HALLER. I would say, Mr. Speaker, that the operation of grading or filling is a construction job.

Mr. BROWN. Is it permanent construction?

Mr. HALLER. I would say, yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman feel in order that the bill may not do damage to the taxing authorities, that it should be amended and made clear as to what is meant by permanent construction?

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, I feel that the bill in its present form is designed as a stimulant toward real estate development and real estate building, which is sorely needed in this Commonwealth. The matter of usable land at this time is a serious matter so far as constructors and builders are concerned, and everything that is done to give them any aid in home construction will undoubtedly benefit the community by reason of the fact that there will be more improved real estate subject to taxes.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman willing to recommit this bill for further study by the Committee from which it came?

Mr. HALLER. No, I am not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 118, entitled:

An Act to further amend the third paragraph of section five of the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 326) entitled "An act relating to counties of the first class defining deceased service persons providing for contributions by the county to the funeral expenses for such persons and their widows providing for the erection and care of markers headstones and flags and for the compilation of war records" authorizing the erection of headstones for deceased service persons whose bodies will not or cannot be returned to the United States and increasing amount of cost in certain cases

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 120, entitled:

thereto" authorizing the erection of headstones for deceased service persons whose bodies will not or cannot be returned to the United States and increasing amount of costs in certain cases

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 135, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one thousand three and one thousand one hundred ten of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" changing method of determining priority of political parties on ballot

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Ragot.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RAGOT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman from Northampton why he feels that it is better to determine the place on the ballot as the result of the gubernatorial rather than the presidential election.

Mr. RAGOT. Mr. Speaker, we should be interested in the action taken by the voters of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and that is best exposed in their choice for the office of governor. That choice should be the determining factor.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman if Governor Dewey of New York had been elected President of the United States at the last presidential election, whether he would have introduced this bill.

RESOLUTION

25th BIENNIAL DINNER PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATIVE CORRESPONDENTS ASSOCIATION

Messrs. SORG and ANDREWS offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 18, 1947.

Whereas, a great gold rush is sweeping the Commonwealth; and

Whereas, the search for gold centers in the Halls of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, Legislators have struck no gold and are desirous of knowing where same is to be found; and

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents' Association, in its wisdom and sympathetic understanding, has long been aware of the fact that Legislators always vote for all appropriations and against all taxes; and

Whereas, the Association has taken note of the puzzled gold diggers among the statehood and has generously agreed to show how gold may be had by all without any digging; and

Whereas, the Association is willing to follow the example of the legislators to the extent of letting the other fellow pay the bill; and

Whereas, this feat of magic surpluses and deficits will be demonstrated for the minute sum of $10 per look, cash on the barrel-head; therefore

Be it resolved, that the Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives do hereby resolve themselves into a Committee of the HOLE to attend the 25th Biennial Dinner and Gridiron Show of the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents' Association in the ballroom of the Penn-Harris Hotel on the evening of Tuesday, April 8, 1947; and

Be it further resolved, that various other sourdoughs and mushers of Harrisburg, particularly gold-prospecting friends of said legislators and said members of the Association, be permitted to attend the opening of the gold mine and see at first hand whether all is gold that glitters; provided, of course, that said characters have 10 bucks.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might say from the rostrum, looking over the membership of the House, there seem to be more members who have lost their hair worrying about this gold rush than the correspondents. We are very happy to have this perplexing problem solved by the genius of the press.

RESOLUTION

Mr. ANDREWS offered a resolution which was laid over under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, this resolution asks the Public School Employees' Retirement Fund for certain information. From the documents that are available at the present time for the instruction of the public it would appear that the unpaid contributions to the fund from employees total $621,000; that the unpaid contributions from school districts total $891,000; that the bonds in default are $415,000; that the interest on the bonds in default is $223,000. Incidentally, that is not a large proportion of bonds in default in a portfolio that contains some $236,000,000.

It would also appear that, as you know, under the statute the expenses of administration of the fund are to be borne by the earnings in excess of four per cent, and if the earnings are not four per cent, then the expenses of administration are to be borne by biennial appropriations made by the Commonwealth.

It does not appear from a more or less careful scrutiny of the Department of Education expenditures, or of biennial appropriations, that the expenses of administering the fund have been paid by the Commonwealth. It would rather appear that those expenses of administering the fund have been paid out of earnings of the fund; and of course to that extent the teachers have been short changed.

I cannot find that there has been a statement as to an actuarial balance since prior to 1944. I can find no evidence as far as a public document is concerned that there has been a comprehensive audit of the fund since 1944, and neither can I find,—not from an exhaustive inquiry but a more or less casual inquiry that it is immediately possible for any member of the fund to ascertain immediately just what his or her equities in this fund are. It is therefore my belief that this is a serious matter, a matter in which a great many people are financially and directly concerned, in which the Commonwealth and the Legislature are concerned, and that therefore it is perfectly in order that we should ask for certain definite information in order that we may determine whether further action on the part of this House should be taken.

RESOLUTION

Mr. LEISEY offered a resolution which was laid over for printing under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LEISEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Hopewell Village, national historic site, Berks and Chester Counties includes the iron making village and its surroundings covering about 5400 acres contains the Hopewell Lake, Baptism Creek, and Sixpenny Picnic areas. Many miles of foot and horse trails traverse the wooded hills, the Horseshoe Trail and part of the National Appalachian Trail lead from French Creek Falls over Mt. Pleasant and Williams Hills. The Boone Trail forms a loop around the lake and passes the fire tower—wild life is protected; has trees, shrubs, and wild flowers of nearly endless varieties.

The French Creek and the lake which cover about 76 acres is stocked with fish.

There are overnight and picnicking accommodations. The attendance fell off during the war, but increased again last year. In 1946 there were over 90,000 overnight, and about 200,000 day visitors. The high for one day was July 4, 1946, when over 7,000 visitors were at this place. Within a 50 mile radius of this park, there is a population of about five million, many who are not able to visit our upstate parks, visit Hopewell. The people of Philadelphia are interested in this park, as it is within easy reach of that city. The park was mentioned in the report to the people No. 15, Feb. 3, Philadelphia Inquirer, "The U. S. Depart. of Interior restored to State Central the 5350 acre French Creek recreational area, planned as Philadelphia's forest playground."

By a recent act of Congress this land will soon be turned back to the State Dept. of Forests and Waters. I have many requests from service clubs, sportsmen, business and professional men and individuals that this park be continued, developed, and operated as one of our State Parks.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Floor Leader.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the Chairman of the Rules Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like to inquire, Mr. Speaker, as to the present status and possible intention if any in regard to House Resolution No. 1.

Mr. SORG. Will the gentleman please state the subject matter, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it has reference to the purchase and installation of an electrical roll call system, and my inquiry is as to the reason why we didn't get it. What I want to know, Mr. Speaker, is whether that has gone into the bottom of the well and will not be heard from or was it the intention to act at some time in the future favorably upon it?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, the matter has not gone to the bottom of the well; it has gone to a very active subcommittee, and we are prepared to say to the gentleman that he may expect effective action in the very near future.

By Mr. LEISEY. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 15.

In the House of Representatives, February 18, 1947.

"Hopewell", an area in Berks and Chester Counties of 5400 acres (of which 5,000 acres are woodland), formerly under the jurisdiction of the Federal Government, is now subject to the control and supervision of the Department of Forests and Waters since it was granted to the Commonwealth under the provisions of the act approved the 22nd day of May, 1945, (P. L. 834).

This beautiful park and recreational area has been partially developed. Further development is quite feasible at any time by the construction of headquarters buildings, cabins, public bathing beaches, playgrounds, and certain electrical, sewerage, and safety equipment, the breaking of trails, and the maintenance thereof.

There are now a dozen or more State parks; there is no such park in the southeastern part of the State; within a fifty mile radius of "Hopewell" there is a population of five million. These people, hundreds of thousands of whom have visited the area in the last five years, together with sportsmen who hope to see a game preserve in part of the area, and service clubs, urge and desire that "Hopewell" be made a State Park, since most of them have no opportunity to visit our other State Parks; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Department of Forests and Waters continue to maintain "Hopewell" as a park and recreational area, and that the Department of Forests and Waters improve and develop "Hopewell" if, as, and when moneys available for such purpose permit.

Referred to the Committee on State Government.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain prayer was offered by Reverend J. F. KNITTLE, D.D., pastor of the Zion "Red Rose" Lutheran Church, Manheim, Pa.

Almighty God, in Whom we live and have our constant being, Thou Who Art the fountain of all wisdom, Who Art touched with the feeling of our infirmities and Who knowest our necessities before we ask, we beseech Thee to have compassion upon us, and those things which because of our unworthiness we dare not ask, vouchsafe to give us, and evermore defend us from all adversities and lead us to Thy praise.

O merciful Father, Whose kingdom is everlasting and Whose power is infinite, and Who holdest in Thy hand all the might of man, and Who hast ordained the powers that be for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well, and of Whom is all rule and authority in the kingdoms of the world: we humbly beseech Thee, graciously regard with Thy blessing Thy servants, the President of the United States, the Governor of this Commonwealth and all others in authority, that they, knowing whose ministers they are, may seek Thy honor and glory; and that we and all people may faithfully and obediently honor them, in Thee, according to Thy Word; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who with Thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth ever, one God, World without end. Amen.

PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN ACKNOWLEDG-EDGING RESOLUTION

THE EVENING BULLETIN
Filbert and Juniper Streets
Philadelphia, Penna.

Office of the President, Robert McLean

February 19, 1947.

Honorable G. Harold Watkins
Secretary, Senate of Pennsylvania
Harrisburg, Penna.

Dear Sir:

In acknowledging receipt of the certified copy of a resolution adopted by the Senate of Pennsylvania it is my pleasure to express to the Senate and all members thereof our deep appreciation of this expression of confidence and interest and good wishes contained in their complimentary action.

In behalf of all of the executives and staff of The Bulletin I should like to say we hope to continue to merit the approval of the citizens of the State of Pennsylvania whom we serve, as well as those in adjoining regions whose interest we also have at heart.

Respectfully yours,
ROBERT McLEAN, President.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. JASPAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, the Honorable David E. Lilienthal today is the target of attack by many Senators in the United States, and obviously the main motive for attack is a political grudge hiding behind utterly unfounded accusations concerning Communism. Further attacks stem from the utilities who, through their lobbyists, are working feverishly to block Mr. Lilienthal's confirmation. The utilities, fearful of the possibilities of atomic bomb energy, envisage the end of their gigantic empire which has enslaved the consumer unless the Atomic Bomb Energy Commission is controlled by utility-minded persons. To the utilities the future of the world, not only from the standpoint of peace, but also scientific development, means little. Little do the utilities care now that the entire world can be destroyed unless atomic bomb energy is properly controlled. Little do the utilities concern themselves about any advance in science, but they are very much concerned that atomic bomb energy when fully explored may replace such utilities as coal, gas and electricity. Their viewpoint undoubtedly is selfish, and in Lilienthal they fear a man who, free from politics and the influence of utilities, some day as a member of the Atomic Bomb Energy Commission may in the interest of permanent peace and scientific development, strike hard at the utilities. In short, the utilities want no part of him.

Mr. Lilienthal has proven himself. His entire career has been devoted to public service. He more recently distinguished himself as Chairman of the T. V. A., giving the people in the Tennessee Valley reforestation, flood control, eliminated soil erosion, and more important cheap electricity over the opposition of the utilities. Today the Tennessee Valley is a beautiful sight to behold. Notwithstanding his ability, courage and untiring and unselfish efforts, opposition has developed from selfish sources. Scores, however, including outstanding scientists, religionists, statesmen from all over the world, have rallied to his cause.

We likewise, forgetting politics, and having only the interests of our people at heart, should express ourselves in no uncertain terms that we are behind him four-square.

I therefore take this opportunity to offer a concurrent resolution, memorializing the Senate of United States to confirm his nomination.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

MEMORIALIZING THE UNITED STATES SENATE TO CONFIRM THE APPOINTMENT OF
DAVID E. LILIENTHAL

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. JASPAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations:

In the Senate, February 24, 1947.

David E. Lilienthal, an outstanding citizen of the United States, has been nominated by President Truman for the post of Chairman of the Federal Atomic Energy Commission.

The United States Senate Committee on Atomic Energy has been holding hearings on Mr. Lilienthal's qualifications for the post for several weeks. The matter of whether Senate confirmation will follow has become a national issue and the subject of wide public and private discussion.

It is not questioned among all the debate that Mr. Lilienthal is peculiarly qualified by experience for this post. He was for years the successful administrator of the largest power project this country has set up, the Tennessee Valley Authority (T. V. A.). It is not questioned that he has unselfishly devoted to the service of his country many years of his life—to the credit of his record and for the gain of the national welfare. It is not questioned that he is familiar with the problems relating to power and to atomic energy.

Admittedly, the post of Chairman of the Federal Atomic Energy Commission requires a man of his experience and, since international political problems are inextricably involved with atomic energy, a man whose allegiance to this country is unquestioned.

David E. Lilienthal is that man; therefore, be it Resolved (if the House of Representatives concurs). That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the Senate of the United States to confirm the appointment of David E. Lilienthal as Chairman of the Federal Atomic Energy Commission; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States Senate, and to the Honorable Francis J. Myers and Edward Martin, United States Senators from Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, out of deference to my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, my remarks today concerning the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board will be brief. My reason for being brief is that today on our calendar are several important bills that are of great interest to all the citizens of our Commonwealth, and it is not my wish to take up time now which can be well used in debating these measures when they come before us today.

Last week and the week before I told members of the Senate that if the merchandising policy of the Liquor Control Board was maintained the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board would wind up with far less profit than in any preceding year. The increase in prices, made on December 18, 1946, average an increase of 54 cents on each fifth of whiskey sold. Liquor now costs more in Pennsylvania than in adjoining states.

I now find liquor sales in Pennsylvania took a 30 per cent nosedive during the month of January; this is 30 per cent below the amount of the corresponding period last year. According to a United Press story out of Harrisburg, a spokesman for the Liquor Board conceded that this situation, if continued, would have an adverse effect on the liquor system's earnings.

I further submit to you men of the Senate that we are opening the doors for the unscrupulous bootlegger who will be willing to supply liquor to the people of Pennsylvania at a price they can afford to pay. Pennsylvania again is subject to the evils of prohibition—prohibition brought about, not by law, but by reckless profiteering by an uncontrolled monopoly which has forgotten the reason for its creation.

The Board's last price increase is estimated to increase State Store profits by some $22,000,000 annually, whereas the 10 per cent tax in 1945 totaled $12,884,863. Thus the Board's arbitrary 48 per cent tax on the wartime increase of Federal excise tax put a burden on purchasers twice as great as the 10 per cent tax enacted by the Legislature which is the only branch of the Government which may properly impose and remove taxes.

I again call on the Executive branch of the State Government to obey the mandates of the legislation and give to us a real Liquor Control Board. The Board should have a member who knows merchandising. The Board should have a member who knows the liquor industry. The Board should have a member who knows enforcement. This is the type of Board that was appointed under the Pinchot administration when the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board was formulated. It is the same type of Board that was appointed when Governor Earle took office.

When this is done the Liquor Control Board will function in the interests of all the people in Pennsylvania. Then, and only then, will our liquor control system really control.

Mr. President, I want to read into the record a letter from Laurence H. Eldredge, president of Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverage Study, Inc., which is a non-profit organization made up of very high and respectable citizens in our State. There are two men from my county who are on the Board of Directors that I know, and both happen to belong to the party of the men on the opposite side of the aisle, Alexander P. Lindsay and Thurston Wright, treasurer of the Republican Finance Committee of Allegheny County.

The letter reads as follows:

"Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverage Study, Inc.
1528 Walnut Street
Philadelphia 2, Penna.

February 20, 1947.

"Honorable Joseph M. Barr,
5744 Kentucky Avenue,
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

"Dear Senator Barr:

"The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board's latest price boost is shaking public confidence in the whole state store system. The bottle of whiskey the Board sells for $4 or more can be made for 16 cents.

"The Act of 1933 which created the Liquor Control Board monopoly was enacted under the police power for the purpose of regulating the sale of liquor. It was not a revenue act. It was stated by its sponsors that this state monopoly would keep the price of liquor so low that illicit distillation, smuggling and bootlegging would never return to Pennsylvania. Now the Board has lost sight of everything but profits.

"Price policies in recent years are a perversion of the legislative intent. It is a shortsighted policy which greedily grabs for the highest possible price and in so doing sows the seeds which will grow into the whole crop of prohibition evils, including moral corruption of officials by bootleg profits and physical corruption of consumers by bootleg liquor. Governor Duff is badly advised by those who urge him to try to make $30,000,000 a year out of liquor. That much profit stimulates the worst kind of competition and will produce social evil.

"As wartime controls over sugar are relaxed, the citizen will find the bootlegger ready to supply liquor at a price he can afford to pay. Pennsylvania will again be subject to the evils of prohibition—prohibition brought about not by law but by reckless profiteering by an uncontrolled monopoly which has forgotten the reason for its creation.

"Experience has proved that it is necessary for the Legislature to curb the price fixing powers of this uncontrolled monopoly. (The next paragraph in the letter I do not fully agree with but I am reading it in as it has been received.)

"The best way would be a statute limiting the Board's maximum markup over cost price of 33-1/3%, which is the percentage recognized in the industry's fair trade practices as the proper markup in retail sales of liquor. Other alternatives are set forth in the enclosed memorandum.

"If this organization can give you further information, we shall be glad to do so.

Sincerely yours,

LAURENCE H. ELDREDGE, President."

"Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverage Study, Inc.
Room 1110—1528 Walnut Street
Philadelphia 2, Pa.

February 20, 1947.

"Memorandum re Reduction of Pennsylvania State Store Liquor Prices

"On December 18, 1946, the Pennsylvania State Liquor Control Board raised state store prices. The average increase on a fifth of whisky was 54 cents. Liquor now costs more in Pennsylvania than in adjoining states.

"This price boost resulted from the inclusion of wartime increases of federal excise taxes on liquor ($5 per proof gallon) in the cost of merchandise on which the Board applied its profit mark-up of 48 percent.

"Some 3,000,000 voters in Pennsylvania drink liquor and are directly affected by its price; every voter is affected by the social effects of ill conceived price policies.

"In October 1941, when the federal excise tax was increased from $3.00 to $4.00 a gallon, the Board, in deference to the protest of the press and of this organization, reduced its mark-up on liquor from 55 percent to 48 percent and thus avoided taking a profit on the federal tax increase.

"As the Board has failed to lower its profit mark-up to offset this recently imposed "tax on a tax," legislative action is called for in order that Pennsylvania citizens may purchase liquor at no higher prices than are paid by citizens in other states.

"Three alternatives may be considered.

"1. An Act limiting the Board's maximum mark-up to 33-1/3%.

"2. An Act providing that the Liquor Control Board in fixing the prices at which it sells liquor shall calculate its mark-up on the actual cost price less Federal excise taxes, and shall then add to that figure the present Federal tax.

"At present the Federal tax is $9 a gallon. 48% of that is $4.32 making a total of $13.32. The Pennsylvania 10% sales tax on this $13.32 is another $1.33 or a total of $14.65 per gallon, combined Federal tax, Pennsylvania mark-up on Federal tax, and 10% Pennsylvania sales tax. This is exclusive of the alcohol distiller's price for liquor and the 48 percent mark-up on that cost. The present practice, in effect, levies a Pennsylvania tax of $5.65 a gallon upon all Federal tax of $9 a gallon.

"If the Legislature is not willing to exclude all Federal excise taxes from the cost on which the Board imposes a mark-up, at least the wartime Federal excise taxes ($5 per proof gallon) should be excluded. This would prevent the Board levying a tax of $2.40 a gallon upon the wartime Federal tax increase of $5 a gallon. This organization has written to a number of other Monopoly States asking whether they take a mark-up on wartime Federal excise taxes. All the States which have replied report that they do not follow this course. The States are: West Virginia, Virginia, Vermont, Maine, Ohio, Michigan.

"In Maine, no mark-up is taken on the increase from $3 to $4 which became effective October 1, 1944. In Ohio, no mark-up is taken on the increase from $2.25 to $3.00, which became effective July 1, 1940.

"3. Refusal to continue the 10% Emergency Sales Tax on Liquor.

"This tax was originally imposed in 1936 upon the definite representation that it was a temporary measure to provide needed relief during an economic depression.

"In view of the tremendous revenues derived from alcoholic beverages in Pennsylvania, amounting to some $55,000,000 in 1946 (including license fees returned to municipalities) there is no reason for the continuance of this tax.

"The Board's last price increase is estimated to increase state store profits by some $22,000,000 annually whereas the $10 tax in 1946 totaled $12,884,863. Thus the Board's arbitrary 48% tax on the wartime increase of Federal excise tax put a burden on purchasers twice as great as the 10% tax enacted by the Legislature which is the only branch of the Government which may properly impose and remove taxes."

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am asking permission of the Senate to include in the Legislative Journal the memorandum attached to the letter from the Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverage Study, Inc.

(There being no objection, permission was granted.)

REPORT FROM JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE REVENUES NEEDED FOR STATE FUNCTIONS

Mr. HEYBURN, on behalf of the Joint Committee to Investigate Revenues Needed For State Functions, submitted the following report:

The members of the Joint Committee to Investigate Revenues Need For State Functions, appointed under authority of Concurrent Resolution No. 3, adopted by the House on January 28 and agreed to by the Senate on the same day, herewith respectfully submits its report to the General Assembly.

In accordance with the duties imposed upon the Committee by this Resolution, the Committee studied the surplus in existence as of May 31st, 1945, finances of the 1945-1947 biennium and estimated finances of the 1947-1949 biennium.

Surplus, May 31, 1945

The Committee had presented to it a statement prepared by the Budget Office, and issued by Governor Martin on June 3, 1945, showing the condition of the State's finances as of May 31, 1945.

The statement showed that as of May 31, 1945, there was a General Fund surplus of $109,498,000 and a Motor Fund surplus of $57,250,000, making a total surplus of $166,745,000 in these two funds. Other information given to the Committee was to the effect that there were surplus funds in other funds, chiefly the Fish and Game Funds, to make the total surplus $170,000,000.

The statement issued on June 3, 1945, showed that the entire General Fund surplus of $109,498,000 was all appropriated by the 1945 Session of the Legislature—$48,870,000 was appropriated to redeem General State Authority bonds and the balance was appropriated for a program of postwar projects.

Those appropriations for postwar projects were as follows:

$60,628,000 of this program represents surplus funds. The balance, $15,607,000, was appropriated from estimated current revenues of the 1945-1947 biennium.

Of this total $76,235,000 program, $46,352,295.97 had been allocated for definite projects by the departments and the Governor as of January 31, 1947. The Committee finds that of this $46,352,295.97, $7,916,302.32 has been spent.

The Post-War program adopted by the previous legislature would require that these allocations remain.

The surplus in the Motor Fund is all restricted by constitutional amendment to use for highways, safety, and aeronautics. The small surpluses in the other funds are restricted by law for use in funds in which they exist.

Finances of the 1945-1947 biennium

The statement issued by Governor Martin on June 3, 1945, showed that total funds available in the General Fund for the 1945-1947 biennium were estimated to be $514,148,000, consisting of $109,498,000 in surplus and $404,650,000 of estimated revenues. Against this total, appropriations approved were $513,839,904.50, of which amount $388,734,664.50 was for current operations and $125,105,240.00 for post-war public works and redeeming of General State Authority bonds, leaving only a balance of $308,095.50.

The Committee finds that in addition to the $513,839,904.50 appropriated by the 1945 Session, deficiency appropriations amounting to $33,115,820 will be needed. An appropriation of $23,400,000 already made by this Session for Public Assistance is part of this total. There are funds from State Store profits in excess of the amount estimated to be received and additional lapses amounting to $37,611,074.31 available for appropriation by the present Session from which these deficiencies can be appropriated if the Legislature so decides. Whatever amount of the $37,611,074.31 is not appropriated will remain as a surplus at the end of the 1945-1947 biennium if the estimate of revenue is realized. If the deficiencies are appropriated as requested this amount will be approximately $5,000,000.

Finances of the 1947-1949 biennium

As explained, if the estimate of revenue is realized for the 1945-1947 biennium there will be surplus funds in the General Fund of about $5,000,000 carried over from the 1945-1947 biennium. The estimate of revenue prepared by the Department of Revenue last fall is $372,000,000. Since that time the manufacturers' exemption from the Capital Stock Tax has gone into effect and it is estimated that this will cause a reduction of $24,000,000 in the estimate, reducing the amount to $348,000,000. Moreover, since that estimate was made there has been a change in the method of calculating the mark-up on liquor sold in State stores whereby $5.00 of Federal tax is now included before the mark-up whereas before it was excluded. It is estimated this change will result in increased revenue of $40,000,000, bringing the estimate from present tax sources up to $388,600,000. With the estimated surplus of $5,000,000 from the 1945-1947 biennium this would make available funds of $393,600,000.

The requests for appropriations for current operations submitted by the departments total $602,000,000. This compares with requests for the previous biennium of $391,532,632, of which amount $388,731,664 was appropriated. Deficiency requests are $33,115,820 and if appropriated will bring total appropriations for the 1945-1947 biennium to $421,847,484. Appropriations requested, for the 1947-1949 biennium, therefore, exceed estimated revenues by $214,000,000 for the normal operations of the State Government, under existing law.

Since the Governor has not yet submitted his budget, it is not known what amount of appropriations he will request. Past experience indicates that departmental requests considerably exceed the Governor's budget. Moreover, it appears to the Committee that the estimate of revenue is very conservative and could be revised upwards.

The departments submitted requests for the 1947-1949 biennium for $99,000,000 for construction and public works. $87,000,000 of this amount was requested for the Department of Welfare. In this connection it should be mentioned there is a $50,000,000 bond issue for public works which has been passed by the voters and can be made available in this Session.

Any amounts that may be approved for teachers' salaries or for any other purposes beyond existing law must be provided for in addition to any amounts set forth in this report.

Respectfully submitted,

WELDON B. HEYBURN

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. FARRELL read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 190, entitled:

An Act to repeal certain statutes relating to oleomargine, butterine or similar substances manufactured wholly or partly from fats, oils or oleaginous substances.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BECKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, I am going to read in place and present a bill. In presenting this bill, I have read in "Legislative Procedure" that there is a requirement that a bill shall be folded in neat form, three and a half by eight inches, with the title endorsed on the back, and I was in a dilemma, Mr. President, as to how I could accomplish this purpose, when I had occasion today to have lunch with the oldest, in point of years, member of the Legislature, I think, the Honorable Wilson, Henry I., and he said to me, "My boy, out of my experience, let me tell you that "Legislative Procedure" says that the bill shall be folded but it does not say who shall do the folding. So, Mr. President, I call upon the Secretary of the Senate to furnish me with a man and two boys to take this bill to the rostrum for the purpose of folding, after which it may be read.

Seriously, however, Mr. President, this bill represents the work of the School Commission since the last session of the Legislature. It is a codification of all of the amendments to the school code of 1911, of which there are several hundred.

It so happens that Attorney General Schnader, as far back as his term of office, recommended that our code be clarified, codified, and organized in such a manner that it would be more intelligible to lawyers, and school men called upon to interpret it.

This work has been done during the past two years and is represented in the bill that I am about to present. I think it is only fair, but perhaps somewhat unusual, that I should give some credit for the work of this codification to Mr. Hannestad, Deputy Attorney General Harrington Adams and Mr. Paul H. Wueller, Executive Director for the School Commission. I think I can say, in frankness with myself and in fairness to them, that as chairman of this codification committee, this job that I am doing now is the first hard work I have had in connection with the preparation of this bill.

I present to you, Mr. President, and read in place this bill entitled the Public School Code of Pennsylvania of 1947.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, may I suggest, in line with the suggestion of the gentleman from Lebanon, Senator Becker, that the three heavyweight members of the Senate, Senator DiSilvestro, Senator Watson and Senator Becker himself, sit on the bills and reduce them to the proper size.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am about to present to the chair two bills which deal with the assessemnt of taxes on $300,000,000 of real estate owned by the utilities, in compensation for the services which they receive from the local municipalities.

I want to state for the information of the press and the members of the Senate that Pennsylvania is the only state of the forty-eight that does not tax real estate of utilities, the same as all other real estate is taxed.

I sincerely hope that this term of the Legislature will correct this privilege, which was granted to the utilities of Pennsylvania by decision of court in 1855. Public utilities were privately owned by small groups, in towns. The court at that time said that the power of taxing included the power of selling real estate for non-payment of taxes, and if real estate of the utilities were taxed and sold it would disrupt the services.

Today these utilities are large monopolies and it would not disrupt service. In fact, they have plenty of money to pay real estate taxes, the same as the man who owns his home.

I sincerely hope this session of the Legislature will correct this great evil in Pennsylvania and we will take our place with the other forty-eight states.

I might state to the gentlemen on the other side of the Senate that in the other forty-eight states there are a lot of Republican governors who have added the real estate feature to the tax on utilities, and if that were done in this state it would mean in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that we would get about $20,000,000 alone for the upkeep and maintenance of our schools.

RESOLUTIONS

COMMITTEE BE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE CHILD DELINQUENCY

Mr. JASPAN offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Law and Order:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, February 24, 1947.

Whereas, There has been a wave of shocking murders committed by boys in their early teens, particularly shocking was the case in which two fifteen year old boys brutally murdered a Philadelphia policeman who was in the act of befriending them; and

Whereas, Heretofore it seemed to be an established fact that murders of this type could only come from years of criminal training in slums of the worst kind, instead of, as in this case, from highly respectable environments and communities and apparently having no relationship to poverty; and

Whereas, The Philadelphia Inquirer stated editorially, under date of February 23rd, 1947:

"Two murders a day are committed in this country by boys and girls under 20.

Teen-age murders increased 25 percent in 1945 over the preceding year.

Preliminary figures for 1946 indicate still another sharp increase.

A large proportion of these crimes is committed by minors who come from respectable and at least moderately affluent families.

Child crime is by no means a disease of poverty. It is no respecter of family position.

What causes it? What can be done to prevent it?

In an article in the Woman's Home Companion, Albert Deutsch delves into the background of teen-age homicide and comes up with the conclusion, based on study of many case histories, that the youths involved almost without exception have shown unmistakable signs of emotional derangement long before they kill. It is his belief that most if not all child murders could be prevented.

When adults kill, save in the case of the criminally insane, there is usually a well-defined motive: desire for money or power, revenge, lust. Teen-age homicides, in contrast, appear meaningless—except to those who take the trouble to examine the backgrounds of the killers. There the causes may be found, and there the prevention lies,"

and

Whereas, To what extent our institutions, our schools, our churches and our families are at fault cannot readily and hastily be said, but the problem is tremendous; and

Whereas, The problem has reached such amazing proportions that the solution thereof requires immediate action; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concurs) That a committee of seven be appointed, consisting of three members of the Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore, and four Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker, to investigate—(1) the causes leading to the commission of murders by teen-age children; (2) the conditions, background, circumstances that produced these child murderers; (3) the part our institutions, schools, churches, family life have failed to perform and should perform; and (4) the conclusions and appraisals of the problem by sociologists, psychiatrists and others of expert opinion or of wide acquaintance with the problem; and be it further

Resolved, That the said committee shall within sixty days of the adoption of this resolution, file its report of its findings with the General Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) is hereby specifically appropriated to the said committee for the purpose of defraying the costs involved in conducting the investigation herein directed.

IN MEMORIUM, DONALD McFALL

Mr. WOODRING offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Whereas, on Tuesday, February 18, 1947, Almighty God called the Reverend Mr. Donald McFall to his eternal rest at the age of forty-three years, and

Whereas, the said Donald McFall was a son of the Honorable and Mrs. Charles McFall of Bangor, Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, the Reverend Mr. McFall was an educator in the public schools of Milford, Pen Argyl, Steelton, Springfield and Quakertown, and

Whereas, he was a minister of the Gospel for the past ten years serving the Ebenezer Evangelical Church at Leighton, The Salem Church at Big Creek, the Steelton-Charlton charge of the Evangelical Church and the Quakertown Evangelical Church, and

Whereas, the Reverend Mr. McFall, was Chaplain of the House of Representatives in the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during the 1941 Session, and the Extra-Ordinary Session of 1942, and

Whereas, the Reverend Mr. McFall fulfilled his said office of Chaplain with an outstanding degree of consecration, fidelity and sincerity.

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Senate of Pennsylvania note with deep sorrow the passing of a noble citizen, a devoted Clergyman and an outstanding Chaplain; and that his many friends in the General Assembly have suffered a personal and irreparable loss, and

Be It Further Resolved, that in evidence of the deep sympathy of the Senate, the Secretary thereof shall transmit a copy of this Resolution to the bereaved family of the said Donald McFall, his parents, the Honorable and Mrs. Charles McFall, Bangor, Pennsylvania, and his wife, Mrs. Margaret Wilkinson McFall, Quakertown, Pennsylvania.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred forty-one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance, exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," further defining and amplifying the powers of foreign insurance companies with relation to real property in this Commonwealth.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before the question is put, I have been requested by the Pittsburgh Redevelopment Authority to request a public hearing on Senate Bill No. 1 and Senate Bill No. 2 and therefore I would suggest to the sponsor that the bills go on the postponed second reading calendar, for the purpose of holding public hearings. There are some features of this bill and Senate Bill No. 2 that are desirable, and yet there are questions raised that the passage of these bills may interfere with plans already made for redevelopment housing in some of the larger metropolises of the state.

I therefore request that the sponsor grant public hearings on Senate Bill No. 1 and No. 2.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I know the gentleman from Westmoreland is interested in housing, as we all are in the Senate, and I am sure he will agree, since the bills are not in good order—there are something like a dozen or more printing and typographical errors—and then there is another amendment that has been suggested to the bill and therefore, if the gentleman from Westmoreland will agree to let the bills go over in their order until these amendments are prepared, and if they are approved by the Senate, then the bills will be in order for such action as the gentleman from Westmoreland might want to suggest at that time.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, to the sponsor of these bills I would suggest, if there are that many things wrong in the bills in their present shape, it might be a better solution if the bills went back to committee and there be in position to be corrected, as well as held for whatever public hearings may be necessary for the passage of this legislation.

I would therefore suggest to the sponsor of these bills, in order to expedite matters, that the bills be returned to committee.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, the gentleman has made two requests and I submit to him that the proper procedure, before a public hearing would be called, would be for the bills to go back to committee and therefore I again request that we offer the amendments on the floor, as soon as they are prepared, and at that time take whatever action might be appropriate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have been here a long time but this is the first time I ever heard that was the best way of doing things. It would seem to me the best procedure would be for the bills to go back to the Committee which reported the bills out, with the thought they have the right to correct them.

The PRESIDENT. As far as the Chair is concerned, the gentleman from Westmoreland made a request but the gentleman from Cumberland has requested unanimous consent that the bill go over in its order.

Is there objection?

Mr. DENT. I object, of course, Mr. President.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1, on second reading, go over in its order.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—32

Becker,	Donlan,	Letzler,	Wade,
Berger,	Farrell,	Lord,	Wagner,
Blass,	Frazier,	Mahany,	Walker,
Carr,	Geltz,	Ruth,	Watson,
Chapman,	Hare,	Snowden,	Wilson,
Crider,	Heyburn,	Stevenson,	Wolfe,
Crowe,	Homsher,	Tallman,	Wood, L. H.,
Doehla,	Kephart,	Tyler,	Wood, T. N.,

NAYS—13

Barr,	Holland,	Leader,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Jaspan,	Rahauser,	Tarr,
DiSilvestro,	Lane,	Rosenfeld,	Woodring,
Haluska,

So the quesiton was determiend in the affirmative.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 2, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, aproved the seven-teenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," repealing sections four hundred four, four hundred five, and four hundred six thereof, and adding new sections restating and changing requirements relating to the investment of the capital reserves and surplus of and relating to the real estate which may be held by life insurance companies; and authorizing agreements between or among insurance companies concerning ownership and control of real estate.

go over in its order.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I object.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 2, on second reading, go over in its order.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Our eternal God and Father, Thou Who art great, and greatly to be praised; Whose ways are past our finding out all together, Thou hast again brought us safely through another week, that now, in this place, we may serve Thee as we deliberate concerning those things which shall militate to the welfare of men. Grant now, we pray Thee, a competency of Thy divine wisdom, that in serving Thee, we shall in like manner serve those who have called us to this high calling. Purge us of pettiness, selfishness, prejudice, and pride, that we may be near unto Thyself, and know that Thou art God.

This our prayer in the redeeming name that is above every name, Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 91, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two hundred six of the act, approved the fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897), entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis; requiring employers to keep records and make reports, and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons; providing procedure and administrative details for the determination, payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation; providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies; creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer; and prescribing penalties," by providing that employers need not retain unemployment compensation records in excess of four years.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. PROPERT offered the following amendment:

Amend sec. 1 (Sec. 206), page 3, lines 15 and 16 by striking out the words "for a period in excess of four (4) years including the current year" and inserting in lieu thereof: "more than four (4) years after contributions relating to such records have been paid."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, has the Minority Leader received a copy of these amendments.

The SPEAKER. The Chair can not answer the gentleman's question, but will see that the Minority Leader receives a copy.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman who offered the amendment.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. ProPERT, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PROPERT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know, Mr. Speaker, from the gentleman from Montgomery whether this amendment is offered for the purpose of making employers keep records for five years?

Mr. PROPERT. I did not hear the question, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know, Mr. Speaker, from the gentleman from Montgomery as to whether or not this amendment is offered for the purpose of making employers keep unemployment compensation records for a period of five years?

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, the amendment clarifies the law that the employer shall keep the records for more than four years after the obligations have been entailed.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, whether the purpose of this amendment is to allow employers to take advantage of merit rating?

Mr. PROPERT. The purpose of this amendment, Mr. Speaker, is to conform with the Federal Act.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know, Mr. Speaker, how this amendment would conform with the Federal Act.

Mr. PROPERT. The Federal Act, Mr. Speaker, requires all employers, as I understand, to retain records for a period of four years.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was first introduced I thought that it was for the purpose of eliminating merit rating in Pennsylvania. Under the Unemployment Compensation Laws it is necessary for the employer to take advantage of merit rating. The provisions of the Unemployment Act contemplate that the employers should have been in business for at least five years. If this amendment is offered for the purpose of allowing employers to maintain records for five years in order to take advantage of the merit rating, I do not see any objection to it, but what I would like to know and what I am not clear in my mind about is just exactly what the gentleman is trying to do by the amendment, and I would like to have the gentleman clarify it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The second section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 113, as follows:

An act to add section eight point one and to amend section thirteen of the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 826) entitled "An act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of all subjects of taxation in counties of the second class creating and prescribing the powers and duties of a Board of Property Assessment Appeals and Review imposing duties on certain county and city officers abolishing the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in such counties and prescribing penalties" by further providing for the assessment and valuation of buildings under construction and land which has been laid out in building lots

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 626) entitled "An act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of all subjects of taxation in counties of the second class creating and prescribing the powers and duties of a Board of Property Assessment Appeal and Review imposing duties on certain county and city officers abolishing the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in such counties and prescribing penalties" is hereby amended by adding after section eight a new section to read as follows

Section 8.1 No new building in the process of construction shall be valued or assessed for any purpose until the expiration of one year from the date the construction of the new building was begun or the date of issuance of the building permit covering such building where such permit is required and no land assessed as acreage or unimproved property which is subsequently laid out in lots and the plan of such lots is recorded shall be assessed in excess of the total assessment of the land as acreage or unimproved property for a period of three years after the recording of such plan or until such time as the lots are actually improved with permanent construction whichever period is the shorter

Section 2 Section thirteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 13 The proper assessors shall between the triennial assessments revise any assessment or valuation according to right and equity by correcting errors and by adding thereto any property or subjects of taxation which may have been omitted or any new property or subjects of taxation which may have come into being since the last triennial assessment

They shall also add thereto the names of any persons who may have moved into such district and strike therefrom the names of any persons who have removed from such districts since the last triennial assessment

The proper assessors shall also revise assessments and valuations between the triennial assessments by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed or valued has changed by reason of any change of conditions thereon or adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or for the reason that the property assessed or valued has been subdivided or laid out into a plan of lots or other subdivisions or for the reason that improvements have been placed thereon or added thereto or for the reason that any public or other improvement has been made adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof or for the reason that the assessor and the majority of the board decides that the assessor erred in the value which he placed on the property or subjects of taxation when making the triennial assessment or where for any other reason whatsoever the value of the property has changed and it seems to the board necessary and equitable to make a change in the valuation thereof The assessors shall also between the triennial assessments in all cases where it is apparent that any assessment is not in accord with the generality or uniform standard of assessments revise and correct the same by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed do not conform to the generality or uniform standard of assessments

No new building in the process of construction shall be valued or assessed for any purpose until the expiration of one year from the date the construction of the new building was begun or the date of issuance of the building permit covering such building where such permit is required and no land assessed as acreage or unimproved property which is subsequently laid out in lots and the plan of such lots is recorded shall be assessed in excess of the total assessment of the land as acreage or unimproved property for a period of three years after the recording of such plan or until such time as the lots are actually improved with permanent construction whichever period is the shorter

All assessments required to be made by the proper assessors in the year between the triennial assessment shall be returned to the board not later than the first Monday of September of the year preceding the one for which it is made

Section 3 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haller.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. HALLER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. The amendments that the gentleman has inserted to House Bill 113, Mr. Speaker, apply as I understand it to Second Class Counties only. Is that correct?

Mr. HALLER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is there such an amendment or any law that is similar to this applying to any other counties in the state of Pennsylvania?

Mr. HALLER. Not within my knowledge, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Under the present law dealing with assessments in Allegheny County the assessors may at any time during the triennial assessment period re-assess property, is that right?

Mr. HALLER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. The gentleman makes no change in that provision?

Mr. HALLER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Now, under the gentleman's amendment if he will permit me to cite a specific case, if I purchase a lot and I do not record a plan the Assessors may increase or decrease the assessment on that lot that I purchased, is that right, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. HALLER. That is true, Mr. Speaker, if they have grounds to do so, by reason of increased valuation since it was assessed last.

Mr. BROWN. The fact remains, Mr. Speaker, that if they have grounds under the act they may either increase or decrease the assessment on my lot even though I have added nothing to my lot.

Mr. HALLER. That is right, Mr. Speaker, providing the value of the property has in fact increased, and as the gentleman knows, the final decision in that respect lies in an appeal to the Assessors, if anyone feels that that they have acted in error.

Mr. BROWN. If the Assessors follow the Act, and if they feel and they have reasonable grounds to believe that the taxes on this lot should be either increased or decreased they have the power of acting within the act so to do, do they not, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. HALLER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Under the gentleman's act, if I purchase the lot or several of them and then would record those lots they have no power to increase the taxes except as acreage for a period of three years is that not correct, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. HALLER. They have the power to increase the assessments, Mr. Speaker, if they can show that the fair market value of the property has increased as in the case of other properties, but the mere recording of the plan under the act does not of itself permit the increase in the assessment.

Mr. BROWN. But, Mr. Speaker, they must increase it as to acreage, and not as a lot, is that not correct?

Mr. HALLER. They can increase it as acreage, assuming that the fair market value of the property has increased, and if the fair market value of the property has increased I cannot see what difference it would make if it were acreage or laid out in lots, the value of the ground has been increased.

Mr. BROWN. Under the first case where I purchased the one lot, Mr. Speaker, they may increase or decrease entirely dependent on what they feel is the value of one lot, is that not right?

Mr. HALLER. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. If I purchased two lots and recorded the plan of the two lots then they must either increase or decrease on the basis of acreage, is that not true?

Mr. HALLER. No, it is not, Mr. Speaker, they must increase or decrease on the basis that the value of the land itself has increased.

Mr. BROWN. Has the gentleman read the act, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HALLER. I have, Mr. Speaker.

I believe that the act specifies that the assessment shall not be changed by reason of the recording of the plan. In other words the mere fact that you have recorded a piece of paper in the recorder's office does not automatically give a basis for an increase in the assessment. In other words the law remains as heretofore that if a property increases in value it can be assessed according to that change. Heretofore the practice has been to increase the assessment on real estate by reason of recording a plan even though there has been no physical or actual change in the fair market value of this property.

Mr. BROWN. May I refer the gentleman to page five, lines four and five, and ask the gentleman if he will read those two lines? Probably it would be clearer if the gentleman would read the entire amendment. I am trying to save the time of the House.

Mr. HALLER. "No land assessed as acreage or unimproved property which is subsequently laid out in lots and the plan of such lot is recorded, shall be assessed in excess of the total assessment of the land as acreage, unimproved property for a period of three years after the recording of such plan."

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, my question was very simple, then my two lots would be assessed as acreage; my one lot would be assessed as a separate lot, is that not true?

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, it would be assessed just exactly as was a piece of ground, based on the fair market value of the property. The only line of demarcation between a lot and acreage is that a lot may be less than an acre, whereas acreage comprehends property in excess of one acre.

Mr. BROWN. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, this act on its face appears to be innocent. I am sure that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haller, is sincere in hoping that this act is passed. I am just as sincere in seeing that it is defeated, although I know that the odds are tremendously against me.

There is no reason why we should start so early in the session passing special and privileged legislation. This act is unconstitutional. It not only violates the uniformity clause of the Constitution, it violates that section of the Constitution which prohibits the Legislature from passing special and local legislation.

I don't know who will profit by this bill but it is inconceivable to me that this House would pass a measure which says that if I buy one lot I am assessed in one way and if I buy a dozen lots I am assessed in another way. The Constitution never intended to give this legislature such power. It did not give it, it does not have it now. This piece of legislation should be defeated. On the very face of it it will create a fraud, it will create turmoil in our Assessors' office in the County of Allegheny. Those in charge of assessments in Allegheny County are opposed to it. The law is opposed to it and it ought to be defeated.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed 'to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Ragot.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RAGOT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I was wondering whether or not the gentleman from Northampton would mind repeating to me the reason he introduced this bill, as he set forth last Tuesday.

Mr. RAGOT. Mr. Speaker, I believe it is in the record now.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I do not like to embarrass the gentleman. I thought I could read it in the record, but I find it is not printed yet.

Mr. RAGOT. Would the gentleman mind repeating his question, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman from Northampton whether he would find it convenient to tell me again the reason why he introduced this bill, as he set forth last Tuesday.

Mr. RAGOT. Mr. Speaker, we should be interested in the action taken by the voters of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and that is best exposed in their choice for the office of Governor. That choice should be the determining factor.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I believe the gentleman informed me that if Governor Dewey of New York had been elected President of the United States he would have introduced this bill. I would like to know further from the gentleman if Governor Dewey had been elected President of the United States in the last Presidential election and if Colonel Rice had been elected Governor of Pennsylvania at the last gubernatorial election, whether the gentleman would have introduced this bill.

Mr. RAGOT. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, this is a very, very important measure, and trying to get at the bottom of it, I researched in the election laws of Pennsylvania and I find that history has a way of repeating itself.

In 1892 Grover Cleveland, a Democrat, was elected President of the United States. In 1892 the place on the ballot was determined by the Presidential election. That would mean that in 1893 the Democratic party would be number one on the ballot. So in 1893 a Republican House and Senate and a Republican Governor made the laws of the Commonwealth, P. L. 25, Section 14, 1893 that the names on the ballot shall be printed in the order as nearly as possible on the votes obtained in the state at the last state election," so that the Republicans got first place on the ballot, and they continued first on the ballot until 1931, and then for some unknown reason when Pinchot was Governor of the Commonwealth under a Republican Administration the law was changed to provide that the place on the ballot shall be determined by the Presidential election.

In 1932 Franklin Delano Roosevelt was elected President of the United States, and, Mr. Speaker, even though the Democratic party was first on the ballot he had carried Pennsylvania by a tremendous majority. In 1937 when we secured a Democratic Administration in Pennsylvania the election laws were clarified, and in 1937, codifying the election laws, the law remained the same, that the Presidential election should determine the place on the ballot. In the last election the Republican party was second on the ballot and the Democratic party was first. The people of Pennsylvania had no trouble finding the Republican party and they voted for the second party on the ballot.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what this administration is afraid of. Is this an attempt just to confuse the voters or is the Republican party worried that the next President of the United States will be a Democrat? I submit, Mr. Speaker, that it doesn't matter where you are on the ballot. If the people of Pennsylvania, in the various Senatorial Districts and the Congressional Districts want to vote for a man they will find his name on the ballot. The Socialist Party in Pennsylvania has never been first or second on the ballot, but there have been Socialists in the Legislature from Berks County; even when they occupied the third or fourth place on the ballot the people of Berks County could find them.

Mr. Speaker, this is an unnecessary bill. This is a bill that might be passed because the administration is just a little bit worried as to what might happen in 1948, and I ask the Members of the House to vote this bill down.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would recommend to the gentleman from Philadelphia that if he has trouble getting to the bottom he should further interrogate the gentleman from Northampton. He is at the bottom now and wants to get to the top.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I shall vote against this bill. Perhaps there are some good reasons why it should be passed. I remember that Bill Vare, that stalwart leader of the GOP, used to say that his party ought to have the first place on the ballot in order to capture the support of the bewildered voters. Now in the last election apparently the Democrats polled the bewildered vote and so while I shall vote against this measure I really have no great opposition to the idea that in the future my Republican friends like Bill Vare should gun for the bewildered voters.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE REVENUES NEEDED FOR STATE FUNCTIONS

Mr. SORG asked and obtained unanimous consent to submit the Report of the Joint Committee to Investigate Revenues Needed For State Functions, appointed under authority of Concurrent Resolution No. 3, Session of 1947.

The report was read by the Clerk as follows:

The members of the Joint Committee to Investigate Revenues Needed For State Functions, appointed under authority of Concurrent Resolution No. 3, adopted by the House on January 28 and agreed to by the Senate on the same day, herewith respectfully submits its report to the General Assembly.

In accordance with the duties imposed upon the Committee by this Resolution, the Committee studied the surplus in existence as of May 31, 1945, finances of the 1945-1947 biennium and estimated finances of the 1947-1949 biennium.

Surplus, May 31, 1945

The Committee had presented to it a statement prepared by the Budget Office and issued by Governor Martin on June 3, 1945, showing the condition of the State's finances as of May 31, 1945.

The statement showed that as of May 31, 1945, there was a General Fund surplus of $109,498,000 and a Motor Fund surplus of $57,250,000, making a total surplus of $166,745,000 in these two funds. Other information given to the Committee was to the effect that there were surplus funds in other funds, chiefly the Fish and Game Funds, to make the total surplus $170,000,000.

The statement issued on June 3, 1945, showed that the entire General Fund surplus of $109,498,000 was all appropriated by the 1945 Session of the Legislature—$48,870,000 was appropriated to redeem General State Authority bonds and the balance was appropriated for a program of postwar projects.

Those appropriations for postwar projects were as follows:

(General Fund)

Department of Commerce

	Amount of Appropriation
Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission—Air- port Program .....	$2,725,000
Department of Forests and Waters
Desilting Schuylkill River .....	5,000,000

Department of Health
School Health Examinations .....	$4,000,000

Sub-Total .....	$33,085,000
Grand Total—Postwar Program .....	$76,235,000
Redemption of General State Authority Bonds	$48,870,240
Total State Authority Bond Redemption and Postwar Program .....	$125,105,240

$60,628,000 of this program represents surplus funds. The balance, $15,707,000, was appropriated from estimated current revenues of the 1945-47 biennium.

Of this total $76,235,000 program, $46,352,295.97 had been allocated for definite projects by the departments and the Governor as of January 31, 1947. The Committee finds that of this $46,352,295.97, $7,916,302.32 has been spent.

The Post-War program adopted by the previous legislature would require that these allocations remain.

The surplus in the Motor Fund is all restricted by constitutional amendment to use for highways, safety, and aeronautics. The small surpluses in the other funds are restricted by law for use in funds in which they exist.

Finances of the 1945-47 biennium

The statement issued by Governor Martin on June 3, 1945, showed that total funds available in the General Fund for the 1945-1947 biennium were estimated to be $514,148,000, consisting of $109,498,000 in surplus and $404,650,000 of estimated revenues. Against this total, appropriations approved were $513,839,904.50, of which amount $388,734,664.50 was for current operations and $125,105,240.00 for post-war public works and redeeming of General State Authority bonds, leaving only a balance of $308,095.50.

The Committee finds that in addition to the $513,839,904.50 appropriated by the 1945 Session, deficiency appropriations amounting to $33,115,820 will be needed. An appropriation of $23,400,000 already made by this Session for Public Assistance is part of this total. There are funds from State Store profits in excess of the amount estimated to be received and additional lapses amounting to $37,611,074.31 available for appropriation by the present Session from which these deficiencies can be appropriated if the Legislature so decides. Whatever amount of the $37,611,074.31 is not appropriated will remain as a surplus at the end of the 1945-1947 biennium if the estimate of revenue is realized. If the deficiencies are appropriated as requested this amount will be approximately $5,000,000.

Finances of the 1947-1949 biennium

As explained, if the estimate of revenue is realized for the 1945-1947 biennium there will be surplus funds in the General Fund of about $5,000,000 carried over from the 1945-1947 biennium. The estimate of revenue prepared by the Department of Revenue last fall is $372,000,000. Since that time the manufacturers' exemption from the Capital Stock Tax has gone into effect and it is estimated that this will cause a reduction of $24,000,000 in the estimate, reducing the amount to $348,600,000. Moreover, since that estimate was made there has been a change in the method of calculating the mark-up on liquor sold in State stores whereby $5.00 of Federal tax is now included before the mark-up whereas before it was excluded. It is estimated this change will result in increased revenue of $40,000,000, bringing the estimate from present tax sources up to $388,600,000. With the estimated surplus of $5,000,000 from the 1945-1947 biennium this would make available funds of $393,600,000.

The requests for appropriations for current operations submitted by the departments total $602,000,000. This compares with requests for the previous biennium of $391,532,632, of which amount $388,731,664 was appropriated. Deficiency requests are $33,115,820 and if appropriated will bring total appropriations for the 1945-1947 biennium to $41,847,484. Appropriations requested, for the 1947-1949 biennium, therefore, exceed estimated revenues by $214,000,000 for the normal operations of the State Government, under existing law. Since the Governor has not yet submitted his budget, it is not known what amount of appropriations he will request. Past experience indicates that departmental requests considerably exceed the Governor's budget. Moreover, it appears to the Committee that the estimate of revenue is very conservative and could be revised upwards.

The departments submitted requests for the 1947-1949 biennium for $99,000,000 for construction and public works. $87,000,000 of this amount was requested for the Department of Welfare. In this connection it should be mentioned there is a $50,000,000 bond issue for public works which has been passed by the voters and can be made available in this Session.

Any amounts that may be approved for teachers' salaries or for any other purposes beyond existing law must be provided for in addition to any amounts set forth in this report.

Respectfully submitted,

HERBERT P. SORG.

The SPEAKER. The report will be spread upon the Journals of the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am very sorry that I have been unable to sign this report in company with the other members of the committee. A record of the committee meetings, Mr. Speaker, would show that this Committee consulted only the Budget Officer. All of the information obtained in the Committee came from the Budget Officer. The Budget Officer is the same official who advises the Governor, and so this Committee has spent its time asking the Budget Officer what he is going to tell or what he has told the Governor.

The record, the report, the figures of the Budget Office were not checked in any particular. The demands of the Departments were not scrutinized. There is a statement in this report that some two hundred million dollars more will be required during the next biennium over and above the amounts required during the past biennium for the normal operations of the government under the law. That figure was not checked.

We apparently arrived at the conclusion, Mr. Speaker, that the surplus is all gone with the exception of five million dollars; that there are demands of six hundred and some million and apparently revenue of less than four hundred million dollars, and it would wind up the biennium with something like five million dollars.

I want to say to the Majority Leader that if he will check the expenditures of the Departments made up to January 1, if he will compile for himself a statement showing what the departments spent during the first nineteen months of the present biennium, and if then he will project expenditures during the first five months of this year, up to May 31, 1947, he will find that there will be cash on hand, not of five million dollars but in excess of thirty-five million dollars.

There is no reason to believe that the expenditures of the Governor's office are going to be accelerated. If you check the expenditures of the Governor's office for the first twelve months, you will find expenditures of $286,000, that he has a balance of $99,000, and your report shows no surplus and no deficit for the Governor's office. If the expenditures during the next five months are ratably made, there will be 24,000 and some odd dollars unexpended. Now, if you will take the Board of Finance and Revenue, compute the figure of expenditures for the first 19 months, and project over the next five months for the same rate of monthly expenditures you will find that they have over 200 million dollars that they have not spent.

Now Mr. Speaker, the mountain has labored and brought forth a mouse; we haven't produced a single fact or figure for the information of this House that was not available to the Governor; that was not available to any Member of this House. We have simply taken the muddled figures of a muddled Budget Office which has not been right in its estimate in the last five years.

In the report of the Committee, Mr. Speaker, there has been little thought of the transfers of funds between the various Departments. There has been no careful compilation of figures. The result is we spent it all. The Departments asked some 600 million dollars plus 99 million dollars for public improvements. We only see 398 million dollars in prospect and we are going to lack 24 million dollars of the capita stock tax. What does it all mean? It means, gentlemen, that we have had the privilege of meeting with some very nice Members of this House and some sleepy Members of the Senate. We have listened to the Budget Officer, we have compiled a report, and you are just exactly now where you started.

I shall claim the privilege, Mr. Speaker, of compiling and filing a minority report, and that minority report will have some reference to the actual cash situation. That is a matter of record, the actual cash situation of the state, and just for the purpose of enabling the Majority Leader to check, I would like the House to indulge me just a minute or two more until I ask the Majority Leader to write down some figures for future reference.

I say as a matter of fact and not as conjecture, that the cash balance as of June 1, 1945 was $142,441,000 plus, with cash receipts of June 1, 1945 to December 31, 1946 were 327,605,000 odd dollars, and that there were transfers from other funds of various kinds totaling $78,864,000 and that made a total of 477 million dollars, and I state that as a fact and not as a matter of conjecture. Also that the expenditures from June 1, 1945 to December 31, 1946 were $417,610,000 plus, and I submit that as a matter of fact and not of conjecture; and the balance as of June 1, 1947, as per the treasury record was $60,322,000.

I say further that if you will take from that point and project expenditures during the next five months on a comparable basis, comparable to the expenditures during the last nineteen months that you will show money on hand in excess of 35 million dollars, and that is just one example of the errors with which this report is replete.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Yes, Mr. Speaker, but no lawyer's questions.

The SPEAKER. The Chair again warns the gentleman from Elk, no lawyer's questions.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I just recently have gotten out some figures and I was wondering whether the gentleman would want to revise the date on this $60,322,000. I jotted it down as June 1, 1947.

Mr. ANDREWS. January 1, 1947, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman of the opinion that requests from the Departments are the figures of the Budget Office?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, requests for appropriations are a matter of tabulation. If you wanted to find out what the Departments have requested you get an adding machine and add them up. You got the $60,602,000 I understand.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I respectfully submit, that the figures which we have come from the Departments and not from the Budget Office.

I should like to submit further, Mr. Speaker that I am sure that the House will find very interesting the figures that the gentleman from Cambria will submit. I would submit, however, also that there is nothing in this resolution which calls for a cash balance as of January 1, June 1, 1945 or 1946, or any of those dates. The resolution refers specifically to the condition in 1947-1949 biennium.

I should also like to state on behalf of those Members who submitted this report that we did have some deference for the statement of the gentleman when the resolution was adopted, but this is not a budget. This Committee has no responsibility or duty or even the right to usurp the prerogatives of the Appropriations Committee of this House or of the Senate; that its responsibility was to present here the unprecedented information of giving to the Members of the House an idea as to the financial problem with which we are confronted, with qualifications set forth in the report itself before they have in hand the budget message, so that adequate time is given to the Members themselves to give it full consideration.

I submit, Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the majority who have moved and adopted the motion to submit this report, that the resolution has been complied with fully, and that we hope it is of sufficient information to the Members to intelligently receive the budget message which we hope we shall receive very soon.

Mr. Speaker, I would just like to call to your attention in a few words the report that was placed on your

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I am about to present to the chair a bill, but before doing so I should like to make a few brief remarks concerning this bill. This bill makes it an unfair labor practice to deny membership in a labor organization. The idea of the bill is not to prohibit a closed shop but to provide, if a labor organization has a closed shop, they must open the ranks of their membership to people who want to engage in that trade.

Mr. KEPHART read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 230, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1168, No. 294), entitled "An act to protect the right of employees to organize and bargain collectively; creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board, officers of the State government, and courts providing for the right of employees to organize and bargain collectively; declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair; further providing that representatives of a majority of the employees be the exclusive representatives of all the employees authorizing the board to conduct hearings and elections, and certify as to representatives of employees for purposes of collective bargaining; empowering the board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice, and providing a procedure for such cases, including the issuance of a complaint, the conducting of a hearing, and the making of an order; empowering the board to petition a court of common pleas for the enforcement of its order, and providing a procedure for such cases; providing for the review of an order of the board by a court of common pleas on petition of any person aggrieved by such order, and establishing a procedure for such cases; providing for an appeal from the common pleas court to the Supreme Court; providing the board with investigatory powers, including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court providing for service of papers and process of the board; prescribing certain penalties," making it an unfair labor practice for labor organizations to deny membership to persons engaged or willing to engage in the trade or industry in which such organization is active; to discriminate against members in employment or to use membership qualifications as a means of limiting the number of employees available in the labor market.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I am about to present to the chair a resolution. Before doing so I might say, Mr. President, that this resolution deals with the lives of a couple of coal region boys who have now become nationally famous and whose motion picture, "The Fabulous Dorseys," opens in Harrisburg tomorrow.

I recall back in the early twenties, at which time I was a special newspaper writer, writing under the nom-de-plume, "I Look Them Over" in Tamaqua, we had a rather famous professional basketball team, a feature of whose weekly games was a young orchestra with a new kind of music, which did not become nationally popular for ten years thereafter.

The orchestra was run by Thomas and Jimmy Dorsey, who must at that time have been in their teens, and who, as you all know, have gone a long long way since. They are natives of Schuylkill County. They were known in the coal region long before the rest of the world heard about them and they have done a job typical of Pennsylvania and the anthracite region since that time.

I would like to ask immediate consideration of the resolution which I now present to the chair.

EULOGIZING THE DORSEYS

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WAGNER, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 25, 1947.

In the early years of the twentieth century, Thomas and Theresa Dorsey of Schuylkill County became the proud parents of sons—Thomas, Jr., born February 29, 1904 at Mahanoy Plane, and James, born November 19, 1905 at Shenandoah—destined to reflect great credit on their boyhood community.

Thomas Dorsey, Sr. was by occupation a coal-miner, but his avocation was music and his devotion to it was intense. He became well known as a band leader in Schuylkill and Carbon Counties, particularly in Shenandoah, Mahanoy City and Lansford.

The brothers' father was also a capable teacher, and himself instructed Tommy and Jimmy on the intricacies of the trombone, clarinet and saxophone. Moreover, the parents never ceased to guide and encourage their sons' interest in music.

Aided by their parental instruction and moral support, the brothers easily developed their natural talents. Eventually they turned to a form of music that was new and comparatively unrecognized—jazz. With their father's instruction as a basis, and their enthusiasm and perseverance, they weathered the quiet days (for jazz) of the twenties and thirties by playing with other pioneers in this field and by practicing constantly, improvising and experimenting with the new form.

Finally, when jazz became generally acceptable in the middle thirties, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey were ready to offer the public jazz that is liked. They began with a band which was their joint project, but this soon gave way to separate organizations which are still in existence because of the excellent musicianship Tommy Dorsey as a trombonist and Jimmy Dorsey as a saxophonist and clarinetist are capable of producing both individually and through the medium of their dance band units.

That their talents have been recognized is evident not only from their box office receipts but also from the current motion picture based on the careers of these men being shown all over the nation (beginning this week in Harrisburg); therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that praise and tribute are due to Thomas Dorsey, Sr, for his foresight and the musical training he gave his sons Tommy and Jimmy; and be it further

Resolved, That congratulations be extended to Tommy Dorsey and Jimmy Dorsey for their perseverance, on their rise to the top in their field, and for the credit they have brought upon Shenandoah and their boyhood community; and be it further

Resolved, That this Senate wishes them both continued success, and that copies of this resolution be sent to Tommy Dorsey, Jimmy Dorsey and Mrs. Theresa Langton Dorsey.

RECESS

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

HOUSE MESSAGE

PRAYER

O Thou Who art eternal, pure in righteousness, perfect in love, the essence of holiness; as the hearts and minds of men have turned unto Thee in all ages, so do we in this hour invoke Thy Divine presence in our midst. Thou hast said that they who call upon Thee in truth and sincerity shall in no wise be cast out. And we have learned through bitter and sometimes costly experience how true that is. So hide not Thyself at our pleadings, our Father and dwell in our midst to guide and comfort, to strengthen and uphold, to speak the word of counsel to every waiting heart.

And unto Thee shall be all glory and honor, dominion and power, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

RESOLUTION

LAST DAY FOR INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

Messrs. SORG and ANDREWS offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 25, 1947.

Resolved, That Wednesday March 26th, 1947 be fixed as the last day for introduction of bills in the House of Representatives during this regular session, except bills for raising revenue and appropriation bills.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Mr. WACHHAUS offered a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 25, 1947.

In the early years of the twentieth century, Thomas and Theresa Dorsey of Schuylkill County became the proud parents of sons—Thomas, Jr., born February 29, 1904 at Mahanoy Plane, and James, born November 19, 1905 at Shenandoah—destined to reflect great credit on their boyhood community.

Thomas Dorsey, Sr. was by occupation a coal-miner, but his avocation was music and his devotion to it was intense. He became well known as a band leader in Schuylkill and Carbon Counties, particularly in Shenandoah, Mahanoy City and Lansford.

The brothers' father was also a capable teacher, and himself instructed Tommy and Jimmy on the intricacies of the trombone, clarinet and saxophone. Moreover, the parents never ceased to guide and encourage their sons' interest in music.

Aided by their parental instruction and moral support, the brothers easily developed their natural talents. Eventually they turned to a form of music that was new and comparatively unrecognized—jazz. With their father's instruction as a basis, and their enthusiasm and perseverance, they weathered the quiet days (for jazz) of the twenties and thirties by playing with other pioneers in this field and by practicing constantly, improvising and experimenting with the new form.

Finally, when jazz became generally acceptable in the middle thirties, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey were ready to offer the public jazz that it liked. They began with a band which was their joint project, but this soon gave way to separate organizations which are still in existence because of the excellent musicianship Tommy Dorsey as a trombonist and Jimmy Dorsey as a saxophonist and clarinetist are capable of producing both individually and through the medium of their dance band units.

That their talents have been recognized is evident not only from their box office receipts but also from the current motion picture based on the careers of these men being shown all over the nation (beginning this week in Harrisburg); therefore, be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that praise and tribute are due to Thomas Dorsey, Sr. for his foresight and the musical training he gave his sons Tommy and Jimmy; and be it further

Resolved, That congratulations be extended to Tommy Dorsey and Jimmy Dorsey for their perseverance, on their rise to the top in their field, and for the credit they have brought upon Shenandoah and their boyhood community; and be it further

Resolved, That this House wishes them both continued success, and that copies of this resolution be sent to Tommy Dorsey, Jimmy Dorsey and Mrs. Theresa Langton Dorsey.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to present a very important matter for the consideration of this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria to present a very important message.

Mr. ANDREWS. As various Members know, the House is to convene in Philadelphia this evening. Various Members have told me that while they are financed as far as their meal is concerned, they have not been financed as far as transportation is concerned, and they have asked me whether under the Rules of the House and approved procedure it would be possible to see that the Members are not only fed free but transported free.

After mature consideration I am convinced that it is entirely possible for all of the Members to be transported to Philadelphia, car-fare free. It is only necessary to resolve this body into a Committee of the Whole; then the Committee of the Whole, deciding that there is important business and matters to be investigated, can decide that it must transfer its activities to Philadelphia.

Now, ordinarily it would be necessary to pass a concurrent resolution in order to finance the trip, but this is not necessary at this time. As I understand, there is a fund available that can be drawn upon for funeral expenses. I don't know whose funeral this is. I am quite convinced that it is the funeral either of my friend Mr. Grundy, my friend Mr. Pew or the funeral of the Republican Party, but in any event it is a funeral, and so under the ordinary procedure of the House you can draw upon that funeral fund in order to pay the car-fare, if you have proper business in Philadelphia.

Now, of course I wouldn't want you to overlook the fact that if you do not negotiate this particular proposition, nevertheless if you can establish your official mission there are these exemption receipts, which if you are going to Philadelphia this afternoon on official business of this House you can get a fifteen per cent refund on the car-fare.

Now, with so many rides fifteen per cent rebate would be worth while even though you didn't get the entire amount.

So, Mr. Speaker, I hope that for the welfare of the Republican party, this House now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of establishing the status that will enable it to transport itself to Philadelphia free as to meals, free as to car-fare, and after that, gentlemen, look to yourselves.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, wherever there is a session of the House we hope it will never take place without the congenial and most enjoyable company of the Minority Leader.

We assure him again it will not. We feel that there is some significance in the fact that the mileage checks of the Members have just been issued, for the information of the gentleman; and also that we feel somewhat comfortable in the fact that the meal is not going to be on the Members or that it would cost one hundred dollars a plate.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. FLEMING and STUART.

In the House of Representatives, February 15, 1947.

Whereas The Legislative Reference Bureau, as its name implies, is an agency of the General Assembly, and exists primarily for its service; and

Whereas, The law creating the bureau requires it to draft legislation at the request of the Members of the General Assembly, the Governor, and the heads of departments; but it has been the practice of the bureau to prepare bills for individuals and organizations of individuals as well, in so far as it is able to do so without interfering with its prescribed work; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs) That all requests by individuals or organizations of individuals, other than Members of the General Assembly, the Governor, or the heads of departments, shall be regarded as addressed to the General Assembly, and shall not enjoy the status of privileged communications, but shall be open to public inspection.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESOLUTION

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATION

Messrs. O'NEILL and NEEDHAM offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 15, 1947.

There is an old legend in connection with the life of St. Patrick to the effect that the 17th day of March, is not his birthday, and that the celebration of that day is only the result of a compromise made in the interest of harmony, and for the preservation of human lives.

In years long past, there were many sons of Ireland who believed that March 8th was the day upon which the Irish snakechaster had been born, but, sad to say, many others were convinced that he had first seen the light of day on March 9th.

As a result of this divergency of opinion, those who believed in the theory of eight, held their celebrations on that day in March, and those who differed did their celebrating on the following day.

This divergency of opinion not only made for different banquet dates, but for hospital and funeral dates as well, and the fights that were precipitated by the arguments held over the all-important question, left behind them many widows and orphans.

In order to settle the question and bring to an end the slinging of brick-bats and shillelaghs and to decrease the death rate and the need for charitable homes for widows and orphans in Ireland, a priest whose name has unfortunately been lost to posterity, suggested that the differences be adjusted by adding the two different dates and holding joint and friendly celebrations on March 17th.

This was done to the everlasting credit of the Irish and since that time, on that new date, they have jointly celebrated. St. Patrick rests more quietly, the celebrations are less quarrelsome, and the death rate has decreased.

It is an established custom of the Irish Members of the General Assembly and of the Press and other Irishers to meet and to honor their glorious ancestor, St. Patrick specifically, and Irishmen generally by a celebration (done up green) at which time the only bricks thrown are verbal ones, and the only damage resulting is to their digestive processes; therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That a legislative committee is hereby created consisting of twenty-five Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and fifteen Members of the Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, whose duty it shall be to select the time and place and to make all other fitting and suitable arrangements for a celebration, in honor of St. Patrick (and Irishmen) by the Members of the General Assembly and their guests.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SENATE

MONDAY, March 3, 1947

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG, offered the following prayer:

O Jehovah, God Almighty, God of Trust and Valor, swell our hearts until we, with the Psalmist, exclaim, "Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy Name. Bless the Lord, O my soul and forget not all His benefits; who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases. Bless the Lord, all His works in all places of His dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul!"

We thank Thee for the radiant beauty of each day; for wood and grove, hill and dale tell of Thy glory. May we too tell of Thy Glory through well ordered living on our part. Help us to lay hold of every blessed opportunity to do good, to show mercy, and impart kindness. As loyal and patriotic leaders of a great country, we would be identified with truth, so that right action may result from a will purified from selfishness and greed. Grant that our lives may not die away amid toil and daily care, but so bless and sustain us that we may present both soul and body a living sacrifice wholly acceptable unto Thee. In Thy Holy Name we pray. Amen.

HOUSE MESSAGE

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO ARRANGE A SUITABLE PROGRAM IN HONOR OF ST. PATRICK

In the House of Representatives, February 25, 1947.

There is an old legend in connection with the life of St. Patrick to the effect that the 17th day of March, is not his birthday, and that the celebration of that day is only the result of a compromise made in the interest of harmony, and for the preservation of human lives.

In years long past, there were many sons of Ireland who believed that March 8th was the day upon which the Irish ambassador had been born, but, sad to say, many others were convinced that he had first seen the light of day on March 9th.

As a result of this divergency of opinion, those who believed in the theory of eight, held their celebration on that day in March, and those who differed did their celebrating on the following day.

This divergency of opinion not only made for different banquet dates, but for hospital and funeral dates as well, and the fights that were precipitated by the arguments held over the all-important question, left behind them many widows and orphans.

In order to settle the question and bring to an end the slinging of bricks-bats and shillelaghs and to decrease the death rate and the need for charitable homes for widows and orphans in Ireland, a priest whose name has unfortunately been lost to posterity, suggested that the differences be adjusted by adding the two different dates and holding joint and friendly celebrations on March 17th.

This was done to the everlasting credit of the Irish and since that time, on that new date, they have jointly celebrated. St. Patrick rests more quietly, the celebrations are less quarrelsome, and the death rate has decreased.

It is an established custom of the Irish Members of the General Assembly and of the Press and other Irishers to meet and to honor their glorious ancestor, St. Patrick specifically, and Irishmen generally by a celebration (done up green) at which time the only bricks thrown are verbal ones, and the only damage resulting is to their digestive processes; therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That a legislative committee is hereby created consisting of twenty-five Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and fifteen Members of the Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, whose duty it shall be to select the time and place and to make all other fitting and suitable arrangements for a celebration in honor of St. Patrick (and Irishman) by the Members of the General Assembly and their guests.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

COMMUNICATION

The CHAIR cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication, which was read by the Clerk:

Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors
OFFICE OF SECRETARY
DREXEL HILL, PA

March 1, 1947

Chief Clerk
State Senate
Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Mr. Watkins:

I am enclosing a copy of Resolution No. 6 unanimously adopted at our State Convention at Pittsburgh, February 13, last.

Inasmuch as this affects measures now before the Senate, we would appreciate your placing this on the Senate Record as a formal communication from our Association.

Very sincerely yours,

H. A. THOMSON

HAT:cs.

RESOLUTION NO. 6—ADOPTED FEBRUARY 13, 1947
Pittsburgh, Pa.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE ASSOCIATION OF TOWNSHIP

Whereas, The 1945 session of the Legislature directed the Joint State Government Commission to make a fair and impartial highway survey to find an equitable basis for state aid to local government for highway purposes, and

Whereas, A committee was directed to carry out the recommendations of the Legislature, and this committee appointed the Brookings Institution of Washington, D. C., to make the survey, and

Whereas, Our Association in convention last year vigorously condemned the appointment of the Brookings Institution charging that a fair and impartial survey would not be made under its auspices, and

Whereas, An analysis of the report which has been made public now confirms our charges. The Brookings Institution by using obsolete traffic data and distorting the facts has connived to prevent a fair distribution of road funds to the political subdivisions, and

Whereas, The Brookings report completely nullifies the expressed intent of the Legislature to give local roads and streets a fair share of motor funds. Instead it recommends that 40,000 miles of local roads and streets be maintained at the expense of local taxpayers, and that local taxes be also levied to finance the major cost of maintaining the other 27,000 miles of local roads and streets, and

Whereas, Senator John G. Snowden has introduced another bill to continue the highway study, which can only result in an additional waste of public funds, therefore

provement of roads and streets and in protecting the best interests of the motorists and local taxpayers of Pennsylvania, emphatically repeat our denunciation of the Brookings report as a vicious attempt to create a highway bureaucracy and destroy home rule in Pennsylvania and to increase local taxes by millions of dollars annually, and

Be It Further Resolved, That we demand no further waste of money on this study under present auspices, and if a further study is authorized, ask a complete study of the entire state, and that we will pledge our individual and Association's cooperation to an honest study of this problem, and

Be It Further Resolved, That we respectfully urge his excellency, Governor James H. Duff, and members of the Pennsylvania General Assembly to repudiate the Brookings report, and to oppose any further study under these auspices and to enact in the 1947 session a permanent highway program that will assure both state highways and local roads and streets a fair and just share of available motor funds, and give both the motorists and local taxpayers a square deal.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BLASS. Mr. President, on February 24, Senate Bill No. 198 was introduced, which provides for the appropriation of $300,000 to the Department of Forests and Waters. This bill was referred to the Committee on Forests, Waters, Game and Fish, but it should have been referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

As chairman of the Committee on Forests, Waters, Game and Fish, I am now reporting, as committed, Senate Bill 198 for the purpose of having it re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. BLASS, from the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game, and Fish, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 198, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the purpose of flood control and stream channel work in McKean, Potter and Tioga counties, made necessary by floods of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-two, and May, one thousand nine hundred forty-six, and of carrying out the provisions of existing laws relating thereto.

which was re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General, Mr. Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, has there been a meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General during this session?

Mr. WALKER. There has been a meeting, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Has Senate Bill 81 been considered by the Committee on Judiciary General as yet? Senate Bill 81 is the bill by which Senators will have to divulge their sources of income.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, if the gentleman from Allegheny will bear with me for just a moment while I look at the history.

My answer to the inquiry of the gentleman from Allegheny is in the affirmative, Senate Bill 81 was considered by the committee.

Mr. HOLLAND. It was considered by the committee? That means the bill was not reported out of committee, it is still in committee?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, to correctly answer the distinguished gentleman from Allegheny, the bill was considered in committee, but there was no motion made by any of the members of the committee to report the bill out. The bill was merely discussed, but there was no suggestion made by anybody that any action be taken on that particular bill at that time.

Mr. HOLLAND. Will the chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General kindly advise when the next meeting of that committee will be held?

Mr. WALKER. If the gentleman will listen carefully to an announcement to be made by the secretary—he just interrupted a very important statesmanlike gesture I was about to make—I was just writing out a request that the Secretary of the Senate announce a meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General for Tuesday, March 4, 1947 at 9 a.m., and if the gentleman from Allegheny desires to attend that meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General he will be very welcome.

Mr. HOLLAND. Thank you. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the chairman of the Committee on State Government, Mr. Tallman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TALLMAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Tallman, has there been a meeting so far this session of the Committee on State Government?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, there has not.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Tallman, when do you expect to hold a meeting of the Committee on State Government?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I am sorry I can not tell the gentleman from Allegheny when a meeting of the Committee on State Government will be held.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I want to draw to the attention of the gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Tallman, that Senate Bill 64, which is an act affecting the membership of this Senate, is in his committee, under which a lobbyist would be required to register.

Mr. President, if there is not a meeting of the Committee on State Government, that bill, unless acted upon now, will be no good for this session.

Mr. President, I am sorry to have to state to the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General and the Chairman of the Committee on State Government that I believe the people of Pennsylvania should be given the information that has been asked for in both these bills.

The first information I believe these people are entitled to is the source of income of every member of this Senate, because the law so states, that no one can vote on a bill in which he is interested. Under that law, if rigidly enforced, I doubt that very few members of our Senate would be permitted to vote on a bill.

Also, Mr. President, I believe that the people of Pennsylvania should know about lobbyists. I stumble over them going in and out of our little entrance to the Senate.

After the dinner that was held last week, we did expect a little more action here from both committees, and I am surprised to hear that the Committee on State Government does not know when they are going to meet, because we have wasted away over two months time and in wasting away those two months time, at least we could have been considering these bills in our committees.

It seems to me to be the best kind of boondoggling I have ever heard of; it turns to shame the cartoons on the old W.P.A., leaning on shovels. We have been sitting on seats two days every week and then returning back home.

Mr. President, I want to serve notice that I intend to move for the discharge of the Committee on State Government and the Committee on Judiciary General, from further consideration of both of these bills, as I see that is the only way we can get a vote on how this Senate stands with reference to both these bills. I will do it next week.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would just like to say to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, who has just attempted to criticize two of the committees of the Senate, if he will attend the next meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General, he will have all the opportunity in the world to attempt to sell his proposed legislation to twenty-one distinguished gentlemen who are members of that committee.

Mr. President, there was a meeting held of the Committee on Judiciary General and every bill that had been referred to that committee up to that time was placed before the membership. There was no motion made to report this particular bill out of committee. That particular bill was considered by the committee and no member of the committee had the temerity to suggest that it be reported out.

I would certainly suggest to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, that he come to our committee meeting tomorrow and attempt to sell to the twenty-one members of that committee his legislation, before attempting to discharge the committee, or better still, he had better try to sell it to one member of that committee who will make a motion to report it out and, secondly, sell it to a second member, to second the motion, before he suggests discharging the committee.

Mr. President, the membership of that committee has attempted to consider every bill that is in the committee and I would like to direct to the attention of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, the fact that, of the twenty-one members on that committee, seventeen are lawyers, and when I say every bill was considered, I am putting it mildly, because when you get seventeen lawyers around a table considering legislation that might be placed on the statute books, it is considered thoroughly and debated from beginning to end.

The gentleman's bill was considered, and I might say for his information that some of the lawyers present, regardless of their political affiliation, said it was none of the gentleman's business where their income came from, and that is why I invited him to attend the next meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General, and they will tell him personally what they think of that bill.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, after the speech made by the distinguished lawyer from Allegheny County, I doubt very much whether there is any use of my going to visit the lawyers on the committee. When he speaks about seventeen lawyers discussing a bill, in my estimation that does not prove to me that the bill is bad, if seventeen lawyers can not agree, because I mean to tell you, Mr. Walker, that the greatest offenders in the State of Pennsylvania in representing special interests in Pennsylvania are the lawyers, because, after all, lawyers represent in a legal way what other people who are not lawyers would be put in jail for if they represented.

In order words, you are using your right as a lawyer to hide the fact that you are fighting for other interests who pay you a fee, and, therefore I believe that the lawyers have a right to tell the public of Pennsylvania whom they represent.

I think maybe there was some reason why seventeen lawyers should agree this was a bad bill, but I do not think the people of Pennsylvania are going to agree with the lawyers. So, Mr. Walker, I am sorry, but since your statement, I will not avail myself of the right to appear before your committee, but I shall avail myself of the right given to me as a layman and not as a lawyer to move to discharge the committee next week.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to call to the attention of the gentlemen of the Senate the fact that there will be a meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, and an invitation has been issued to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, to attend that meeting. I want again to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that the gentleman from Allegheny just announced that he will not attend that meeting and attempt to discuss the bill with the committee, but will get up on the floor of the Senate and make a motion to discharge the Committee on Judiciary General, so that he can attempt to try the Bar as a profession in the newspapers rather than try the bill on its merits.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair calls attention to the fact that both gentleman have spoken twice on this matter. Therefore we will revert to the next order of business.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to present to the Chair several bills but before doing so I would like to make a short statement.

These bills, Mr. President, provide for the establishment of temporary college centers in order to relieve the congestion in the schools and universities throughout Pennsylvania, which has been occasioned by the returning veterans of the Second World War taking advantage of the G. I. Bill of Training.

In June of 1946 a survey showed that approximately 24,000 youths—veterans and non-veterans—could not be accommodated in Pennsylvania's colleges and universities.

The establishment of the Pennsylvania area college centers and the tremendous expansion of enrollments by the colleges and universities made it possible for every qualified Pennsylvania veteran and high school student desirous of entering college to have the opportunity for at least the first year's work.

Ten area college centers have been established enrolling 3,400 students, most of whom are veterans. These centers are located in the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh areas and in Harrisburg, Lancaster and Bethlehem.

Funds for the operation and maintenance of State Teachers Colleges have been used to finance the area college center program. These funds must now be returned to the Teachers Colleges to avoid interruption of their services to approximately 11,500 students.

Students are seeking admission to the college centers at the mid-year. Presently enrolled students seek assurance for the continuation of the program for at least another year. If students are admitted at the beginning of the second semester, the limitation of campus enrollments will make it difficult, if not impossible, to transfer to existing colleges obligated to continue for at least another year.

It is estimated that the current year's operation will cost not more than $75,000 above receipts, and that the second year will be nearly self-supporting, except for capital outlay.

It is my belief that it is highly desirable to continue the program as a temporary measure, and to avoid large expenditures for buildings and extensive capital outlay, until a comprehensive study determines the building needs of colleges and universities on a permanent basis.

Reimbursement of funds is now being received from the Veterans Administration. It is believed that the whole program for the first year will not entail a deficit of more than $75,000.

The fees were established with the idea of making the entire program self-supporting, and it is believed that after the present year, if the program is continued, it can be operated on a self-supporting basis, except for capital outlay. It is necessary, however, to have ample funds to be used as a revolving fund since the reimbursement from the Veterans Administration is not made until near the close of each semester.

Operation for a second year will entail additional expenditures for laboratories in order to furnish instruction in science. Orders for scientific equipment and other instructional supplies must be made six to nine months in advance to guarantee delivery in time for the opening of the college year.

Mr. President, I may say these bills have been approved by the various veterans organizations and by the Department of Public Instruction.

Mr. WALKER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 244, entitled:

An Act providing for the establishment of temporary college centers in cooperation with certain accredited colleges and universities to meet certain educational needs of veterans and others; creating the Area College Center Commission, a temporary departmental administrative commission in the Department of Public Instruction and defining its powers and duties; providing for the creation of certain local committees and defining their powers and duties; and making certain appropriations.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 245, entitled:

An Act making certain appropriations to the Department of Public Instruction for the payment of the cost of conducting certain college courses and classes for the fiscal biennium ending May thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, I am about to present to the Chair a bill but before doing so I should like to make a brief statement on behalf of Senator Doebla and myself.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, in the one hundred and twenty communities outside of the city of Pittsburgh there are in excess of 600,000 people.

In these communities there has grown up a serious problem relative to the health and sanitation of refuse disposal. Of the one hundred and twenty communities there are only five, Coraopolis, McKees Rocks, McKeesport, Sewickley and Munhall, that have adequate incineration disposal.

Adequate incineration requires the burning of refuse at, at least, 1,500 degrees Fahrenheit, and it requires a plant capable of burning, at this heat, the peak collection of any particular day. If a plant can be operated at plant capacity daily, refuse can be disposed of both cheaply and in a sanitary fashion, without any odor and without out annoyance.

The estimated cost of a furnace and plant that would permit this function is available from the plants that have been constructed. Lakewood has 150 ton plant capacity that cost $101,700; Baltimore has a 600 ton plant capacity that cost $415,000; Cincinnati has two plants, each of 100 tons capacity, that cost $71,000 each. While these plants were constructed prior to the increase in prices, engineers estimate that a modern plant can be erected at somewhere between $800 and $1,000 per ton capacity.

This bill provides for granting second class counties authority to construct such plants.

The bond amortization and depreciation of the machinery and plant maintenance would be paid from fees collected from users of the plant. This bill authorizes the commissioners to make charges for such plant use. The idea of this bill is that the incinerator plants should be self-sustaining by the per ton charge or fee paid.

It is estimated by the Pennsylvania Economy League and the Community Development Tabulation that by this method refuse can be collected and disposed of at a per capita cost of somewhere between $1.50 and $1.75 per capita.

In my district this would be a great saving, for in the most progressive districts the costs are much greater. In 1940, Dormont cost of collection and disposal ran $2.08 per capita; Crafton, $2.35 per capita; Mt. Lebanon, $2.25 per capita; Greentree, $2.23 per capita.

There is nothing in this bill that would compel any of these communities to use any of these facilities, but it is well known that where the price range is at such variance, even though there were no problem of community disposal of refuse, the great economic savings would in themselves be a great benefit to these communities. In the communities where refuse is both a sanitary and health problem it would be a double benefit.

Mr. President, I rise in place and present to the Chair the following bill.

Messrs. RAHAUSER and DOEHLA read in their place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 255, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," authorizing second class counties to acquire land for and erect, operate and maintain thereon garbage disposal plants.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

An Act to provide for State scholarships for children of deceased or disabled veterans.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Messrs. JASPAN and STIEFEL read in their place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 257, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Health for the purpose of establishing rheumatic fever clinics.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. WOODRING read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 258, entitled:

A Supplement to the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 720), entitled "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth, under certain terms, conditions and limitations, of certain streets in cities of the second class, second class A, and third class as State highways, and for the improvement, construction, reconstruction, resurfacing and maintenance by the Commonwealth of certain defined widths of said streets; imposing duties on such cities and on public utility companies using such streets; providing that no assessment shall be made upon the Commonwealth in the elimination of any grade crossing thereon; authorizing cities, persons, associations, or corporations to enter into agreements with the Commonwealth to bear a portion of the cost of construction or maintenance; providing for the assessment of certain portions of the cost of street improvements on abutting property owners; regulating the replacement of certain facilities of public utility companies; prohibiting the opening of said streets after improvement without a permit, and providing penalty therefor; regulating the maintenance of detours; authorizing the increase of city indebtedness in certain cases; and appropriating money in the Motor License Fund for the purposes of this act," establishing an additional route in the city of Easton.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO SURVEY, INVESTIGATE AND CONSIDER ALL LAWS RELATING TO MENTAL HEALTH

Mr. CARR offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare:

In the Senate, March 3, 1947.

Whereas, The Mental Health Act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 998), and its amendments, and other laws relating to the subject, contain numerous inconsistencies and should be carefully studied, revised, and codified in order to make them effective for their intended purposes; therefore be it.

Resolved if the House of Representatives concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to survey, investigate, and consider all of the laws relating to mental health, and to revise and restate completely such mental health laws in codified form, and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly, with a bill embodying a codification of the mental health laws to be introduced at the next regular session of The General Assembly.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, since the resolution I am about to introduce relates to one of the greatest men of Pennsylvania, I deem it a privilege to present to the Chair this resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

BEST WISHES OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO UNITED STATES SECRETARY OF THE STATE, GEORGE C. MARSHALL

Mr. DiSILVESTRO offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

March 3, 1947.

In the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania,

Whereas one of Pennsylvania's most illustrious sons, former Chief of Staff of U. S. Army and the present U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall is about to join other Foreign Ministers at the forthcoming Moscow Conference in the epoch-making task of laying sound foundations for an enduring peace, and

Whereas the people of the United States of America fully realize that upon the outcome of the Moscow Conference and the formulation of sound peace-treaties with Germany and Austria depend the peace of the world and the avoidance of future wars that may spell the end of civilization and the destruction of mankind; and

Whereas our Nation is fervently praying for the success of Secretary Marshall's mission to Moscow and is hoping that his vast experience, his rare tact and his thorough knowledge of European intricacies will contribute to the making of an enduring peace and above all to the formulation of safeguards against the recreation of explosive situations in Europe.

Now Be It Therefore Resolved, that the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania express its best wishes to this great son of Pennsylvania, U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall, for a safe and successful journey as well as voice its fervent hope that just as he was the architect of victory so he may become the builder of a lasting peace.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

[ ADEQUATE FEVER PROGRAM BE FORMULATED

Messrs. JASPAN and STIEFEL offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare:

In the Senate, March 3, 1947.

Whereas, Rheumatic fever as a long-continued infection is potentially a source of medical-social problems; and

Whereas, Rheumatic fever as a disease of childhood most frequently occurs in the early formative years and during adolescence when children normally experience their greatest problems in physical and psychic development; and

Whereas, The high incidence of rheumatic fever in the lower economic groups indicates that poor housing, overcrowding, exposure to infections and inadequate nutrition are important etiological factors; and

Whereas, In the United States generally and in Pennsylvania in particular, rheumatic fever is not a reportable disease and the magnitude of the problem as related to long periods of illness, chronic crippling, emotional and social upheaval, and economic distress can in no way be calculated by mortality statistics alone; and

Whereas, Rheumatic fever today is one of the foremost health problems of childhood since between the ages of five and nine deaths from it are outnumbered only by those of the four principal communicable diseases of childhood, since between the ages of ten and fourteen it is the leading cause of death and since between fifteen and twenty-five it is second only to tuberculosis; and

Whereas, There is a growing realization that organized public awareness and efforts are necessary to combat rheumatic fever and that only state agencies can adequately cope with its ravages; and

Whereas, Beginning with the year 1939 appropriations were authorized by Congress to the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor and the latter has set aside some funds annually for the development of the State programs; and

Whereas, At present twenty-one (21) State rheumatic programs have been approved by the Children's Bureau as follows: Arizona, California, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey,

Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Utah, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin; and

Whereas, The funds authorized by Congress for the care of children with rheumatic fever or rheumatic heart disease are now available to additional States which wish to participate; and

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania had not heretofore set up a rheumatic fever program of its own, or avail itself of Federal aid and the cooperation of the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor; and

Whereas, The rise of incidence of rheumatic fever in Pennsylvania calls for such immediate combative measures as compulsory notification of all cases of acute rheumatism, chorea and rheumatic heart disease, diagnostic services, organization of hospital schools and cardio-rheumatic clinics as well as extension of convalescent care and after-care services; now be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Public Health and Welfare Committee of the Senate, the Public Health and Sanitation Committee of the House and the Secretary of Health forthwith jointly formulate an adequate fever program for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and submit within thirty days from the passage hereof, recommendations to the General Assembly of Pennsylvania for enactment of appropriate measures.

CALENDAR

• BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 15, entitled:

An Act to further amend section six hundred two point one of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provision by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," and validating certain sales heretofore made and the titles to land so sold.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, there was recently introduced a bill codifying and reenacting the School Code of 1911 and the amendments thereto.

This bill, Senate Bill 15, proposes to amend the School Code of 1911. It would be foolish to pass legislation by separate bills amending the School Code of 1911, as a new bill probably will be passed, and legislation of this character, proposing amendments to the School Code, should be offered in the form of amendments to the present bill now in the Committee on Education.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I therefore move that Senate Bill No. 15, on third reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Education.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence,

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 114, as follows:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (App Act page 40) entitled "An act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly to make a thorough and impartial study to develop a sound and scientific financial highway program for the Commonwealth and the political subdivisions and an equitable basis for State aid to local governments for highway purposes authorizing consultation with research organizations of recognized national standing and defining its powers and duties" extending provisions thereof until next regular session of the General Assembly

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section six of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (App Act page 40) entitled "An act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly to make a thorough and impartial study to develop a sound and scientific financial highway program for the Commonwealth and the political subdivisions and an equitable basis for State aid to local governments for highway purposes authorizing consultation with research organizations of recognized national standing and defining its powers and duties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 6 The said commission shall make a full and complete report of its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly not later than the first day of March one thousand nine hundred [forty-seven] forty-nine together with such drafts of legislation as may be necessary to carry out its recommendations

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, will the sponsor of Senate Bill 114, the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Snowden, permit himself to be interrogated?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lycoming permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SNOWDEN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, this is a report which is called the Brookings Report—an extension of the Brookings Report?

Mr. SNOWDEN. What is the question of the gentleman from Allegheny?

Mr. HOLLAND. Is this an extension of this investigation and has any report been made on it?

Mr. SNOWDEN. No.

Mr. HOLLAND. Has any money been spent on the report up to date?

Mr. SNOWDEN. Has any money been expended?

Mr. HOLLAND. Yes.

Mr. SNOWDEN. Yes.

Mr. HOLLAND. Is this the bill that we appropriated $30,000 for?

Mr. SNOWDEN. No. We appropriated $50,000.

Mr. HOLLAND. What has been spent?

Mr. SNOWDEN. Approximately $25,000.

Mr. HOLLAND. The passage of this bill will hold up appropriations to the local communities for two more years, definitely, will it not? Will the balance of the appropriation be used here?

Mr. SNOWDEN. What is the question again?

Mr. HOLLAND. Passage of this bill will hold up a definite plan to appropriate motor vehicle funds to the different municipalities for two more years?

Mr. SNOWDEN. No. The gentleman from Allegheny knows better than that.

Mr. HOLLAND. No, Mr. President, I do not know better than that. I should like to further interrogate the gentleman from Lycoming.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lycoming permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SNOWDEN. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. In this investigation you are investigating the appropriation of money to the local municipalities; am I right?

Mr. SNOWDEN. The gentleman from Allegheny is right.

Mr. HOLLAND. Therefore, if you are going to continue the investigation for two years you can not make a definite plan; am I right?

Mr. SNOWDEN. Not exactly.

Mr. HOLLAND. That is cutting corners. I thank the gentleman from Lycoming.

Mr. President, I have gotten some very confusing answers here. The way I read this bill, there will be a continuation of the investigation. Some money has been spent and more money will be spent for further study, to decide how much money will be given back to the local municipalities.

As I understand it, $20,000 was spent, and then they hired another man and they gave him $1,000 to interpret the $20,000 report—I wonder if it was a lawyer.

I am going to oppose this bill because I think it is time to quit making surveys of how much money shall be returned to the local municipalities for the maintenance of streets.

You people here all voted for an amendment to the Constitution which forbade the use of gasoline or motor vehicle funds only for the maintenance of roads and bridges and in doing so you have ignored completely the real estate taxpayer back home, who has to pay real estate taxes to maintain streets that are used as right-of-way for the big trucking industries of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SNOWDEN. I am sorry, I believe in this bill the motor vehicle funds—you are interested in the bus business—will the gentleman from Lycoming be interrogated further.

Mr. SNOWDEN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Are you interested in the bus business?

Mr. SNOWDEN. I am, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. I am going to oppose this bill, vote against it, because I think it is about time we quit protecting the motor vehicle fund for the motor vehicle industry. The people back home have a right to have their streets fixed out of this fund instead of paying real estate taxes. If we do not stop sometime, and continue every session to investigate for two years more, I think most of the homes in Pennsylvania will be crumpled up and withered away before any money is returned to the no one here crying for the poor real estate owner.

The motor vehicle industry, the trucking industry of Pennsylvania, the oil interests—I think we all know about the oil interests in Pennsylvania, because they are very ably represented here by a man by the name of Davis, who uses our phones in the Senate, and there is no one here crying for the poor real estate owner.

I am going to ask the members of the Senate to vote against continuance of this for two more years, and let us get back and give a decent appropriation out of the motor vehicle fund to the municipalities so they can maintain their streets properly.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the discussion just ended by the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland. I am sorry any member of the Senate would arise before us and submit such an incoherent and unconnected description of any bill before this body, as has just been done by the Senator from Allegheny. I regretted very much when he was attempting to tell us about this bill, on which we are about ready to vote; I regretted very much he was not trained in the law because, had he been trained in the law, he would have presented a much better discussion.

Mr. President, the bill we have before us now is Senate Bill No. 114, which proposes to change the act passed May 29, 1945, only in one word, and that is that the investigation for which this committee was set up by the State Government Commission be continued for the year 1947 to 1949.

It was felt at that time by the members of the Senate and of the House, and the Governor, whose signature it carried, that it would be well for the citizens of Pennsylvania to know where the sum of $80,000,000 that the taxpayers, the motorists and others who use gasoline and pay license fees, should know where their money goes and concerning which each and every regular session of the Legislature was confronted with the duty of assigning or returning to the municipalities and sub-divisions of the government in Pennsylvania what would justly belong to them, because they all had to spend money to keep up their streets and repair their bridges and so forth.

The members of the Legislature were properly delegated the duty of finding out how much money should be returned and how much money was being spent and what was the best possible method of spending that $160,000,000 a biennium so that we would get the most for it.

A committee was appointed by the Joint State Government Commission and early in their study it was agreed that three basic considerations must be made.

First, what are the major characteristics of the existing system of highway management in the state of Pennsylvania;

Second, in what respects, if any, do the existing allocations of administrative and financial authority for the highway function depart from sound standards and principles;

Third, what are the specific steps, either legislative or administrative, that are required to remove or lessen any discrepancies found by the analysis.

I am reading, which I borrowed from a member of the Joint State Government Committee, from a part of the report made by the Chairman for the committee, the committee which was set up under the act passed on May 29, 1945.

The study was continued through two years, almost two years, or perhaps, eighteen months to be more exact.

The committee realized that because of the tremendous size of the problems that they were confronted with, and the far-reaching possibilities of changes, and so forth, that it would be beyond the scope of their ability to get a real answer to this problem that we had wrestled with for so many years, and therefore they employed, at a cost, Mr. President—and I want to make this point clear and decisive—at a cost of not $30,000 but $10,000—there is a lot of difference—and they secured the services of the Brookings Institution and the Brookings Institution made a report but too late, the committee believed, to draw up the proper legislation, they had not treated all angles, many things were not answered—and therefore the committee believed, when they recommended introduction of this bill, that the study should be continued.

Let me read further from the report of the Joint State Government Commission.

A meeting to receive the report of the Advisory Committee was held on December 19, 1946. For the information of the members of the Senate I think it should be known, and made a part of the record, that an Advisory Committee was set up by the original committee and was composed of the following persons:

W. E. Greenwood, President, League of Cities of the Third Class

Chester Rogers, Secretary, League of Cities of the Third Class

T. F. Chrostwaite, President, State Association of Boroughs

Dr. H. F. Alderfer, Secretary, State Association of Boroughs

H. A. Fritschman, Secretary, State Association of Township Commissioners

M. Joseph Connelly, President, State Association of Township Commissioners

Robert Lloyd, President, State Association of County Commissioners

Herbert Bolger, Secretary-Treasurer, Association of County Commissioners

W. Purves Taylor, Associated Petroleum Industries

Gavin W. Laurie, Associated Petroleum Industries

C. S. Klugh, Manager, Pennsylvania Automotive Association

Henry J. Fritz, President, Pennsylvania Automotive Association

Edward Gogolin, General Manager, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association

Paul W. Keely, President, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association

R. B. Maxwell, Secretary-Manager, Pennsylvania Motor Federation

Andrew J. Sordoni, President, Pennsylvania Motor Federation

J. Maxwell Smith, President, Keystone Automobile Club

Wm. S. Canning, Engineering Director, Keystone Automobile Club

A. E. O'Brien, Executive Secretary, Association of Pennsylvania Constructors

James S. Devlin, Director of Department of Public Works of Pittsburgh

John D. Stevenson, Chief Engineer of Department of Public Works of Pittsburgh

George H. Wilson, City Engineer of Scranton

Frank Murray, Director of Public Works of Scranton

Thomas Buckley, Chief Bureau of Engineering of Philadelphia

M. J. McLaughlin, Director of Public Works of Philadelphia

Hon. Ray F. Smock, Secretary of Highways, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

T. C. Frame, Chief Engineer Department of Highways
Hon. David W. Harris, Secretary of Revenue, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Otto F. Messner, Deputy Secretary of Revenue

You see, gentleman the Committee was unable to come to any decision. The committee felt the dire need of having every bit of information and every bit of advice that it was possible to secure from any and every source available and therefore this Advisory Committee was appointed and set up and their report to the committee delegated to study this question was in the form of resolution, and I read and quote.

"Whereas: In view of the much larger scope of the study that now appears to be necessary, it seems inopportune at this time for the Advisory Committee to develop a complete program of legislation for consideration at the coming Session of the General Assembly." That means the current Session of the Legislature.

I again quote:

"It is therefore recommended:

"1. That the report of the Brookings Institution be made public so as to obtain the widest possible consideration and discussion.

"2. That all laws relating to highway finance and legal responsibilities in respect to highways remain in a status quo for the coming biennium and that appropriations from the motor fund to the political subdivisions for the next biennium be made in the same approximate amounts as are now in effect.

"3. That the Highway Department be asked to submit its specific recommendations for the streets and roads that should constitute the primary and secondary state highway systems totaling from 25,000 to 30,000 miles in accordance with the general classification recommended in the Brookings Report.

"4. That active contact be established by the Joint State Government Commission through its agencies with the State Association of County Commissioners, the State Association of Boroughs, the State Association of Township Commissioners, and the State Association of Township Supervisors, in order to explore the practical features of the assumption by the counties of the responsibility for all highways other than those on the state highway system and in urban areas.

"5. That the Joint State Government Commission in consultation with such committees as it may desire to create be requested to formulate and submit to the General Assembly a legislative program which will consider the basic objectives of the Brookings Report with such modifications as may appear desirable."

Therefore, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, the bill you are voting for is not the Brookings Institute Report back to this committee. The bill you are voting for is not any specific plan to return money to the townships or cities or sub-divisions of government. The mere fact is that the committee could not come to a conclusion, that they diligently studied this matter for two years and gave it all the time possible to give it, and they have asked only in this bill for a continuation of that study for another two years.

Its appropriation was named in the original act two years ago, and no additional appropriation whatever has been requested in this bill, none whatever, and contrary to what the gentleman from Allegheny said, they did not pay to any one organization or a total of organizations $30,000, regardless of where the gentleman got his information, but they only spent a total of $25,000; for all the organizations, and every other reason for spending the money, they only spent a total of $25,000.

I now quote from the last paragraph of the report, by the Committee chairman, Senator Snowden, to the Joint State Government Commission.

"It should be noted that of the $50,000 appropriated for this study, approximately $25,000 has been expended to date, leaving an unexpended balance of $25,000."

Therefore, Mr. President, may I say again that a vote for this bill is not a vote for any particular expenditure or any particular plan. The committee has not come to a decision and they have not recommended any plan. They have gotten the Brookings Institution report, certainly, and the Brookings Institution report is definite in what it recommends, but the committee is not ready yet to say they recommend the adoption of that report. A vote for this is not a vote for any specific amount of money to go back to the townships or cities or any sub-division; it is merely a vote to continue this study by this committee, which is charged with the responsibility of finding out whether or not we are getting one hundred cents worth out of every dollar of the $80,000,000 which the taxpayers in the persons of motorists and all those of us who use gasoline give to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and charge this Legislature with the responsibility of seeing to it that that money is well and properly spent and that they get value received for every dollar of it that they have contributed.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I want to thank the gentleman from Cumberland for putting me on the right track. In a previous interrogation I asked if the Brookings Institute report had anything to do with this bill and I was advised that it had not.

First of all, Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Cumberland permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. WADE. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, has the Brookings Institute report been given to the members of the Senate?

Mr. WADE. No, Mr. President, for the reason I understand it is not yet in printed form and ready for distribution among the members of the Senate and House.

Mr. HOLLAND. There have been some copies in printed form given out to certain people, have there not?

Mr. WADE. Not to my knowledge.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, last Tuesday I saw a copy of the Brookings Institute report, and that is why I asked the questions I have asked here, because I do not think anyone is clear here as to what we are voting on. You are voting on a continuation of the investigation. You spent $10,000, gave $10,000 to the Brookings Institution to make that report. They made the report.

I should like to further interrogate the gentleman from Cumberland.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Cumberland permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. WADE. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Have the Brookings people made a definite report?

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I do not know who the Senator from Allegheny means by the "Brookings people." I understand the Brookings Institute—

Mr. HOLLAND. The Brookings Institution. People make the reports, they tell me, not the Institution, the people of the Brookings Institution, in the legal sense.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, being only a layman, I am confused by all these technicalities.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, did not the people of the Brookings Institution make a definite report? Will the gentleman from Cumberland say it out loud, so the newspapermen can hear him? The answer is yes or no?

Mr. WADE. The answer is, yes.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, may I interrogate the gentleman from Cumberland?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I have the floor.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, has the floor.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I have the floor right now. The Brookings Institution already did give a report, but the professional politicians did not like the report because it was taking some of this money and giving it back for what you all talk about and do nothing about—home rule—we were going to get some money back so the people back home could use the money.

Home rule—I have heard the Republican Party talk about home rule for a long long time but when it comes to voting for it they do not believe in it. I agree with Mr. Heyburn that it worked at the last election but the people, like Barnum once said, like to be fooled once in a while.

But, Mr. President, leaving all kidding aside, we have a report that we paid $10,000 for, and then we paid another $1,000 for someone to interpret the report. Is that correct?

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, is this a private conversation?

Mr. HOLLAND. Since the gentleman from Cumberland became the champion of the Brookings people, I have to look to Mr. Wade—did we give another $1,000 for someone to interpret the Brookings Institute report—and now we are going to give $20,000 more to write another report.

So it all depends on what kind of report you want, and just as soon as the Republican Party of the State and those representing the motor vehicle interests and the oil interests of the state get the right kind of report they will accept it, and when the report is accepted you can rest assured that the local municipalities back home will not get a fair proportion of the gas funds, and the funds from drivers' and owners' licenses. That is nothing new. I have been for thirteen years a member of the House and Senate, and in the thirteen years I have been here I can say, regardless of what party was in power, the motor vehicle fund has always had some kind of investigation or some kind of survey as to how much shall be returned back home for the maintenance of streets, and nothing is done.

Mr. President, the reason why nothing has been done is because $80,000,000 is a lot of money to give out in contracts and pay off political debts, and if one person has it to give there are a lot of comebacks, and that is why they have always tried to keep the political fund of the highways in the state, when it should go back to the counties, boroughs, townships and cities, which, after all, are subsidizing the trucking industry of the state of Pennsylvania by using the real estate tax to maintain streets.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, despite the fact that my colleague from Allegheny County, Senator Holland, brings in many foreign issues to the bill before us and now upon our Calendar on third reading, I think perhaps he and I agree—we do not, however, agree on the fact that he brings in personalities such as Mr. Davis—I do not know whether he means Hon. James J. Davis or any other Davis—but he mentions other personalities which do not have any place in this discussion whatever.

Then the gentleman from Allegheny talks about home rule and that, I again remind you, my fellow members of this body, is not an issue in this matter. There is not a single member of this committee that I know of, of either political faith, who has said that he does or does not agree with the Brookings Institute report, they are not yet ready to come to that decision, but I say again that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland, and I, I think, agree, that this body is entitled to know, and members of the House of Representatives are entitled to know, and the Highway Department is entitled to know, and the affected taxpayers in this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are entitled to know, how is the best way to furnish the money for the highways in the State of Pennsylvania.

The taxpayers may already be paying enough, or they may not be paying enough to maintain a good highway system, I do not know, but I know that the committee was helpless to get the facts of the situation without employing some outside help, just as we do in any other endeavor, either public or private, but the issue is not that, because no one has agreed that we should return so much or not return so much to any municipality or any class of municipality. The issue continues to be, and has always been, should we continue a study of where this highway money is going in the state of Pennsylvania? That is the only issue before us, and it has no connection with these personalities or with home rule or with anything of the kind; the people want to know, they are entitled to know, and their representatives in the House and Senate are entitled to know before decisions are made.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cumberland.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Cumberland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WADE. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. FRAZIER. Senator Wade, you have had some thought in your mind that personalities should not be brought into this question. May I ask a personal question?

Mr. WADE. Indeed the gentleman may, Mr. President.

Mr. FRAZIER. Is the gentleman from Cumberland a member of the Bar?

Mr. WADE. No.

Mr. FRAZIER. Then I charge you, Sir, with undue modesty, when the gentleman says it is necessary to be a member of the Bar to intelligently and effectively present an issue.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair assumes that the suggestion is agreeable to the Senator from Cumberland.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I think the problem is a very simple one. Two years ago this Senate was asked to vote on an appropriation to the Joint State Government Commission for the purpose of getting for this body information which would assist it in determining finally how highway funds should be re-distributed to the municipalities.

Now we come back in the following session and we, as members of this body, as far as I know, have had no report submitted to us, have had no information given to us, and are asked at this early stage of the session to continue the investigation in order that a report might be made two years from now.

Some might infer from the fact that the committee still has $25,000 on hand indicates a desire by some individuals to expend the balance of the fund, and some might infer that the remarks made by the gentleman from the rolling hills of Cumberland County have thrown some enlightenment to those of us who do not know what the committee studied and what it has done for two years, some of us on this side feel that the Senate as a whole should be apprised of what the committee has done up to now, before we are asked to extend the life of the committee and spend an additional $25,000.

Mr. TARR. At the very beginning, Mr. President, may I say to my colleagues on the other side that I have not intended taking the floor at this time on this very, notwithstanding the remarks from the other side, controversial bill.

Mr. President, I was not a member of this august body in 1945, and therefore I can not be held responsible for the passage of any bill which did or did not set up a commission, as has been argued, but a study of the facts does disclose that a resolution was passed in the Legislature of Pennsylvania calling for an investigation of the amount of state aid for highway purposes and how much should be granted to the political sub-divisions.

In answer to some of the questions, the Brookings Institute or the Brookings Institution--we will not fight about that--has made a report. They also made a report in 1942, which can be purchased from the Brookings Institute for the sum of three dollars. We have talked about $30,000 and $10,000 and $25,000. If we believe the Auditor General of the Commonwealth--I have gone over there and gone very deeply into the expenditures and I found that there has been advanced to this Commission $31,650; there has been accounted for in expenditures the sum of $20,000--I have every expenditure,--I say that not as a matter of suspicion, but down even to the matter of buying postage stamps--$9,000 was paid at one time, $1,000 at another time. Six dollars was also spent to buy two copies of the Brookings Institution report of 1942.

We might say $25,000 has been expended and no report has been received by this body. It has been in print since November, and I believe that we are entitled to see a copy of that report before we give our approval to a continuance of the investigating committee.

It is my own personal opinion that since this is a study of local government, it has been in the wrong hands since 1945. The local Government Commission of Pennsylvania is one of the finest commissions and finest bodies that has ever operated in any state in the nation, and I am sorry that I can not say the same for our Joint State Government Commission.

I am going to vote against this continuance, on my firm conviction that they have had two years and had someone outside of the state for $10,000 to do the work, and two more years and the spending of another $25,000 to $30,000 will not solve our problem.

In conclusion, Mr. President, I would only ask that the members of this body consider one thing: is it worth $50,000 to get a report that I will be glad to take orders for at three dollars a copy. Thank you.

MOTION THAT SENATE BILL No. 114 BE PASSED OVER

Mr. HOLLAND. I move that Senate Bill No. 114, Printer's No. 21, be passed over until copies of the Brookings Institution report are given to each member of the Senate.

Mr. TARR. I second the motion, Mr. President.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

An the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I feel that I should make a few remarks, lest it be inferred that my vote has been determined by what has been said by certain members of the Senate. I had made up my mind how I was going to vote on this bill before there was any debate on the matter; I had decided to vote against this bill before I came down here today, and my reason for doing so is based primarily on the fact that I am very much opposed to voting for appropriations to make studies unless those studies result in a bill that can be acted upon at the next session of the Legislature.

I realize that this is a very important and a very difficult problem, Mr. President, but I do not believe it is so difficult that a bill could not have been prepared that we could have acted upon at this session of the Legislature.

I am very much interested, as I think all of my colleagues who have sat with me in the Senate are interested, Mr. President--I am very much interested in economy and I am interested in home rule, but I was very much startled when I read the long array of people who are considering this matter, to learn that not one person from a township or a borough or one of our small cities was consulted.

I do not think my vote will change the result of the action on this bill, but I am glad to get up here and ask, if we are going to have any more studies, that the people back home who will be affected, have a voice. There is no use of prattling about home rule unless we give the people back home a voice in what we are doing.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I think it would be quite unfair to leave the statement just made by our colleague from Blair County go unexplained, and for that purpose I should like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lycoming permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SNOWDEN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I should like to ask the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Snowden, if it is correct that he invited an official of the Township Supervisors Association to be a member of the Advisory Committee.

Mr. SNOWDEN. They were invited to sit in on the Advisory Committee but they refused.

Mr. WADE. Would or would not the gentleman from Lycoming care to divulge to the members of the Senate the name of the person or persons invited to become members of the Advisory Committee?

Mr. SNOWDEN. The Secretary of the Joint State Government Commission issued the invitation over my signature. Is that the question? I believe Mr. H. A. Thomson, Secretary of the Township Supervisors, was invited.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I just would like to say that there are several million other people, aside from Mr. Thomson, who are interested in the townships, boroughs and small cities in this State.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, it is not my purpose, I assure you, to continue this debate but we just want to be fair in the whole picture, and, of course, we could not invite every township supervisor in the state of Pennsylvania to be a member of the Advisory Committee. Therefore, as I understand from the committee, they chose someone of responsibility, someone that they could look to for leadership from that group, and get the best possible Advisory Committee in the state of Pennsylvania.

I repeat this, with apologies, Mr. President, and I make this statement to my colleagues in the Senate, during the period that this committee will serve—they were elected for four years—there is involved the expenditure of some $320,000,000. The amount appropriated is a very small percentage of one per cent—one thirty-second of one per cent of the total amount involved—and therefore, it is a very important matter, and they have justifiably reached out over the state of Pennsylvania to find the very best informed people in the state of Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—31

Becker,	Doehla,	Kephart,	Tallman,
Berger,	Donlan,	Letzler,	Wade,

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred forty-one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance, exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," further defining and amplifying the powers of foreign insurance companies with relation to real property in this Commonwealth.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 2, entitled:

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 25, 1947.

There is an old legend in connection with the life of St. Patrick to the effect that the 17th day of March, is not his birthday, and that the celebration of that day is only the result of a compromise made in the interest of harmony, and for the preservation of human lives.

In years long past, there were many sons of Ireland who believed that March 8th was the day upon which the Irish snakechaster had been born, but, sad to say, many others were convinced that he had first seen the light of day on March 9th.

As a result of this divergency of opinion, those who believed in the theory of eight, held their celebrations on that day in March, and those who differed did their celebrating on the following day.

This divergency of opinion not only made for different banquet dates, but for hospital and funeral dates as well, and the fights that were precipitated by the arguments held over the all-important question, left behind them many widows and orphans.

In order to settle the question and bring to an end the slinging of brick-bats and shillelaghs and to decrease the death rate and the need for charitable homes for widows and orphans in Ireland, a priest whose name has unfortunately been lost to posterity, suggested that the differences be adjusted by adding the two different dates and holding joint and friendly celebrations on March 17th.

This was done to the everlasting credit of the Irish and since that time, on that new date, they have jointly celebrated. St. Patrick rests more quietly, the celebrations are less quarrelsome, and the death rate has decreased.

It is an established custom of the Irish Members of the General Assembly and of the Press and other Irishers to meet and to honor their glorious ancestor, St. Patrick specifically, and Irishmen generally by a celebration (done up green) at which time the only bricks thrown are verbal ones, and the only damage resulting is to their digestive processes; therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), That a legislative committee is hereby created consisting of twenty-five Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and fifteen Members of the Senate to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, whose duty it shall be to select the time and place and to make all other fitting and suitable arrangements for a celebration in honor of St. Patrick (and Irishmen) by the Members of the General Assembly and their guests.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints the following committee for the Biennial Dinner Committee of the Legislative Sons of St. Patrick, Messrs. Cassidy, Cochran, Cooper, Mrs. Dye, Messrs. Gorman, Horan, Gallagher, Kirley, Loftus, Lovett, McCormack, Mrs. McCosker, Messrs. Mooney, O'Dare, O'Donnell, O'Neill, Powers, John M. Reilly, Scanlon, Stockham, Stank, Vaughan, Wallin, Sorg and Andrews.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. I have here in my hand, Mr. Speaker, an extract from a newspaper of supposed general circulation, a paper which has some standing, I believe in this House. It is published in Philadelphia, the Inquirer, and there has for years been a wrangling nondescript catch-as-catch-can man on the staff, at a magnificent salary, nothing to do except villify his betters, and I note that in one of his recent screeds he refers to me as dour and sour.

Now, after sixteen years of trying to cultivate the angelic virtues it comes with somewhat of a shock,—it would have been a shock had I not always been suspicious of this man. I know something of his background, something of his undercover activities, but I never expected him to have the bold effrontery to display his new alliances in this House. If you will arise and look at him with his red shirt, the signal of his infiltration into another profession; I would only like to know just what part from Moscow the gentleman with the red shirt has to bear in this Assembly that he is here tonight to display for all to see.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inquire whether Uncle Dominic would like to defend himself. The Chair understands that the gentleman has no defense; he declines, even without a hat.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By consent of the House leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. Young for Mrs. DYE for the week on account of illness.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSOR

Mr. KIRLEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to add the name of Mr. Schuster to a bill that he is about to introduce.

RESOLUTION

AMENDING HOUSE RULE NO. 13

Mr. SORG offered a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 3, 1947.

Resolved, That House Rule 13 which read as follows: "The House shall convene on Mondays at nine o'clock p. m. and on every other legislative day at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned by its action taken the previous legislative day."

is hereby amended to read

"The House shall convene on Mondays at 4:30 o'clock p. m. and on every other legislative day at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned by its action taken the previous legislative day."

The SPEAKER. The resolution will lie over for printing.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire permission to interrogate the Chairman of the Highways Committee?

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not see at the moment the Chairman of the Highways Committee. He is probably snowed in.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would the Vice-Chairman of the Highways Committee permit himself to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER. The Vice-Chairman of the Highways Committee, the Chair would inform the gentleman from Cambria, is the Honorable Ira T. Fiss, who is ill at his home according to a call to the Speaker's office.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I have permission to interrogate the Majority leader?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Has the Majority leader been informed that there is any dearth of ashes in Pennsylvania?

Mr. SORG. I have not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. And would the Majority leader, Mr. Speaker, be of the opinion that there was plenty of ashes in Pennsylvania?

Mr. SORG. I am of that opinion, Mr. Speaker.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I presume, Mr. Speaker, that the chairman of the Highways Committee, being snowed in, is not here because the right amount of ashes were not placed on the right surface at the right time. My reports are that scattered all over the Turnpike are cars in great confusion as a result of a failure to apply ashes.

Now, it would be a dire calamity, I submit, Mr. Speaker, if the important figures of this House, like the Chairman of the Highways Committee could not dig himself out because there was a lack of ashes. I had hoped that the Chairman of the Highways Committee would be here in order that he might take cognizance of the situation, and exert any influence he may have with the Turnpike Commission and the Highway Department to at least sprinkle a few ashes upon some of the main highways.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed that the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Hall, the Chairman of the Highways Committee, cannot get through the drifts to where the ashes are located.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, might I inquire whether the telephones are all out?

The SPEAKER. The Chair presumes they are.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ELDER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I do not think the lack of ashes is what caused the Chairman of the Highways Committee not to dig out. I think it was the lack of shovels.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. ROOT asked and obtained unanimous consent to add the names of Messrs. Myers, Naumann and Livingstone as sponsors to House Bill No. 536.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CORDIER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, without a doubt the eyes of the people of the Commonwealth are upon this august body. There is keen interest among the citizens of this State as to what type of program we shall have at this Session of the Legislature and as to what form, if necessary, any new taxes might take. When we go to our homes each week we are met by our individual constituents, by committees seeking information and making demands upon us. Our volume of correspondence is unusually large. Many of these epistles make demands upon us and make unusual requests.

Perhaps typical of the requests that are made of Members of the Legislature is a letter that was sent to a colleague of mine in Luzerne County. I say it is typical because of the humorous approach which it has, so I ask the indulgence of the House while I read the letter.

"Dear Excellent: I suppose you want no why I rote you. Well, by golly, I livin fur hunlock Creek and I tink maybe you be big man and help me. Wot you tink. From humlock Creek I go every day and deliver fertilizer fur Retreet Insane Sylum. Must be waitin 20 minits fur ferry to take team across river. I talkin fur Metro Maslowsky what livin fur Retreet and he tell me you can do big favors fur people. Metro he tinks hes milliooneyaire and hes nuts but he be damn smart fellow. He readin fur paper where you inogerate the new governor. Now I make explanashun what I want. Maybe you tell governor Doff to put bridge across river to Retreet and do away with ferry. I am farmer havin lots of land 4 cows, chickin, pigs, one dam good team and wife who work like h---. If you get bridge fur me I never furget you and maybe deliver load of fertilizer free to you. Say how you get elected I votin last time but no see your name on ballot. You be Republikonsy or demokratsky (or maybe Coomunist). I votin Republikansky fur thirty years except 17 times votin demokratsky. We be havin some politishun here fur retreet nut house. By golly I guess big shots go nuts too. Well suppose you put 2 lanes fur bridge one fur cars and one fur my team. I tell everybody in Retreet you be dam nice fellow and I betcha they all vote fur you when you get bridge. Sinsurly yours Stanislaws Fetchtable."

Now, Mr. Speaker, I am certain that the Luzerne County delegation in the House will see to it that this request is met, with or without fertilizer.

Mr. Speaker, as the Legislative mill begins to grind in the present important Session of the General Assembly the Members and the administration are faced with the dilemma of decreasing tax revenues, diminishing surpluses and increased demands from many groups within the Commonwealth. Many of these demands are justified, such as the request of our sons and daughters who fought on all the far-flung battlefields of the recent war, for a bonus and job opportunities.

We are asked to increase teachers salaries and pressure is brought to bear for increased millions in appropriations to mental and medical institutions. Municipalities beset with financial problems look to us for aid. There are many vital problems which need the attention of the Members in the coming months. It has been my pleasure to serve in other serious Sessions of the General Assembly and it is my humble opinion that by patience and fortitude we can resolve these problems. Above all we should not be stampeded into hasty action by any group.

History has recorded that during the term of Governor Porter, a little over one hundred years ago, a reading of the financial operations of that period show some similarity to the present situation, the treasury was empty and we are told there was a scale of expenditures which would inevitably produce a large yearly deficit. This was during the canal and railroad building period with the State meeting most of cost. There were no funds to pay the interest on the State debt, which at that time was about thirty million dollars, with a deficit for the year around four million dollars. The great public transportation system was only partly complete and the returns were inadequate, Porter tried to float loans for the Commonwealth but was unsuccessful. The Legislature of 1840 adjourned without making provisions for the debt and the Governor called them back in special session. Luxury taxes were adopted but these did not bring in enough money. State bonds were selling at 50 per cent of their par value. It was not until 1845 when the debt had risen to 40 million dollars that solid footing was reached.

We have come a long way since those days. The Commonwealth's position is sound and I believe by a prudent and wise legislative course in this Session we can keep it so. It is my conviction we ought to examine closely requests for appropriations from department heads and other sources. Unfortunately we are not blessed with expert help and advice in these matters. As appears possible, we may have to levy some new forms of taxation in this Session, perhaps it may be wise to examine closely the State's tax structure and to revise and adjust the forms of taxes we do and may have to levy, to carry on the services of the Commonwealth.

It was my honor in the 1943 Session to introduce a solution which provided for an examination of the tax structure in detail looking forward to such times as we are now in. Perhaps I was a little premature in the presentation of the resolution. However, I believe the time has arrived when Members of the Legislature ought to determine to look into the whole question of revenues and taxation and to call for expert advice on these matters, so that we can as individual Members glean a clearer picture and legislate more intelligently on the important pieces of legislation that will come before us in the ensuing days. I am certain it is expected of us that we face the important problems of this session with courage and determination.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 17

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Resolution No. 17.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 3, 1947.

Resolved That House Rule 13 which read as follows

"The House shall convene on Mondays at nine o'clock P M and on every other legislative day at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned by its action taken the previous legislative day"

is hereby amended to read

"The House shall convene on Mondays at 4:30 o'clock p. m. and on every other legislative day at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned by its action taken the previous legislative day"

On the question.

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman as to whether he knows how long the House has been convening at 9:00 p. m. during the regular Session.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I don't know how long the House has been convening on Monday at 9:00 p. m.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Would the gentleman agree with me if I said that the House has been convening on Monday night at 9:00 p. m. since 1925?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I would agree with the gentleman and I would say that is too long.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, as to the reason why this resolution was introduced to change the time.

Mr. SORG. Because, Mr. Speaker, it occurs to by far the great majority of the Members of this House that the work of the House would proceed more efficiently during the day than in the wee small hours of the morning.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman that if this resolution is passed whether the House intends to sit through from convening time at 4:30 p. m. until such time as its business is finished.

Mr. SORG. At the present time, Mr. Speaker, it would occur to me that that is the advisable thing to do. If, however, from time to time this House should find the need to recess for awhile to get something to eat in the event that Sessions are long, it certainly is their prerogative to do so.

Mr. CHUDOFF. One more question, Mr. Speaker, how long does it take the gentleman to either drive or come by train from his home to Harrisburg?

Mr. SORG. It takes me about six hours, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Polaski.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POLASKI. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman from Erie as to how many hours it takes him to come from his home to Harrisburg on the days that we convene.

Mr. POLASKI. Approximately 12 hours, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLEMING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman how many hours it takes him to come from his home to Harrisburg on the Mondays that we convene.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, when I travel with my colleague Mr. Vaughan or Mr. Beech, three hours. When I travel by myself, about five hours.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I perhaps could go through the entire Membership of the House from western Pennsylvania, and the answers to the question I asked the previous gentleman would be that it takes anywhere from three and one-half hours to twelve hours to get to Harrisburg.

The Majority Floor Leader informs us that he feels that the House will probably conduct its business more efficiently by convening in the afternoon, and I say to him that it doesn't make any difference to the Members from Eastern Pennsylvania as to whether the House convenes at either 4:30 or 9:00 p. m.. For myself personally I could get to Harrisburg in two hours and we could convene at noon. But nevertheless the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Polaski or the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Dalrymple, —although he has never told me,—it would take him approximately twelve hours to get here. That means with a two hour Caucus they would have to leave Erie at 2:00 o'clock in the morning to get here in time to convene at 4:30 in the afternoon on Mondays.

Now, I think we should take that into consideration before we change the time for convening. I think this consideration should be given to every Member, and the other Members who might be able to devote a little time to their business before coming here.

Many of us from Philadelphia are able to put in half a day in our offices, and many from the other parts of the state can put in just as much time. Now, with the big salaries that the Members of the Legislature get, and with the look of things that we will probably be here all summer, I think we should be given an opportunity to spend as much time at our personal business as possible.

When I read this resolution it occurred to me that there may be another reason for convening the House at 4:30 I read in the newspapers from Philadelphia that on Monday, March 17, five hundred teachers will come to Harrisburg to see the Members of the House on behalf of possible teachers' legislation for wage increases that are now pending before this House, and in that article it was clearly stated that the teachers would leave Philadelphia at 5:00 o'clock so that would not interfere with the teaching of their classes on Monday; that they could get here in the early evening and see the Members of the House from Philadelphia and return on the night train for Philadelphia so they can be at their classes on Tuesday morning.

It might be that these Members who are interested in convening at 4:30 are trying, shall we say to duck the teachers from Philadelphia. I also read in other papers that teachers are coming from other parts of the state.

I also feel that maybe the purpose of this resolution is to avoid the delegation from the bi-partisan committee on FEPC that has been coming up here on Monday nights to see us.

Mr. Speaker, is this not a lock-out of the peoples' lobby that comes here to see us? I know that there are many professional lobbyists on the floor of this House. They would be here at 7:00 o'clock in the morning for the purpose of seeing Representatives on behalf of legislation that they are for or against, because they are paid to be here and can be here, and I say we ought not to create a hardship on the people of Pennsylvania, the teachers, the people in favor of the FEPC, the people in favor of legislation for the working man by changing the hours of convening.

I say to you that we are doing indirectly what the Republican party did in New York about three weeks ago when they locked the doors of the House and refused to admit a delegation of men and women from New York City who were interested in housing legislation. I say we should take that into consideration. The teachers of Pennsylvania cannot afford to give the Members of the Legislature a ten-dollar dinner to set forth their program; the members of the bi-partisan committee on FEPC cannot afford to give a ten-dollar dinner to set forth their program, and I think we should be here at 9:00 o'clock on Monday night to receive these people, because if we are not I think then we are telling them that we love them in October and after we are elected we are not around. I am afraid there might be some changes in this House and in the State Administration in the next election if this change is made.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is fully aware, as any other member of this House, that the matter of convening the House at 4:30 on Monday has been a subject of discussion from the very first day of this session. It has been the action of the Republican caucus as long as a month ago—if I might be permitted to reveal that. It has been the subject of some communication between the Republican caucus and the Democratic caucus for fully that length of time as well.

We are not here to say that no delegation or no citizen of this Commonwealth is welcome to come to this House, but we are here to say that the conduct of the legislative proceedings of this House should not be in the nature of a reception committee.

Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Polaski.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POLASKI. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Does the gentleman use the train, Mr. Speaker, or does he drive when he comes to Harrisburg.

Mr. POLASKI. Mr. Speaker, I use any combination of footwork, taxicab, ferries and train to get here.

Mr. SORG. Is that why it takes twelve hours, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. At what time on Mondays does the gentleman usually arrive in Harrisburg, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. Anywhere between five in the afternoon and eight-thirty in the evening, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. The gentleman never arrives before five, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. POLASKI. Sometimes in the spring months and in the summer months when the House is in session.

Mr. SORG. Does the gentleman have in mind particularly one occasion when he met me coming to Harrisburg at Penfield, Pennsylvania?

Mr. POLASKI. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I remember the occasion when I hit Mr. Sorg's car.

Mr. SORG. On that occasion, Mr. Speaker, we came together and we were here at four o'clock in spite of the collision.

Mr. POLASKI. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the Majority Floor Leader?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. Does the gentleman have any idea how I came from Erie yesterday, under what conditions?

Mr. SORG. I do not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. I started out on the highway, for the information of the Majority Leader, at 8:00 o'clock in the morning. I was turned back on the State Highway owing to adverse weather conditions. I proceeded back home, called the airline and I was fortunate to get a plane to Pittsburgh, because the plane which ordinarily leaves Erie at eight o'clock in the morning was late and left at 11:00 o'clock, which was very fortunate for me. We arrived in Pittsburgh at 12:00 o'clock after a very thrilling ride and then proceeded by train to Harrisburg. I might add that if a resolution of this type is passed I might have to count myself out as a Member of the House in future Sessions.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Polaski.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POLASKI. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. At what time did the gentleman arrive in Harrisburg yesterday, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. I arrived last night at fifteen minutes after eight.

Mr. SORG. That is all, Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I respectfully submit that if that is the kind of a tour the gentleman has in mind, certainly I agree that it will take him twelve hours to get to Harrisburg, but in spite of all those difficulties it was 8:15. In the usual course of affairs it would not seem to be too difficult for a man to get here three and a half hours earlier.

I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Dalrymple.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I desire to inquire of the gentleman if he is in favor of 4:30 sessions rather than 9:00 o'clock sessions.

Mr. DALRYMPLE. I am, very much so; it should be earlier, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I thank the gentleman. I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Cook, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COOK. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Is the gentleman in favor of 4:30 sessions on Monday, rather than at 9:00 p. m.?

Mr. COOK. 4:30 suits me all right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I desire to inquire of the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, whether he would find it too inconvenient to get here at 4:30 on Monday, rather than at 9:00 o'clock?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Not a bit, Mr. Speaker, and I would like to state that if the gentleman from Erie Mr. Polaski takes twelve hours he should drive something besides what he is driving—I don't know what it is, but I have driven since 1945 and I have never been late except once in 1945. I believe the longest time I was on the road was on a Sunday when we got in here at 11:30 after leaving Erie at 2:30 or 3:00 o'clock, but usually we drive it in six hours.

Mr. SORG. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Majority Floor Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Floor Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was one of those who had no objection to 4:00 o'clock for convening on Monday. However, my caucus licked me on the issue. Now, what I want to inquire of the Majority Leader is what methods he used to lick the rebels in his caucus, because I would like to be acquainted with his technique.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, as one competitor to another I would like the gentleman to know that that is strictly a trade secret.

Mr. POLASKI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Cook.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COOK. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. Mr. Speaker, according to the gentleman's idea, what is the safest and surest way of getting to Harrisburg under adverse weather conditions? That is what mode of travel would the gentleman use?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, up until yesterday, automobile.

Mr. POLASKI. I understand, Mr. Speaker, that neither of us could drive yesterday. Is that true?

Mr. COOK. I started to drive yesterday, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. Would the gentleman say that the Pennsylvania railroad is the surest way to get to Harrisburg on time?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, the Pennsylvania Railroad always deliver us here.

Mr. POLASKI. That is absolutely correct, Mr. Speaker, but how many hours does it take to get here under adverse weather conditions by train?

Mr. COOK. It is very seldom late, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLASKI. How many hours is that, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. COOK. By the night train I get down in 10 hours and by the day train 11.

Mr. POLASKI. How many hours was the gentleman on the train yesterday, may I ask, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COOK. I was on the train last night 13 hours.

Mr. POLASKI. I thank the gentleman very much.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, I might make an explanation of the hours traveled last evening on the passenger train. The train put on an extra engine at Erie and by the time we reached Warren, which is 70 miles, we were three hours late owing to adverse weather conditions. We had the worst blizzard in Erie county yesterday and Sunday night that we have had in 20 years, so if we don't have another one in 20 years I don't where it affects the 4:00 o'clock meeting.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I still am on the trail of the trade secret. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROOT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like to know the nature of the arguments, the nature of the pressure, the nature of the persuasion or the nature of the coercion that caused the gentleman to abandon his movement in favor of keeping the hour of meeting on Monday at 9:00 o'clock, and why he abandoned those on this side who were disposed to stick with him?

Mr. ROOT. Mr. Speaker, I may say to the gentleman from Cambria that I am still of the opinion that it is an error to change the Session from 9:00 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. I still believe we ought to meet as we have for the last twenty-five years, but I also know when I am licked. The majority of my party has voted for a 4:30 Session. They may be right, they may be wrong. I follow the majority opinion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Messrs. Chudoff, Powers and Verona and were as follows:

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. HALLER from the Committee on Judiciary reported as amended House Bill No. 233, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two of the act, approved the eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (P. #### MINORITY REPORT JOINT COMMITTEE TO STUDY STATE REVENUE NEEDED FOR STATE FUNCTIONS

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to present the minority report of the Joint Committee to study state revenue needed for state functions, and I would like at this time to read it because at the present time I am reading from a work sheet, and the corrected copy is still in the hands of the typist. I expect it to arrive before I finished reading this report.

The SPEAKER. Without objection the privilege is granted.

Mr. ANDREWS:

This report is submitted as a minority finding because the Republican Majority Report presented on behalf of the Republican Majority Members of the Joint Committee to Study State Revenue Needed for State Functions, filed with this House on February 24, last, does not present the essential facts concerning the present financial condition of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In this report we present totals. The tabulations upon which these totals are based are too bulky to permit their being made a part of our report at this time—but they will be available as soon as they have been copied in a form that can be conveniently made a part of the records of this House.

In this report, however, we point out just how we have arrived at the totals which tell the story the Joint Committee, as a whole, was supposed to answer—but did not.

The Republican majority report reflects a surplus from the current biennium of five million dollars. Our figures indicate a surplus of $92 million which amount is made up of the following items:

Departmental surpluses .....$21,000,000

Postwar Appropriations

Accounts in the amount of .... 71,000,000

In arriving at our departmental surpluses of $21,000,000 we analyzed the expenditures of the various departments up to December 31, 1946. Based upon average expenditures during the 19 month period, there should be, if the same average were maintained during the remaining five months of the biennium, departmental surpluses as of May 31, 1947—totalling $42,000,000.

However, we have, as a safety factor used in our computation only 50 per cent of this amount—or $21,000,000. The balance would be available for salary adjustments and to meet other increased costs.

The lapsed amount of $21,000,000 compares favorably with surpluses from prior bienniums. We suggest that the General Assembly lapse the various appropriations within 60 days after the close of the current biennium.

In this report the Democratic minority members of the committee suggest that the post war estimated balance of $71 million should not be financed from General Fund revenues but that, instead, capital improvements of the kind contemplated, and under way, should be paid for through the issuance of bonds under a General State Authority.

Attention is directed to the fact that the voters approved a bond issue in the amount of $50,000,000 for public works, and that this amount could be made available for financing post war projects. Attention is also directed to the fact that amounts already expended for post war projects could be absorbed by a General State Authority.

It is our suggestion that the various buildings, hospitals and other state improvements financed by a State Authority from 1935 to 1941, through the issuance of General State Authority bonds, provided a fair and equitable method of distributing capital costs so that the burden would not be borne by the taxpayers during the current biennium.

It is also our suggestion that it will be practially impossible to expend a sum approximating $71,000,000 for capital improvements during the next biennium in view of possible labor, material and construction shortages.

Incidentally the seventy-one million dollars is made up of items, appropriation liabilities like the Capitol Park Extension, the Governor's Mansion and the work to be done at Teachers' State Colleges. The entire construction program since 1945 we say can be absorbed through a General State Authority.

The majority report indicates net estimated revenues during the 1947-49 biennium of $388,000,000. This sum reflects estimates prepared by the Department of Revenue totaling $372,000,000—after adjustment for the capital stock manufacturers exemption of $24,000,000 and the addition of $40,000,000 representing markup on liquor prices.

Careful study indicates that the $388,000,000 is an under estimate—and the General Fund estimate which we believe to be justified is at least $442,000,000.

This figure was arrived at by utilizing the estimated revenue for the biennium ended May 31, 1947—after giving effect to a 10 per cent reduction in revenues for the next biennium—and the elimination of the capital stock tax (manufacturers' exemption) in the amount of $24,000,000.

The majority report indicates that the appropriations requested for the next biennium total $602,000,000 which greatly exceeds the average of the appropriation for the three bienniums ended May 31, 1947.

The figures are:

General Fund Expenditures
Biennium ended 5-31-43	$441,216,007.25
General Fund Expenditures
Biennium ended 5-31-45	417,243,914.94
General Fund Appropriations
Biennium ended 5-31-47	513,836,904.50
Average for 3 bienniums	457,432,275.56

It will be noted that the departmental requests for the next biennium of $602,000,000 exceeds the average appropriations for the past three bienniums in the amount of $144,567,724, or 24.01 percentage.

The Democratic minority feels that the estimated appropriations for the past biennium should not exceed $530,000,000 as we feel that this amount should adequately cover the financial needs of the Commonwealth without impairing the efficiency of essential state functions and should make possible substantial increases in state subsidies. This figure is based on an analysis of the expenditures to December 31, 1946 and the inclusion of estimated expenditures for the five month period ended May 31, 1947 with proper allowances for increased costs and services for the next biennium.

The majority committee report erroneously shows an apparent deficit of $214 million and inferentially states that new taxes will be necessary to meet this deficit.

The Democratic members of the minority committee feel it may not be necessary to impose any new taxes or increase the present tax rates as our report reflects a surplus of approximately $4 million at the end of the 1947-49 biennium.

The Democratic minority members of the committee will be pleased to furnish supporting information to further substantiate the figures reflected in this report.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman send the report to the desk, please?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, as I said, the typist is working on the copy. I expect it at any time now.

The SPEAKER. That copy will be sent up to the desk?

Mr. ANDREWS. The copy as soon as it is received, I will furnish; otherwise I will submit this work sheet, but it has on it notations in my own handwriting that nobody else could read.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I shall eagerly await the report which the gentleman will submit.

I would like to direct your attention only at this particular time, after hearing as much as I could absorb as the gentleman read, because it bears repetition, that the resolution under which this Committee operates did not delegate to the Committee the duty or the function of making recommendations how the various funds shall be treated. That is a matter that the Committee saw fit to leave to the Members of this body generally.

The gentleman made reference to a ninety-two million dollar surplus for the present biennium and said that he arrived at that surplus by manipulation of funds.

The gentleman refers to an over-estimate of the requirements of various Departments. If he will carefully examine the report of the majority in this particular matter he will find that it followed a policy to which the gentleman himself subscribed, not to pare down requests of the various Departments, but rather to take them as a basis and a source of a starting figure.

The gentleman will also bear in mind that the majority report does not seek to represent to the Members of this body that three hundred eighty-eight million dollars is all that can be derived from the present tax basis, but makes the suggestion itself that it is the feeling of the majority that the original estimates made last fall were conservative, and that they could be revised upwards to some extent.

I am sure, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman does not mean to misrepresent the stand of the majority, but I do say his report at the present time does not comply as literally with the terms of the resolution as the majority saw fit to do.

Mr. Speaker, I shall await anxiously for the gentleman's report and should like to indicate also at this time that the majority will have further recommendations when it comes to final analysis of a budget that is to be debated in the near future.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the Majority Leader will sometime upon the floor of the House indicate the information he desires and the form in which he desires it, I will be glad to comply with any request that he may make for the receiving of further information.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to correct just one inference from the Majority Leader's statement. It was my position, I believe, that the requests of the Departments be analysed for the purpose of ascertaining the factors that led them to ask for increased appropriations.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I do not mean to infer that we have not been trying to analyse any possible misunderstandings that there may have been on the part of the Majority or the Minority. I shall ask no further information from the gentleman on the report that he will file, and hope that we will be able to solve some of the misunderstandings to the satisfaction of all the Members.

The SPEAKER. The Chair now has the report that the gentleman from Cambria Mr. Andrews just read. This is the Minority Report of the Joint Committee to Study State Revenues Needed to Finance State Functions.

The Chair directs said report be spread upon the Journals.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chief Clerk again requests the Members to put their discarded bills in the envelopes provided for them and leave them on top of your desks.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. LEISEY and ERB.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 18.

In the House of Representatives, February 5, 1947.

Whereas, The St. Lawrence Seaway and Power Project will produce no practical benefits for the people of the two countries it is designed to serve; and

Whereas, The General Assembly and the citizens of this State are greatly concerned about the effect the completion of this project would have upon them; and

Whereas, The construction of the project would burden the taxpayers of this Commonwealth, and the United States, with an initial sum estimated at from $543,000,000 to $1,350,000,000, and experience in similar public works would indicate that this project would cost much more, this money would be paid by the United States taxpayer for work in Canada done by Canadian labor; and

Whereas, Existing facilities, the Welland Canal, which bypasses Niagara Falls, and the Great Lakes Channels, amply provide for the present lake traffic. The railroads on both sides in the United States and Canada have demonstrated that they are prepared to handle all through traffic offered; and

Whereas, With its channels closed to navigation for about five months of the year, due to ice and weather conditions, it would be unreasonable to expect the railroads to perform the required service during the period that navigation is closed and to be in a position to handle the peak load. The railroads would be required to maintain equipment that would be idle or little used for sixty per cent of the time, and have the added problem of maintaining the personnel organization. Great numbers would have to seek employment elsewhere while tonnage was moved by government subsidized competitors. This situation would greatly affect the ports of Erie and Philadelphia; and

Whereas, Sea-going boats cannot travel this great distance for nothing, and the saving in transportation costs would be exceedingly small, if any; and

Whereas, It would be disastrous to Great Lake shipping, injurious to American rail, highway and inland waterways services, and seriously harmful to the American coal and iron ore industries; and

Whereas, By facilitating the direct importation of semi-finished low valued commodities, it would adversely affect American labor; and

Whereas, Electrical energy that would be generated could only be used at nearby points, as it has been demonstrated that the cost of transmission over long distances greatly exceeds that generated locally; and

Whereas, Such an agreement, if ratified, would reduce the exportation of manufacturing, mining and agricultural products of this Commonwealth, and result in loss of employment and contribute to increased taxation; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concurs), That the General Assembly of Pennsylvania hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States not to approve the agreement for the construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway and Power Project, and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

SENATE

MONDAY, March 10, 1947

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our help in ages past and our hope for years to come, Thou art the alpha and omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. We pause to offer Thee our praise and gratitude for all the benefits of Thy love.

Let Thy spirit come to every breast and bestow blessings of peace on earth, and good will to all men of good will in all the world. Let the breath of Thy love and wisdom be upon the Moscow Conference, and bring cosmos out of the present chaos! May we, here, in our beloved America, seek diligently to set our economic and political house in order, so that all our procedures shall coincide with our American Way of Life.

Graciously remember the loved ones of our home circles; may they be precious in Thy sight, O Lord God of Zion; also bear with our infirmities, fortify us against error, and make us strong, wise and urgent men to do Thy will. Therefore without fear or hesitation, may our devotion to the cause of the highest good to all mankind be without stint or reservation. Hear us, O Jehovah God, in this our prayer, for Thy name's sake. Amen.

FELICITATIONS EXTENDED TO ELAM L. BANKS

Mr. HULASKA. Mr. President, it has come to the attention of the members of this body that one of our faithful employees, who has served this Senate for the last twenty-eight years, is to retire this week—Elam L. Banks, who has been a faithful employe of this chamber for twenty-eight years.

Mr. Banks has been fair to both groups, the minority and the majority. When the Democratic Party was in the majority he was then fair to the Republican members of this chamber. He has shown no discrimination, he has been truly a real public servant. We wish him the best of luck and we join with our colleagues on the other side of the Senate to wish him well.

We are told that Mr. Banks is quite ill but he is trying to finish out this week. Together with the majority members, we have decided tomorrow, at lunch, to pay our respects to Mr. Banks by presenting to him a little token, in the rear of this chamber, at which time we trust all the members of the Senate will be present, that Mr. Banks will be present.

We also hope other employes may take a leaf from the book of Mr. Banks and show the same courtesy and kindness that he has shown to us for a great many years.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President and members of the Senate, occasionally we lay aside the strife of partisan politics and legislation in this body and pay due respect, as the gentleman from Cambria, Senator Haluska, has so well said, to a faithful member of this organization, for his unselfish and unqualified devotion to the whims, likes and dislikes of every member of the Senate. I join in what Senator Haluska has said. We are losing a faithful servant we will miss him, he has done a marvelous job and we all appreciate it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. JASPAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President and members of the Senate I am definitely opposed to the contemplated march of the C.I.O. group of the Philadelphia teachers to Harrisburg on March 17th, for the purpose of stampeding both the Legislature and Governor into meeting their demands. I personally think it unwise, ill-timed and ill-advised. I deeply resent the implication involved in the threat of the said local to swarm down on Harrisburg on March 17, especially in view of the statement made to our Chief Executive that he had better be at Harrisburg when they come there. Who is this group that dare dictate to our Governor and the chosen representatives of the people? Believe it or not, this particular group that intends to March to Harrisburg on March 17th forms only a small portion of our teachers in the state of Pennsylvania, and certainly can not hold themselves out as representatives of the entire system, comprising thousands of teachers in the state of Pennsylvania.

No one denies the urgency of their cause. Undoubtedly the teachers are entitled to an increase in salary, particularly those in the rural districts. But there are other factors to be considered as well.

School teachers of Philadelphia have enjoyed security throughout the depression when others vainly walked the streets seeking employment—thanks to the tenure act. Their salaries have compared with the best in the nation, ranking among the first three or four highest wage schedules paid. Their responsibilities are great, but the burden of work has not been oppressive. They enjoy a nine-month year, actually 180 days; they enjoy a series of holidays denied the average worker in industry; their hours are not too long; they enjoy maternity leave and sabbatical leave with pay, besides other advantages.

On their previous visits to Harrisburg in 1937 and 1939, they put on an exhibition of cat-calling and name-calling that would have brought grief to an average child if perpetrated in a school room.

I am sure members of both parties in both Houses of the Assembly are in sympathy with the demand of the teachers throughout the state for an increased wage to meet increasing living costs. Their condition is more critical in the rural areas than in the metropolitan areas of Philadelphia. The Governor has pledged an increase in increased revenues can be found—a difficult task considering the financial problems that the Commonwealth faces this year. A situation so difficult, in fact, that it will take the best thinking by everyone connected with the problem in our state government. Federal aid is in the offing. Nothing is to be gained by pressure tactics.

Those who impose discipline and I mean the teachers, should also learn to submit to it, particularly when the processes of government calls for it.

The use of pressure tactics will alienate many legislators. Veterans who certainly have had more to lose during the last five years than the teachers have not organized any bonus marches. They are content with the promises made by the Chief Executive and the Legislature, and have full confidence that bonus legislation will be enacted. These boys gave their all so that democracy might live. However, it seems to be somewhat different with a certain group of our school teachers who feel by their pouring into Harrisburg and their repetition of the tactics employed on previous visits, and their swarming into the executive session, that the Legislature and the Governor can be clubbed and stampeded in order to meet their demands. This is a little short of a process of intimidation which we will not tolerate. This is a type of propaganda resorted to by subversive groups, and only by them. True Americans do not conduct themselves in this manner, and it is hardly conceivable that some school teachers who are presumed to have some education, and are familiar with the administration of government, would have the effrontery to conduct themselves in such undemocratic and un-American manner.

The teachers would help their cause much more if they would devote their energies and efforts to building up, rather than destroying the orderly processes of government. This threatened march becomes particularly obnoxious when the leaders of the proposed march, Mr. and Mrs. Soler, husband and wife, now engaged as school teachers under the Philadelphia School System, together earn about $6,000 a year.

I repeat, I am absolutely convinced that the school teachers generally will obtain an increase. The size of it depends upon the manner and amount of money that can be raised through additional taxation. These teachers, if anything, should co-operate with the Governor and the Legislature to the point of convincing the public that additional taxation must be borne by them to meet the demands of the teacher.

I, in conclusion, ask this so-called group purporting to represent all the teachers, call off the march on Harrisburg, scheduled for March 17th. The Legislature is a deliberative body. It can not deliberate any problem, however urgent it may be, in the face of threats. Teachers are supposed to set an example of the best phases of democracy at work. Storming the citadel threatening political reprisals, interfering with the orderly processes of government, is not the way to demonstrate democracy at its best. I am speaking as a friend of the teachers, and hope they will heed the admonition.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to make a short statement.

Mr. President, and members of the Senate, I listened very attentively to the well prepared statement of my colleague from Philadelphia.

I do not know anything about the proposed march of the Philadelphia teachers, but I do want it clearly understood that the teachers in my senatorial district have been a long suffering group of public spirited citizens. Over a period of years they have worked at salaries far below the standard required in their profession or in any other profession. I have always maintained the position that they ought to be compensated for the work they do. We all know they are the first defense in America in the creation of a proper future citizenry.

I believe, in so far as the teachers as a whole are concerned, they are entitled to a decent increase in salary. They are earning far less than persons employed in other lines of endeavor that do not compare in any way with the seriousness of teaching, nor do other industries require the training that teachers must have.

I want it clearly understood in this Senate that if the teachers in my district were to decide that they could further their ends by coming to Harrisburg and appealing to this group in a body I would condone such action, in the face of past history, in the face of the many years they have suffered under an unfair salary status in this Commonwealth.

RESOLUTIONS

URGING PHILADELPHIA AS SITE OF 1948 REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TAYLOR, offered the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Philadelphia, wherein the political existence of the Nation began, has maintained its outstanding leadership throughout the one hundred seventy-one years since the Declaration of Independence was first read from the balcony of Independence Hall to the tense crowd of Americans below.

Philadelphia was then best equipped, among all of the original thirteen colonies, by location, accessibility, equipment and the cooperative spirit of its inhabitants, to be the host for the World's most momentous convention—a convention most far-reaching in its effects. Philadelphia still holds that enviable position, augmented by modern means of transportation, converging on the city, by fine, spacious and comfortable hotels, that have replaced the inns and taverns of colonial days, by a spirit of hospitality and friendliness not to be found in any other of the Nation's great cities, and above all, by Convention Hall, with its seating capacity of fifteen thousand, its easy accessibility to the magnificent 30th Street Railroad Station, to airports and to highways.

The Republican National Convention of 1940 is still fresh in memory, because of the hospitality with which delegates were greeted and entertained. The ample accommodations of Philadelphia's Municipal Auditorium, and of her hotels and opportunities for relaxation and entertainment, her wealth of educational exhibits and the sacred historic shrines, which are the depositories for the entire nation of its traditions and its ideals, all make of Philadelphia the perfect setting and the logical choice as host for the Republican National Convention in 1948; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee be appointed, consisting of five Senators to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, and five Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker, whose duty it shall be to represent the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in urging upon the Republican National Committee the desirability of holding its convention in 1948 in the City of Philadelphia. The committee created hereby shall cooperate with the Philadelphia Citizen's Committee, of which Frank B. Murdoch is Chairman in contacting the Republican National Committee, and in exerting every effort to bring the convention to Philadelphia.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TAYLOR. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman from Dauphin whether or not on this committee of five members from the Senate and five members from the House it is proposed to have any Democrats on that committee?

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, if I have any influence there will not be any Democrats on the committee.

Mr. HALUSKA. Thank you, Mr. Taylor, that is all. I want to wish you the best of luck. We are going to vote for the resolution, and wish you the same luck as you had in 1944.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

JOINT SESSION

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HARE, offered the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives will meet in joint session Tuesday, March 11, 1947, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of listening to an address by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, the Honorable James H. Duff.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolution be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection,

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution,

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in calling upon the Committee (on Appropriations) to act upon my resolution introduced in the early weeks of this session of the General Assembly, I have in mind the entire problem of public assistance.

Governor Duff recognized the need for the passage of my resolution when he started an investigation from the executive branch of the state government the week following the introduction of my resolution. He too, realizes that we can not continue to spend millions of dollars for relief administration without knowing more about where our money is going and what it is being spent for.

I know the question of administration costs always raises a defense by the department against any investigation. However, it is still the public duty of every member of this General Assembly to see to it that every dollar spent for relief shall be spent as near 100 per cent for relief as it is humanly and administratively possible.

No person can turn away from this responsibility by simply making a statement that administration costs are only 8 per cent and therefore reasonable; eight per cent of what? Certainly 8 per cent of $10,000,000 or $800,000 would not be called an excessive total for the cost of administration of relief in Pennsylvania. But when you get eight per cent of $100,000,000 you are spending $8,000,000 for administration costs.

Now we are faced with an expenditure in the next biennium of approximately $150,000,000.

Are we to blindly approve an expenditure of about $12,000,000 for administration costs.

Aside from this wasteful policy of spending without looking, we have another question, just as important and in some regards more serious.

I refer now to the relief grants and their relationship to the health and welfare of the relief recipient. I can not forget, and I sincerely hope I never do forget, that these citizens on relief are still citizens in every sense of the word. Let us not become so callous to the needs of others that we can sit idly by and allow the spending of millions for relief administration while the recipients of relief are receiving relief grants below subsistence standards. I am sure even biased partisanship will not allow this injustice to continue.

I prove my contentions in this matter by reading at this time the bulletin put out by the Department of Public Assistance dated March 3rd, 1947.

"COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Harrisburg

Frank A. Robbins, Jr., Secretary of Public Assistance

Weekly Report on Public Assistance

For Release: Monday A. M.
March 3, 1947.

Although Pennsylvania's total public assistance costs seem high, the amount granted to the average person on the assistance rolls is small.

The public assistance appropriation from State funds totals $111,620,000 (including the $23,400,000 deficiency appropriation) for the two-year period ending May 31, 1947. January expenditures from State and Federal funds for assistance grants and blind pensions amounted to $7,401,000. However, the average man, woman, or child on the assistance rolls received only $24.70 to cover living requirements for the entire month of January.

Prices of most of the necessities included in the assistance budget (food, clothing, fuel and light, and household supplies) have risen from 20 to 30 per cent since maximum allowances were last revised. Consequently, management on the assistance grant has become increasingly difficult.

For example, an elderly man living alone and preparing his own meals receives a maximum of $17 per month (57 cents a day) for food. This amount includes the cost-of-living increase in the food allowance granted last summer but allowances have not been increased to cover the 20 per cent rise in food costs since that time.

"Of the $7,401,000 expended in January, only about one-sixth went to the 48,400 recipients of General Assistance; whereas five-sixths went to 93,400 aged persons, 13,900 blind persons, 94,500 children, and 40,900 needy mothers or other relatives taking care of the children. Even the one-sixth which was used for General Assistance aided, for the most part, persons unable to work because of illness or physical handicaps."

Do you as citizen representatives understand the full significance of this report? The great and illustrious Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is knowingly allowing its wards and charges to suffer the degradation and despair of poverty plus the pangs and pains of need and hunger, because we, the representatives of these citizens, are too biased and partisan to inquire into the state of affairs, the management of human welfare and the expenditure of public funds.

The Governor's statement hints at relief chiseling and economy in relief expenditures. I too charge chiseling and desire economy. However, my charge is that the chiseling is against the needs of the relief recipient and the economy should be practiced in the administrative end.

I believe the previously read report by the department itself substantiates in part my contentions. You can not dismiss this plea by charging me with political witch-burning. We went through that phase of government last year. We lost the election and we learned too that the respective records of the two political parties had very little to do with the results of the election. We know now, if we never knew before, that elections are won and lost by other considerations.

I hope to go into this matter at a later date in greater detail. However, sufficient for the present to say that the question of public assistance needs careful consideration and action based upon a first hand knowledge of the functions of this department and the relationship between the money paid by the taxpayer and the miserly sum paid to the citizen on relief.

Gentlemen, in the name of good government and a conscientious desire to do justice to the 48,400 citizens who are recipients of general assistance, the 93,400 aged citizens, the 13,900 citizens who are blind, the 94,500 citizen children, the 40,000 citizen mothers and relatives caring for needy children, all this and more, I ask that my resolution calling for a complete investigation be approved before we proceed with the levying of taxes and the passage of appropriations.

I call to the attention of the committee the need of passage of this resolution.

Mr. CARR. Mr. President and members of the Senate, in presenting this bill I would like to make a very brief statement.

The bill I am about to present is a bill which has for its purpose the abolition of capital punishment and in addition thereto, the prohibition of the pardoning power in connection with persons given the life sentence for murder.

I have consulted with a great many people throughout the state, I have consulted with some penologists, and they all seem to agree that capital punishment does not have the deterrent effect which it is presumed to have, as far as willful murder is concerned.

It is a matter of fact that the average life sentence, however, has come to mean only a sentence of from twelve to fifteen years and that, therefore, a great many people have been opposed to elimination of the capital penalty because of the shortness of the life sentence.

However, I have been assured by many that they would be in favor of elimination of the capital punishment penalty provided a life sentence meant exactly that. Our state has been shocked time and time again by the recidivist who has been pardoned from a life sentence and then has gone out to repeat the act of willful murder.

For this reason this bill provides that the pardoning power shall be eliminated in all cases of conviction of first-degree murder, but that there will be thereafter no possibility of pardon in such cases. However, there will be continued, as at present, the right of the court to review and reconsider on presentation of new evidence.

Mr. CARR read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 292, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing amendments to Article I, Section nine and Article IV, Section nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania abolishing capital punishment and prohibiting the pardoning of persons given life sentences for murder.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, in presenting this bill, co-sponsored by Senator Geltz and Senator Carr, I believe an explanation is due the members of the Senate.

The state has a responsibility to fulfill in the control of alcoholism, as an extensive public health program, as is recognized by many State Governments.

Penal solutions, which are the only means now available, have proved no solution to the problem of the habitual drunkard.

Sending an inebriate to the workhouse or jail for thirty or sixty days, and continuing this practice until he or she dies, is no solution.

For hundreds of years, the people reacted in an unrealistic way when faced with the problems of the mentally ill and venereal diseased. This condition has been changed today, but people still react in the same way to the alcoholic. Apathy, secret shame, or attacks as scape goats, is the response of the public, but today, gentlemen, after much study, alcoholics are at last considered in their true light as suffering from a disease.

The bill I am about to introduce is the outcome of much study by "Studies on Alcohol" held at Yale University. Many took part in this study. Among those attending the study were physicians, psychiatrists, social workers, lay therapists, clergy of all denominations, vocational counselors, psychologists, former alcoholics and many others.

The bill I am about to offer is as follows:

"A board of five members, to be appointed by the Governor, would have authority to build or lease and operate inebriate hospitals and to employ a superintendent at a salary of $12,000.00 a year. The board members—to be named for terms of one, two, three, four and five years—would serve without compensation.

"Activities would be started with a loan of $100,000.00 from the State's general fund. Thereafter, the Liquor Control Board would turn over one per cent of the net profits of the State Stores.

"Patients could be committed to the inebriate hospitals by the courts or they could apply voluntarily for admission, treatment or advice. The State Board for Inebriates also would be charged with the duty of disseminating information designed to combat alcoholism. Likewise, it would cooperate with clinics and other agencies engaged in the diagnosis and treatment of chronic drinkers."

I would like to cite a number of the important principles which are stated or implied in the bill:

"It recognizes that alcoholics are sick people.

"It recognizes the fact that alcoholics can be rehabilitated.

"It recognizes a responsibility on the part of the government to meet this problem.

"It calls for study of the problem.

"It calls for public education on the subject of alcoholism.

"It omits all mention of punishment as a means of controlling the problem.

"It recognizes the necessity of diagnosis, the possibility of various forms of treatment and the advisability of probationary rather than institutional treatment whenever possible.

"It offers free service to those requesting it.

"It recognizes that many groups, individuals and official bodies have interests which are affected by the problem of alcoholism and that they have skills which may be required if rehabilitation and eventual prevention are to be realized.

"It has accepted the principle of separate administration.

"It has located responsibility in a new state board and has given to that board sufficient discretion and power."

The problem now facing Police Magistrates all over the country is the returned veteran, many of whom have become alcoholics. There is no way under any law now passed by the Federal or State, that protects the veteran as an alcoholic. He is just being considered as another drunk. Although the history of wars have always shown, after each of them, alcoholics have increased by great bounds. We have done nothing to treat the alcoholic the same as we would treat any veteran suffering from a disease or wound contracted while in service.

And last, but not least, the alcoholic right now, is spending his days in work houses and jails at the expense of the poor home-owner whose taxes are used for the operations of our local work houses and jails.

Messrs. HOLLAND, CARR and GELTZ read in their place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 295, entitled:

An Act providing for the study, treatment and care of inebriates; creating a State Fund for Inebriates; establishing a board of trustees to administer the fund; conferring powers and imposing duties upon such board, and providing for the commitment of inebriates to the custody of the board.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, last week I asked the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee, Mr. Walker, to consider and report out Senate Bill No. 81, requiring members of the General Assembly to file financial statements divulging their source of income.

Mr. Walker very kindly invited me to attend a meeting of his committee and meet with the lawyers of the Senate.

I have considered the objections these men, learned in the law, have offered to this particular bill. At this meeting, they pointed out Senate Bill No. 81 would require them to divulge the name of each client. The attorneys all agreed that the intent of the bill was to make public the names of all senators who were in the employe, or who represented corporate, transportation, public utilities, labor unions, and not individual accounts. I agreed with them and thanked them for their very kind offering of legal advice without compensation.

I have had the Legislative Reference Bureau draw up a bill confining subject matter strictly along the above lines.

Politicians when running for office are prone to run on the slogan "The Public Office is a Public Trust," and after they are elected, these same politicians feel that the public should do all the trusting. I am not accusing any member of the General Assembly of being dishonest in this practice. Men who are on the payroll of certain interests, are known to be on that payroll in the district from which they seek office.

But I do think we owe it to the public as a sign of good honesty that every representative file an accounting of the special interests he or she may represent for monetary reward.

I think anyone should be proud of his business connection, and should not keep these connections hidden. After all, say for instance, if I knew Mr. Walker was an expert on smoke, we could go to him for advice on smoke—that is all I am asking for, that every member not only tell his constituents but inform other members of the Senate of what his specialties are.

I do not think I am asking too much, and I am trying, gentlemen, to wipe out a stain that is in the minds of the American public, that everything down here is done under the table, and in black bag. It will bring a new trust in the government when the people of Pennsylvania know that legislation passed in the General Assembly is free from the innuendo of bought legislation and that every member here does not fear the light of publicity on his business connection. To regain the trust in Government, that makes Government strong.

Remember gentlemen, at no time in the history of the world, is our type of government being watched as closely as it is now for the weakness existing in it. These weaknesses shall be attacked by the enemies of democracy.

We are the last great democracy left—our survival lies with us. We must put government above reproach.

The people do not destroy—the politicians do by losing the respect of the people. Let us all strive to make a public office a public trust.

Mr. CRIDER. Mr. President, I have a bill I am about to present to the Chair, but before doing so I should like to make a short statement in connection therewith.

Mr. President, as a member of a legislative committee composed of three members of the Senate and three members from the House, I had the pleasure of presiding over the committee that now presents a bill to revamp the penal code of Pennsylvania. The committee had an advisory committee, and that advisory committee was composed of able jurists from the city districts, from the country districts, and from the smaller communities. It also had some able district attorneys, representatives from the Bar Association of Pennsylvania and several attorneys who were interested in defendants. Therefore the finished product, which was the work of about twenty meetings of this committee, is a bill which the committee believes takes care of the Commonwealth and also the defendant himself.

This bill is so drawn that it is in English which we believe can be read by layment and understood. It is put up in such a form that other additions could be made to it, if desirable, at some later date. It is also put in such a form that deletions can be made.

I want to say, Mr. President, the committee itself did cut out quite a number of things that were in the former criminal act. The committee itself did not attempt any changes in procedure and therefore there is some procedure left in this bill which could come out.

The work of this committee is such that, when it comes to the order of business of resolutions, I shall have a resolution to present to the Chair, asking that the work of the committee be carried on.

So, Mr. President, on behalf of this entire committee I present to the Chair a bill revamping the penal code of Pennsylvania, which is called "The Crimes Act of 1947."

Mr. CRIDER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 306, entitled:

An Act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Whereas, Under Resolution, Serial Number 15 of the General Assembly of 1945, the Joint State Government Commission was directed to investigate, survey and consider all penal laws of the Commonwealth and to revise and restate such penal laws in codified form and to report its findings and conclusions at the next regular session of the General Assembly, and

Whereas, The laws of criminal procedure of the Commonwealth to better serve the efficient administration of justice are in need of similar study and codification, and

Whereas, Because of the great importance attached to both the proper study and codification of the penal laws and the laws relating to criminal procedure it would be advisable and advantageous to make further study of the penal laws in conjunction with a study of the laws relating to criminal procedure, therefore be it,

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to continue its survey, investigation and consideration of all the penal laws of the Commonwealth and in connection therewith to survey, investigate and consider the laws of the Commonwealth relating to criminal procedure and to completely revise and restate such penal laws and laws relating to criminal procedure into codified form and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly with a bill or bills embodying a codification of the penal laws and laws relating to criminal procedure of the Commonwealth to be introduced at the next regular session of the General Assembly;

The Legislative Reference Bureau shall prepare the necessary drafts of all bills agreed on by the commission and shall furnish such advice and assistance as it may be called on to furnish.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND ADOPTED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am about to present two resolutions to the Chair, requesting the Joint State Government Commission to continue, in the one instance, the study of the various Orphans Court Acts which were worked on during the interim between the last biennial session and which have resulted in the introduction of three of the Seven Sister Acts in the House. These bills are on the House Calendar at the present time.

I have here a resolution authorizing the Joint State Government Commission to continue the study of that particular phase of legislation.

I also have an accompanying resolution asking that the Joint State Government Commission be charged with an impartial study with a view of revising and re-enacting the administrative code of 1929.

RESOLUTIONS

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE STUDY OF "THE ADMINISTRATIVE CODE OF 1929"

Mr. WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Whereas, The welfare of the Commonwealth and the successful conduct of its affairs is largely dependent upon the efficient working of its administrative boards, commissions and agencies; and

Whereas, At the present time there exists a great deal of uncertainty, confusion, and a lack of coordination in and among the various administrative boards, commissions and agencies of this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, No revision of the Administrative Code of this Commonwealth has been made since 1929, but numberless amendments have been made and laws on subjects related thereto and within the scope thereof have been enacted, which render the true status of this code and related laws uncertain and difficult of administration; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby requested to make a careful, thorough, and impartial study of and to revise and prepare for reenactment "The Administrative Code of 1929" and laws on subjects related thereto, or properly within the scope thereof, and in so doing to include revisions to the code which eliminate and revamp existing boards, commissions, and agencies or create new ones where the ends of efficient administration would be best served thereby, and to prevent the revision for the consideration of the General Assembly at its next session.

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE TO STUDY IMPROVEMENT OF ORPHANS' COURT PROCEDURE

Mr. WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Whereas, Under Senate Resolution, Serial Number 46, adopted March 13, 1945, the Joint State Government Commission was requested, during the interim between the 1945 session of the General Assembly and the regular biennial session of 1947, to study, revise and prepare for reenactment the Orphans' Court Partition Act, the Orphans' Court Act, the Revised Price Act, the Wills Act, the Register of Wills Act, the Interstate Act and the Fiduciaries Act, together with all of their supplements and amendments and all separate laws that should be incorporated therein, and to present them for the consideration of the General Assembly at its next session; and

Whereas, The Wills Act and the Intestate Act, together with all their supplements and amendments, and a number of related laws, have been studied, revised and prepared for reenactment, and presented for the consideration of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, Because it is highly important and of great moment that the remaining decedents' estate laws of this Commonwealth be studied and revised in order to better adapt them to present day needs and promote the more efficient administration of decedents' estates; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby requested, during the interim between the present session of the General Assembly and the regular biennial session of 1949, to further study, revise and prepare for reenactment the Orphans' Court Partition Act, the Orphans' Court Act, the Revised Price Act, the Register of Wills Act and the Fiduciaries Act, together with all of their supplements and all separate laws that should properly be incorporated therein, and to present them for the consideration of the General Assembly at its next session.

Mr. DOEHLA offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

AUTHORIZING PAYMENT OF ADDITIONAL INAUGURATION EXPENSES

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the committee appointed pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution Serial No. 100, approved by the Governor on the twenty-third day of January, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven, to make necessary arrangements for the inauguration of the Governor-elect be and is hereby authorized to expend, in addition to the sum authorized by said Senate Concurrent Resolution, the further sum of nine hundred fifty-three dollars and twenty-nine cents ($953.29) in the making and carrying out of the arrangements under said Senate Concurrent Resolution, the same to be provided for in the appropriation bills.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, a few weeks ago I promised the Senate that at the proper time I would present a resolution covering the objections that have been raised in various parts of the state against the present administration of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board.

Therefore at this time I present to the Chair, on behalf of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr and myself, a resolution calling for a complete investigation of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board.

URGING INVESTIGATION OF LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD

Messrs. DENT and BARR offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on State Government:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 10, 1947.

Whereas, There have been statements and charges made concerning the administration of the Liquor Control business because of alleged favoritism in purchasing and distributing liquor stocks, and

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board has adopted a policy of pricing that is detrimental to the best interests of Pennsylvania and against the general welfare, and

Whereas, There have been charges and cases of dismissals of employees because of the mishandling of public property and public business, and

Whereas, The present policy of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board tends to create a disregard for proper law enforcement and encourages the illegal activities of bootleggers and makers of illicit liquors, and

Whereas, The full intent of the law has not for six years, and is not at the present time being complied with because of the failure of former Governors James and Martin and the present Governor Duff to name a third member to the Liquor Control Board, and

Whereas, Because of the failure of former Governors James and Martin to name a third member who could act on behalf of the people in all business transactions by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, there have been and still are statements publicly made that supplies were purchased without regard to quality and cost and because of the inferior grades of certain liquors many persons have publicly charged favoritism and special considerations in the administration of the liquor business, and

Whereas, There is grave concern over the Budget Directors announced statements calling for a greater percentage of profits from the Liquor Administration and that this policy will create an atmosphere of lawlessness, disregard for the legitimate business establishment and will give aid and ammunition to that group of citizens who would again plunge this State into the disgraceful un-American days of prohibition an era in which more poison was poured into the American way of life than in any other period in our history, and

Whereas, The questions concerning salaries, wages, costs, selling price, distribution and enforcement are paramount interest to the good citizens of Pennsylvania, be it therefore and it is hereby

Resolved, (If the House concur), That a committee of twelve (12) members of the General Assembly be named as an investigating commission, six (6) members from the Senate and six (6) members from the House of Representatives with equal representation from the majority and minority political parties in both branches of the Assembly, and be it further

Resolved, That this Commission be granted powers of subpoena and sufficient funds from the General Fund to employ legal and clerical help, investigators and any other special assistants required to give to the people of Pennsylvania a complete non-partisan non-political report on the State monopoly administered by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and further, to make necessary and useful recommendations to this Session of the General Assembly.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. LORD offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, March 17, 1947, at four o'clock, p. m.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, March 17, 1947, at four-thirty o'clock, p. m.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

URGING PHILADELPHIA AS SITE OF 1948 REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Philadelphia, wherein the political existence of the Nation began, has maintained its outstanding leadership throughout the one hundred seventy-one years since the Declaration of Independence was first read from the balcony of Independence Hall to the tense crowd of Americans below.

Philadelphia was then best equipped, among all of the original thirteen colonies, by location, accessibility, equipment and the cooperative spirit of its inhabitants, to be the host for the world's most momentous convention—a convention most far-reaching in its effects. Philadelphia still holds that enviable position, augmented by modern means of transportation, converging on the city, by fine, spacious and comfortable hotels, that have replaced the inns and taverns of colonial days, by a spirit of hospitality and friendliness not to be found in any other of the Nation's great cities, and above all, by Convention Hall, with its seating capacity of fifteen thousand, its easy accessibility to the magnificent 30th Street Railroad Station, to airports and to highways.

The Republican National Convention of 1940 is still fresh in memory, because of the hospitality with which delegates were greeted and entertained. The ample accommodations of Philadelphia's Municipal Auditorium, and of her hotels and opportunities for relaxation and entertainment, her wealth of educational exhibits and the sacred historic shrines, which are the depositories for the entire nation of its traditions and its ideals, all make of Philadelphia the perfect setting and the logical choice as host for the Republican National Convention in 1946; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee be appointed, consisting of five Senators to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, and five Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker, whose duty it shall be to represent the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in urging upon the Republican National Committee the desirability of holding its convention in 1948 in the City of Philadelphia. The committee created hereby shall cooperate with the Philadelphia Citizens' Committee, of which Frank B. Murdoch is Chairman, in contacting the Republican National Committee, and in exerting every effort to bring the convention to Philadelphia.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

JOINT SESSION

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives will meet in joint session Tuesday, March 11, 1947, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of listening to an address by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, the Honorable James H. Duff.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

COMMITTEE BE APPOINTED TO ESCORT HIS EXCELLENCY, THE GOVERNOR, TO THE HALL OF THE HOUSE

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee of three on the part of the Senate be appointed to act with a similar committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee), to escort His Excellency, the Governor, to the Hall of the House, to address the member of the General Assembly in joint session on Tuesday, March 11, 1947, at one o'clock p. m., pursuant to a resolution already adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. STUART asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Messrs. STUART, JOHNSTON, BEACH and VAUGHN offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 10, 1947.

Since a time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, it has been the custom of this Body to pause in its deliberations of the day to note the days on which outstanding Americans were born.

On March 8, 1903, in the Borough of Sharpsburg in Allegheny County, there was born to Robert H. and Daisy (Daly) Fleming, a son, now known to this Assembly as the Honorable Robert D. Fleming, or to those who know him better, as plain Bob Fleming, the recognized leader of the Republican delegation of Assemblymen from Allegheny County; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives, at this belated hour, extends to this, its distinguished member, heartest greetings and congratulations on the occasion of his birthday last Saturday and compliments him on the success which he has achieved during the past years, and look forward to continued and greater achievements in the years to come; and be it further,

Resolved, That in order to make the life of this Assemblyman more comfortable while in Harrisburg, the Department of Property and Supplies be requested to place, at strategic intervals, cuspidors of such design and capacity as shall meet with the approval of the gentleman in whose honor this resolution is presented; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be presented by the Chief Clerk to the Honorable Robert D. Fleming.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman to whom we hope some day to erect what the resolution calls for, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I am overwhelmed. I would say that if there is anybody besides John Haudenschild who gives out silver dollars on birthdays I will be on hand at seat number 87 so that you may pass them over.

Gentlemen, I want publicly to thank you for this resolution. Beech will probably get it away from us after awhile. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen, for the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to congratulate the gentleman and wishes him many more happy birthdays.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. LYONS asked and obtained unanimous consent to add two additional sponsors to a bill he was about to introduce.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, if I can cut through this conspiracy of silence I would like to present a resolution in the interest of economic and governmental efficiency.

Over the week-end Senator Taft stated that in his opinion governmental payrolls could be reduced by at least 10 percent without affecting the efficiency of government. At Washington they are in the process of purging the federal payroll. They say that if there are those on the payroll who are trying to convert a wartime job into a peacetime sinecure, they should be fired,—and I agree with them. I am in thorough sympathy with any movement to reconvert any payroll, federal or state, from a wartime to a peacetime basis.

Now, Mr. Speaker, if federal payrolls can be reduced 10 percent without affecting the efficiency of government I maintain that there is a possibility that state payrolls might be similarly reduced, and if there are on the federal payroll people who get their jobs because they were doing a wartime service and who are simply perpetuating themselves now as federal bueraucrats, there is a possibility that the same situation exists on our state payroll and with reference to state personnel.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I think it would be well if this House were informed concerning the number of men and women on the state payroll in its various departments, bureaus and commissions as of the date of the tragedy at Pearl Harbor. What did we need for a peacetime establishment? And then it would be equally interesting, Mr. Speaker, to know how many people were on the payroll in the government's various departments, bureaus and commissions as of V-J Day, and then in addition, Mr. Speaker, it would be equally interesting to know how many there were on the payroll as of February 28, 1947.

If we had those facts it might be possible for us to cooperate more efficiently with His Excellency the Governor, who I understand will experience considerable difficulty in meeting the needs of this Commonwealth.

I have no notion, Mr. Speaker, how many state employes there are who belong to the Two-hours-for-breakfast Club. I think there are quite a number. And I do not know how many state employes there are who belong to the Three-hours-for-lunch Club, but I think there are quite a number. Those of you in the know, know that in every department and every bureau and every commission 20 percent of the personnel, faithful workers, do 80 percent of the work, and the rest of the personnel probably hold a position on the payroll by reason of some sort of political pressure. I believe it would be in line with sound practice to find out whether our departments are over-staffed or under-staffed and whether we have here in Pennsylvania the same reason to effect a reconversion of state personnel from a wartime to a peacetime basis that they apparently have in Washington.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of endeavoring to obtain such information I offer this resolution.

The SPEAKER. This is not a privileged resolution and will lie over under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO USE HALL OF HOUSE GRANTED

Mr. ROYER asked and obtained unanimous consent for the Committee on Military Affairs to use the Hall of the House, if necessary, for a public hearing on House Bill 161 on Tuesday, March 11 at 3:00 o'clock p. m.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

SENATE BILL NO. 3.

An Act to amend subsection A of section two hundred one of the act approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 624), entitled "An act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers, and of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of National Banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," by making further provision respecting the names of banks, bank and trust companies, and trust companies.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

CONVENTION OF REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEES IN PHILADELPHIA

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows, viz:

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Philadelphia, wherein the political existence of the Nation began has maintained its outstanding leadership throughout the one hundred seventy-one years since the Declaration of Independence was first read from the balcony of Independence Hall to the tense crowd of Americans below.

Philadelphia was then best equipped, among all of the original thirteen colonies, by location, accessibility, equipment and the cooperative spirit of its inhabitants, to be the host for the World's most momentous convention—a convention most far-reaching in its effects. Philadelphia still holds that enviable position, augmented by modern means of transportation, converging on the city, by fine, spacious and comfortable hotels, that have replaced the inns and taverns of colonial days, by spirit of hospitality and friendliness not to be found in any other of the Nation's great cities, and above all, by Convention Hall, with its seating capacity of fifteen thousand, its easy accessibility to the magnificent 30th Street Railroad Station, to airports and to highways.

The Republican National Convention of 1940 is still fresh in memory, because of the hospitality with which delegates were greeted and entertained. The ample accommodations of Philadelphia's Municipal Auditorium, and of her hotels and opportunities for relaxation and entertainment, her wealth of educational exhibits and the sacred historic shrines, which are the depositories for the entire nation of its traditions and its ideals, all make of Philadelphia the perfect setting and the logical choice as host for the Republican National Convention in 1948; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee be appointed, consisting of five Senators to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, and five Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker, whose duty it shall be to represent the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in urging upon the Republican National Committee the desirability of holding its convention in 1948 in the City of Philadelphia. The committee created hereby shall cooperate with the Philadelphia Citizen's Committee, of which Frank B. Murdoch is Chairman, in contacting the Republican National Committee, and in exerting every effort to bring the convention to Philadelphia.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. SORG asked and obtain permission for the Committee on Rules to meet during the session of the House.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. HELM from the Committee on Rules reported as committed Senate Concurrent Resolution as follows:

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

CONVENTION OF REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE IN PHILADELPHIA

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Philadelphia, wherein the political existence of the Nation began, has maintained its outstanding leadership throughout the one hundred seventy-one years since the Declaration of Independence was first read from the balcony of Independence Hall to the tense crowd of Americans below.

Philadelphia was then best equipped, among all of the original thirteen colonies, by location, accessibility, equipment and the cooperative spirit of its inhabitants, to be the host for the World's most momentous convention—a convention most far-reaching in its effects. Philadelphia still holds that enviable position, augmented by modern means of transportation, converging on the city, by fine, spacious and comfortable hotels, that have replaced the inns and taverns of colonial days, by spirit of hospitality and friendliness not to be found in any other of the Nation's great cities, and above all, by Convention Hall, with its seating capacity of fifteen thousand, its easy accessibility to the magnificent 30th Street Railroad Station, to airports and to highways.

The Republican National Convention of 1940 is still fresh in memory, because of the hospitality with which delegates were greeted and entertained. The ample accommodations of Philadelphia's Municipal Auditorium, and of her hotels and opportunities for relaxation and entertainment, her wealth of educational exhibits and the sacred historic shrines, which are the depositories for the entire nation of its traditions and its ideals, all make of Philadelphia the perfect setting and the logical choice as host for the Republican Convention in 1948; therefore, be it

The committee created hereby shall cooperate with the Philadelphia Citizen's Committee, of which Frank B. Murdoch is Chairman, in contacting the Republican National Committee, and in exerting every effort to bring the convention to Philadelphia.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the Resolution?

It was concurred in.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is a resolution passed upon the basis of the votes cast by the Members of the House from Philadelphia?

The SPEAKER. As far as the Chair could determine the resolution was unanimously agreed to. There were no negative votes to the resolution.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would respectfully remind the Speaker that he rather dodges the issue in that reply, because I do not think there were enough Philadelphians to have made such a large response.

The SPEAKER. The Chair heard no negative votes and would inform the gentleman from Cambria that if he desires to place a similar resolution for the Democratic National Committee he will also hear from the two Philadelphians on his side.

SENATE

TUESDAY, March 11, 1947

The Senate met at 12:00 o'clock, M., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, our Father, we thank Thee for the Holy Bible—the book of righteousness, the book of love, life and truth. O Thou, of infinite wisdom, write Thy precepts in our hearts. Deliver us from any over-wrought self-assurance and self-sufficiency, that our usefulness may not be impaired. Impress us with the foolishness to scorch and starve our souls, for just the things that finally throw life into confusion. Gracious God, stir us by the consciousness of the supreme ideal, which is to minister and not to be ministered unto, to serve and not to be served. In all our relationships inspire us with the spirit of the Master of men. To this end may we heartily subscribe to the theme of the poet:

"Be strong! We are not here to play, to dream, to drift; We have hard work to do and loads to lift. Shun not the struggle; face it—'tis God's gift, Be strong, be strong!"

In the name of Christ, our Lord, we pray. Amen.

MOTION THAT SENATE ADJOURN

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate adjourn until Wednesday, March 12, 1947.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before the adjournment motion is put to a vote, I believe it entirely proper that some comments be made upon the important message just delivered by the Governor, if the Majority Leader will yield.

Mr. TALLMAN. If the gentleman from Westmoreland desires to comment I shall certainly be pleased to withdraw the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion has not been seconded and may be withdrawn. The gentleman from Westmoreland will proceed.

REMARKS BY MINORITY LEADER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I expect to present to the Senate at this time a resolution. This resolution deals with the subject matter contained in the Governor's message to the General Assembly. Before commenting on the contents of the resolution, I believe it only proper that I should read to the Senate the Whereas clauses and the Resolves.

"Whereas, The former Governor of Pennsylvania, Edward Martin, now United States Senator from Pennsylvania, while Governor of this Commonwealth did publicly announce to the citizens and electorate of this Commonwealth that through the economy of his administration, this State's treasury was in possession of a surplus of approximately $200,000,000 and

"Whereas, His successor, former Cabinet Member and present Governor James H. Duff, has today presented a budget to the General Assembly, denying the existence of such surplus monies, while demanding additional burdensome, unnecessary and nuisance type taxes upon the citizen taxpayers of this Commonwealth, and

"Whereas, Said budget gives this present administration in Harrisburg a spending fund of over $1,000,000,000, and

"Whereas, Such a stupendous sum of money has never been requested by any former administration, even during the heartrending days of depression when many citizens of this Commonwealth were in dire need, and

"Whereas, Such a stupendous sum of money is being requested without consideration, allocations, or appropriation for the needs and requirements of the Veterans of World War Two, and

"Whereas, There is grave doubt in the minds of many of the people of this Commonwealth and Members of the General Assembly as to the need for such a stupendous sum of money, therefore be it, and it is hereby

"Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania does hereby call upon former Governor Edward Martin, now United States Senator, to come before this body and give us the whereabouts of both the economy program and the surplus, or in fairness to his successor and the General Assembly, announce the truthfulness of his campaign statements and pledges, and be it further

"Resolved, That this budget be held in abeyance until a clarification of the needs of this Commonwealth is made to the General Assembly by the Budget Director and the Governor of Pennsylvania."

Mr. President and members of the Senate, I listened very attentively to the statements made by the present Governor, Governor Duff, during the presentation of his budget message to the General Assembly. He quoted some figures that I think need some clarification and some explanation. He stated that the $200,000,000 claimed as a surplus, $170,000,000 odd was moneys made up by a sum of $57,250,000 contained in the motor fund.

In a speech made by candidate Duff in Harrisburg during his campaign he said, and I quote:

"... the present administration's treasury surplus 'may reach $200,000,000' by the end of the biennium is based on swelling returns from levies on gasoline, cigarets and liquor."

"Duff, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, made the forecast in an address at Milford calling for the election of Governor Martin to the United States Senate because 'we need the kind of sound financing in the nation that we have in Pennsylvania.'"

I further quote: Martin predicted on August 22, 1945 that "Pennsylvania can look forward today to possible additional tax reductions in 1947" with the hope that this "would attract new industries to the Commonwealth and thwart and post-war unemployment."

"The Republican candidate for Governor in 1946 can promise tax reductions and then fulfill his promise."

Governor Duff said today that he made certain campaign promises to the people and it was his intention to carry out those promises. All the other promises made are as of nothing when you compare the most paramount promise made in the campaign. The people of Pennsylvania voted for Governor Duff and the Republican Party because they were told that this Commonwealth had a surplus of $200,000,000 and they could and would receive a tax reduction. The Governor of the Commonwealth today has asked for a tax increase of some $40,000,000 odd of taxes upon the so-called corporate interests and some $84,000,000 odd upon the common people in their every day purchases of every day articles—a sales tax by any other name.

Mr. President, the Governor also said that of this sum of $170,000,000, which he said was a surplus as of May 31, 1945, there was approximately $76,000,000 of that sum appropriated by the 1945 Legislature.

Gentlemen of the Senate of Pennsylvania, if that money was appropriated in 1945 by this General Assembly, then candidate Duff and Governor Martin had no right to say to the people that this is a surplus, because by their own statements any moneys already appropriated by the General Assembly could not be called a surplus. They have deliberately lied to the people of this Commonwealth in their political campaigns, by building up a false issue of economy and a false statement of surpluses, and today we are paying the price for listening to that idle talk. We are paying it in increased taxes, we are paying it in diminished services, we are paying it by trying to put into effect in Pennsylvania the largest single budget ever offered to the Commonwealth in its history, and yet this is done in spite of the fact that the great economizer, Governor Martin, is in Washington crying for a reduction of the federal budget by some six billion dollars, yet the Federal Government is carrying the entire load of the post-war care being given to the veterans of World War Two.

I say to you that the two departments, the Department of Pennsylvania as represented by Governor Duff, and the Department of Pennsylvania as represented by Senator Martin, ought to get together. You can not ask for increased taxes in Pennsylvania and an increased budget in Pennsylvania, with less services being rendered, and demand more service for the people of the nation with a decreased tax in Washington and a decreased budget.

I say to the people of Pennsylvania that this is a billion dollar fraud upon the electorate of this Commonwealth.

I offer to the chair the following resolution and ask for its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

URGING THAT UNITED STATES SENATOR, FORMER GOVERNOR EDWARD MARTIN, BE CALLED BEFORE THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. DENT, offered the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 11, 1947

Whereas, The former Governor of Pennsylvania, Edward Martin, now United States Senator from Pennsylvania, while Governor of this Commonwealth did publicly announce to the citizens and electorate of this Commonwealth that through the economy of his administration, this State's treasury was in possession of a surplus of approximately $200,000,000, and

Whereas, His successor, former Cabinet Member and present Governor James H. Duff, has today presented a budget to the General Assembly, denying the existence of such surplus monies, while demanding additional burdensome, unnecessary and nuisance type taxes upon the citizen taxpayers of this Commonwealth, and

Whereas, Said budget gives this present administration in Harrisburg a spending fund of over $1,000,000,000, and

Whereas, Such a stupendous sum of money has never been requested by any former administration, even during the heartrending days of depression when many citizens of this Commonwealth were in dire need, and

Whereas, Such a stupendous sum of money is being requested without consideration, allocations, or appropriation for the needs and requirements of the Veterans of World War Two, and

Whereas, There is grave doubt in the minds of many of the people of this Commonwealth and Members of the General Assembly as to the need for such a stupendous sum of money, therefore be it, and it is hereby

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania does hereby call upon former Governor Edward Martin, now United States Senator, to come before this body and give us the whereabouts of both the economy program and the surplus, or in fairness to his successor and the General Assembly, announce the truthfulness of his campaign statements and pledges, and be it further

Resolved, That this budget be held in abeyance until a clarification of the needs of this Commonwealth is made to the General Assembly by the Budget Director and the Governor of Pennsylvania.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, in objecting to immediate consideration of the resolution which has just been presented, I should like to state, Mr. President, that it seems to me it comes with not a little poor grace from the gentleman from Westmoreland, and from the other side, to raise the matters which they have raised in the presentation of this resolution.

Certainly it can not be denied, under any fair consideration of the situation as it has been presented, and as it was presented, that the money to which the gentleman from Westmoreland has referred was definitely a surplus, in that it represented moneys which had come into the hands of the Commonwealth in addition to and over and above the then immediate needs for expenditures in the operation of this Commonwealth, and it is idle to say, and silly to say and political entirely to say at this time, that because those moneys were appropriated for worthwhile projects in the post-war era, that there was dishonesty or that there was fraud.

It seems to me too, Mr. President, that it does not come with good grace from the gentlemen on the other side of this chamber to attack this budget as being one that is in excess of the regular and proper needs of state government.

I think there is no person here who does not know that for a great many years, from the other side of this chamber, came attack after attack because of the poor condition of the mental hospitals. I remind the gentleman from Westmoreland, too, that during this past campaign, to which he has referred, his party took it upon itself to challenge the adequacy of what was proposed by the Republican Party during the course of that campaign as a program for the mental hospitals. I remind him that the attack of the Democratic Party during the course of that campaign consistently condemned the Republican Party for the condition of the mental hospitals.

It comes, it seems to me, with poor grace again, from the other side of this chamber, that this budget should be attacked when it attempts to raise money for necessary purposes in this Commonwealth.

The gentlemen on the other side I believe, all of them, have sponsored bills which attempt to increase salaries of school teachers of this Commonwealth. Just yesterday the gentleman from Westmoreland took the floor to defend the teaching profession of this Commonwealth and those people in the district which he represents. Certainly I think it is a matter of common agreement among the people in this Legislature, both in the House and Senate, that something must be done in order to aid and assist the school teachers of this Commonwealth in receiving adequate salaries for their services. And now, because the Governor of this Commonwealth, the head of the administration, has the courage, for the first time in many, many administrations, to meet the situation head-on, to say to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, we will give you those things you asked for, we will give you those things you ought to have, we will give you the things you are entitled to, the gentlemen on the other side condemn it.

I say to you, Mr. President, and the men on the other side of this Chamber, that here is a courageous approach to meet the needs of this Commonwealth; it is a courageous approach so that the people of this Commonwealth may have those things to which they are entitled. I can not help again at this moment but think of a situation that occurred here two years ago in this very chamber, when there was not one man on the other side of this Senate who voted for a single revenue raising measure, they did not help to raise one penny in 1945 to help to pay the school teachers; they did not help to raise one penny to help supply funds for the mental hospitals.

It seems to me they ought to have the same courage and the same integrity to say to the people of this Commonwealth, we are going to meet this situation and we are going to give you those things that you are entitled to.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President and members of the Senate, may I just take a moment, since the gentleman from Westmoreland has been so critical of the use the word "surplus," to read into the record an article which appeared under date of December 17, 1946, in the Cincinnati Post.

"$160,000,000 cash surplus in Ohio," and I remind you that at that time the Ohio state government was under the control of a democratic governor by the name of "Lauson" in Ohio.

"Columbus, December 17. The state's cash surplus will total $160,000,000 by December 31, Herbert D. Denfelter, state finance director, asserted today. Out of the surplus approximately $60,000,000 is appropriated but not encumbered and another $60,000,000 goes into the post-war fund created by the Legislature last year."

Surplus is the word used in each state. It perhaps is unexpended appropriations, but it is used by the Democrats and the Republicans in the year 1946, for identically the same purpose.

Just let me close by saying that I never, in my eleven years of experience as a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, have heard a Governor present issues more forthrightly or meet them more squarely. As my colleague from Lehigh, Senator Tallman has said, he met the issue head-on, he met the situation exactly as it exists, he presented it to us as it is, and he is to be commended, as is Senator Tallman, for presenting it to us in the fine manner that he did.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have no desire to add to the very careful and extemporaneous discussion given by the gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Tallman.

I would like, however, to paraphrase a nursery rhyme in directing some remarks to the gentleman from Westmoreland. There is an old nursery rhyme which goes:

"I shot an arrow into the air,
It fell to earth, I know what where."

The gentleman from Westmoreland has a peculiar habit of shooting arrows into the air and where they fall he does not care.

Some weeks ago in this Chamber we had him getting up and saying somebody over in the Liquor Control Board was paid a million dollars, and up to this point we have not had any details of that excepting a continued demand for investigation.

I have no doubt that during the course of the next couple of weeks the details of this budget and the accompanying tax measures will be debated vigorously by the proponents as well as the opponents of the various measures, and at that time the details of the budget will be discussed by the gentleman from Westmoreland and others, but I would like to direct the gentleman's attention to two remarks which he made which come under the heading of blanket indictments which I think in all fairness he should either prove or withdraw.

I appreciate the fact that he made a somewhat extemporaneous discussion of the Governor's budget, because we had just returned from hearing the budget message, but in his remarks—and those remarks are carved in the tablets and records of this Senate—he suggested that the Governor of the Commonwealth was a liar and had made false statements, and he also suggested that the Governor of the Commonwealth was a participant in a billion dollar fraud.

I do not think the gentleman from Westmoreland meant that. If he did, I cheerfully invite him to assemble his facts, because that is an issue on which I would cheerfully debate at any time. I do not think the Governor of the Commonwealth was ever a participant in any type of fraud. I have never met a more forthright and courageous public official than Jim Duff, and he is not given to dealing in half truths or untruths; he is not, as suggested, a liar; he is a very truthful public servant and he has given us an example of that today. He is not a participant in a fraud, he does not stoop to things like that. What he has said in his campaign, what he has said in his platform, he is meeting in the Governor's office.

I suggest to the gentleman from Westmoreland that before we start bringing in indictments like that against people in high public office, we should carefully review the facts and make certain we can at least make out a prima facie case.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to thank the gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Tallman, for his defense of the Governor's position and the administration's position, and I agree with the gentleman from Allegheny that he added nothing to the conversation.

Mr. President, the statements I made are contained in the record—not in the record of what I said—the record is contained in public print and it cannot be denied by myself or anybody else.

"Martin predicts tax cut by 1947."

"Duff warns of graft scandals if Democrats are elected."

"Praising the Martin administration, of which he is a part, the attorney-general emphasized that it had built up a $200,000,000 surplus for post-war improvements. He pointed out that when the Democrats were turned out of office they left a $71,000,000 deficit."

Mr. President, my mind goes back to that deficit. I remember how we stood on the floor and explained and explained and explained, the same as the Republicans are standing on the floor and explaining and explaining and explaining. You cannot explain to the satisfaction of the people when you have told the people that such is the fact and later it turns out to be that it is not the fact. Then you are guilty either of not knowing what you are saying or deliberately saying something that you knew to be untrue.

Mr. President, then the budget director entered into the same statement of fact last year, and I quote again.

"Budget Bureau says funds run $20,000 ahead of estimates."

Right in this Senate I stood upon this floor and argued for a tax reduction and that was the reason, gentleman, that the Democrats did not vote for the tax bills, that plus the reason we thought the taxes were not being placed against the right taxpayers. We wanted a further share of the burden carried by those more able to bear the burden, and we stated upon this floor that if the program being advocated by Governor Martin in his message for the year 1945, were carried out, there would be a surplus, we contended upon the floor of this Senate that there was a surplus from the tax measures passed in 1943, and we said that by the simple expediency of over-estimating the budget needs and under-estimating the returns from revenues, the Governor was perpetrating a fraud, because he was deliberately and knowingly creating a surplus in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and he later turns around in his campaign and says that economy measures were responsible for the great surplus that he said was in the treasury. We did not say it was $200,000,000, but we did predict $170,000,000 of unexpended funds and that was the figure given by Governor Martin in his message.

We told you then you did not need the tax program as it was constituted and built up in 1945, because that would create a surplus, that you were fooling the people by under-estimating the returns and over-estimating the needs of the Commonwealth, and we say to you now that offhand it would be impossible for any citizen, be he a member of the General Assembly or not, to analyze a billion dollar budget in such short order.

I say that I agree with Governor Martin and Governor Duff, and all the governors, that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has been lax in its duties to its citizens in the mental hospitals.

Yes, if we had been elected, we should have had to put a program through for the mental hospitals, but we would have done it by the same method that we performed miracles during the depression years, that is, of creating in this Commonwealth a decent hospitalization plan for tuberculars; we would have passed a General State Authority Act and given unto the future citizens of Pennsylvania their share of the burden for carrying the cost of taking care of worthy citizens of this Commonwealth, just as they shall get the benefit of the money expended; they too should have to carry a certain share of the cost.

I noticed in the Governor's message today two other items which I think are very grave matters for the people of Pennsylvania. He says, and I quote from his own statement, "That there is a $5,000,000 appropriation necessary to the school teachers retirement fund" and he previously had made the statement that by paying off the bonds of the General State Authority we had saved $3,500,000 in interest charges. I ask any one of you how you could earn $3,500,000 interest on a $48,000,000 bond issue in a period of less than two years, and that is exactly what the Governor said, and it is contained in his message, but I tell the Senate, and I repeat again now that when this Senate deliberately destroyed the General State Authority, and when they paid off the bonds, I said to the Senate that was false economy, because we were taking the money from the school teachers retirement fund, because under the law of Pennsylvania those funds must be put out in interest-bearing bonds of three and one half per cent.

The bonds were General State Authority bonds that were held by the school teachers retirement fund and I said then that we, the people of Pennsylvania, would not save any money because we would have to make an appropriation to the school teachers retirement fund to take care of the money that was being denied them by paying off these bonds, and that is exactly what you do in the Governor's message.

I agree with the gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Tallman—yes, I went over the State of Pennsylvania and condemned conditions in mental hospitals and I say to you again that building buildings and setting up fences is not the entire answer to the mental institution program in this state. We must make a new approach to the answer, we must go to the very bottom of this thing and find out whether or not we are not de-emphasizing the cure and putting people into jail for a life sentence when we commit them to a mental institution. We have the lowest rate of cure in the United States, and I say that more money ought to be expended for cure and more money ought to be expended for medical attention in order to emphasize the cure. Buildings of stone and mortar will never take the place of human interest and a good solid heart towards those people.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, an honest confession is always good for the soul. Today we witnessed a demonstration such as never has been witnessed in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Governor of this Commonwealth, speaking to the General Assembly, in starting off his budget message, apologizes to the people of Pennsylvania. I say never before in this great Commonwealth has the Governor approached the General Assembly and apologized, not for what the Senate said, not for what House members may have said, but he told us very clearly that the people were writing to him and asking him what has happened to that great huge surplus they talked about throughout the campaign.

The gentleman from Lehigh says it comes in poor grace, but we have not made those remarks. He also pointed out that members on this side of the Senate have offered appropriation bills increasing salaries of school teachers and what not. I have offered a few bills, because up until this morning I have been under the impression that we had a $200,000,000 surplus; I had no thought that I would be called upon to ask for an increase in taxation, so out of that huge surplus I thought in my mind it could be possible to increase salaries of school teachers and other appropriations, to mental hospitals, state aided hospitals, without asking for any new taxes from the public of Pennsylvania.

The gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade, spoke of things coming in poor grace. This does not come with poor grace. I resent the statement he made about the Governor of Ohio. The gentleman from Cumberland knows how to pronounce his name but because he may be a Slovenian—I am one of them and I resent the fact that he tries to put a few “e’s” and “s’s” to it. That comes with poor grace, mighty poor grace.

All we hear is what we say comes with poor grace.

I rise in support of the resolution offered by my colleague from Westmoreland, Senator Dent. If the Republicans of this Commonwealth have no sins to confess, they will fear no resolution asking for investigation. Your sins always catch up to you, so, gentlemen, if you have any sins, let us determine once and for all whether we have $200,000,000 or whether you are fooling the people throughout the Commonwealth to catch votes.

If you are innocent you will vote for this resolution, but I tell you if you pickle this resolution and do not bring it out, you shall answer to the people of this Commonwealth for your conduct.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Finance.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

RESOLUTION No. 19.

In the House of Representatives, March 10, 1947.

Whereas, governmental personnel at all levels—particularly at the levels of state and federal governments—was drastically increased following the tragedy of Pearl Harbor and the entrance of the United States into the war, and

Whereas, it is now being proposed—and properly—that federal government personnel be purged and restored to a peacetime basis, and

Whereas, the responsible spokesman for the Republican Party in the United States Senate, the Honorable Robert H. Taft, has publicly stated his conviction that governmental personnel, at all levels, could be reduced by at least 10 per cent without affecting the efficiency of government, and

Whereas, it is essential in the interests of both economy and efficiency that not only federal governmental personnel, but the personnel of state government be reconverted to a peacetime basis, and

Whereas, there is an apparent absence of data as to whether the various departments, bureaus and commissions of the state government are from the standpoint of our peacetime economy understaffed or overstaffed, and

Whereas, a proper consideration of the Commonwealth's budgetary problems would require that such information should be readily available for the use of the members of this House in order that they might determine whether there has been any reconversion of state governmental personnel from a wartime to a peacetime basis, now therefore be it

Resolved, that all departments, boards, commissions, and agencies of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania employing personnel paid in whole or in part with state funds or paid in whole or in part with federal funds, submit the following data to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on or before April 7, 1947.

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR JAMES H. DUFF

GOVERNOR JAMES H. DUFF. Lieutenant Governor Strickler, Members of the General Assembly, the Budget and the Budget Message with the contained array of figures, supporting data and comparisons are now in your hands. Instead of reading them, I feel the only practical approach is to request that you read and study them. Meanwhile, with your permission, I will now avail myself of your attention by briefly emphasizing and interpreting the chief features as I see them.

During the war there was a rising tide of income whereby, despite a great cut in taxes, a large surplus was accumulated in Pennsylvania. At the top of this high tide, on May 31, 1945, that surplus amounted to $170,596,000.

That fund has been the subject of a vast amount of misinformation, misunderstanding, and confusion.

Therefore, I think it worth-while at the outset to take the time to clear the decks on that subject. I feel this is essential because I have received letters from people everywhere based on an entirely wrong understanding of what the surplus was and what has become of it. These letters for the most part contain requests for appropriations for various causes, all based upon the assumption that we have $170,000,000 and upwards stored somewhere here in Harrisburg under guard of the State Police, and available for distribution upon the meeting of the General Assembly. Moreover, I have been repeatedly advised by mail to give up all thought of new taxes and proceed at once to finance all the necessities of government for the next biennium out of these supposed great bulging bags of money.

By others I am asked: Was there ever any surplus; if there was, how big was it, and what has become of it?

I am, therefore, convinced that if we are to approach the analysis of our financial problems with a clear understanding, it is necessary to begin by thoroughly analyzing the surplus.

First off, then, there were surplus funds as of May 31, 1945, amounting to $170,596,000 as above stated.

Of this surplus, $57,250,000 was in the Motor Fund. It is still there right now, together with additional accumulations since that period. The Members of the General Assembly realize, although many of our citizens do not, that the moneys in the Motor Fund cannot be used for any purpose not connected with the highways; not even for the purchase of bridges. This may seem strange but nevertheless it is the law, and has been since the Constitution was amended two years ago by a vote of the people.

Next the sum of $48,870,240 of that surplus was used to pay off bonded indebtedness of the General State Authority in Pennsylvania. The payment of that public debt was prudent action. It is always wise to pay off interest-bearing debts when you have idle money in the bank which you do not expect to use for awhile. From the date those bonds were paid off until March first of this year the Commonwealth saved over $3,500,000.00 in interest charges, in addition to discharging the debt.

Deducting the aforesaid motor funds of $57,250,000 and the $48,870,240 used to pay off General Authority bonds, you have a total of $106,120,240, which must be deducted from the surplus in order to determine the amount of that fund then available for appropriation. Making that subtraction we find there was left the sum of $64,475,760. No amount of wizardry can change or successfully challenge that fact.

The next logical question, when examining the surplus is—Well, what became of the $64,475,760.00 that was left?

Here is the answer: $60,627,760 of that amount was in the General Fund, and $3,848,000 in Special Funds—chiefly in the Fish and Game Commission funds. The entire amount in the General Fund, to wit, $60,627,760, plus other available funds in the sum of $15,607,240, and amounting in all to $76,235,000, were appropriated in 1945 by the General Assembly and set apart and specified to be used exclusively in a postwar building, rehabilitation and conservation program.

This postwar building and conservation program was devised and carefully worked out by Governor Martin with the counsel and aid of a group of representative public-spirited citizens, from all walks of life, from various parts of the Commonwealth and without regard to party affiliation. The group was known as the Post-War Planning Commission. For a considerable part of the year 1945 and during all of the year 1946 these representative citizens gave unstintingly of their time, their energy and their ability, without compensation, to set up a long postponed and vitally needed construction, rehabilitation and conservation program in the Commonwealth.

This program was set up and intended to be carried forward in this postwar period. It envisions the replanting of forests; the conservation of soil; the freeing of streams from pollution; the betterment of the water in the streams from which domestic and industrial supplies are obtained; the desilting of the Schuylkill River; the establishment of recreational centers in both rural areas and congested centers of population; the acquisition and development of State parks and of historical localities; the examination and protection of the health of our children of school age; the enlargement of the facilities for the care of crippled children and of persons suffering from tuberculosis; and a construction program for the better care and treatment of the mentally ill, as well as a number of other needed and meritorious improvements.

So far as I have been able to ascertain, this was the first time in the whole history of the Commonwealth when any program for permanent betterment has been undertaken on a comprehensive scale. Nor was it begun too soon. Never before in the history of the Commonwealth has there been such an incredible use, misuse and exhaustion of our natural resources as in the past one-third century.

Now with the war over, with an inflated price structure, with an accumulated demand of old services, and for a wide range of new services of various kinds, with the necessity of providing increased salaries for those in the public service, and of forwarding a substantial program for the mentally ill, we are faced by the problem of providing large amounts of additional funds for the coming biennium.

It has been suggested that one easy way of substantially decreasing the amount of new money needed would be to cancel the postwar program and use those funds to provide the ordinary operating expenses of the Commonwealth in the coming biennium.

It is clear that if we are willing to scrap the postwar program and the plans which already have been prepared therefor, we can make available approximately $65,000,000 of the funds set apart for the purposes designated in those funds which still remain unexpended or uncommitted.

Therefore, the first question confronting you and requiring an answer is: Shall we scrap the postwar program to obtain funds for the ordinary uses of government for the coming biennium?

For my part I have no difficulty whatever in reaching a firm conclusion on that question. My conclusion is that it would be a tremendous mistake to do so. If we do not propose to start now on a permanent betterment program to make up for the great destruction and losses of the two war periods, when, if ever, will we begin?

The stock reply is "We are not against the program; we just don't want to start it now; we ought to wait for a more convenient season." Unfortunately that kind of attitude and that argument for delay has been responsible for our not getting anything done of this kind in the past. Heretofore it has always been the practice to put off such a program for a better time, and that time never came until at last it arrived in this postwar program. Now we are being urged to sabotage the program after it has actually been put into operation.

The postwar funds that have not been actually expended or committed amount to approximately $65,500,000. That is only 11% of the recommended General Fund budget for the next biennium. Don't forget that in the immediate future it will be necessary to finance the vast amount of money necessary for a soldiers' bonus. May I inquire, therefore, if we do not propose to go ahead now with the postwar program, when in the future does it appear, in view of our mounting problems, that we will ever get around to doing so?

The critical time for this postwar program is right now. In view of our past experiences in Pennsylvania, it looks to me as if it is either now or never. Now is the time for action, not for delay.

Therefore, I earnestly urge that you will permit the postwar setup to stand as it is, with the exception of $9,412,125, which I suggest be lapsed, the details of which are specified in the Budget Message, and the whole of this sum be added for the advancement of the mental health program which is so immediately needed and which is also a substantial part of the postwar program recommendation.

Now for a consideration of the recommended budget for the ensuing biennium. In broad outlines it shows total General Fund recommendations of 547 million dollars.

In this 1947-49 budget four classifications of General Fund expenditures take all but 84 of the 547 millions, as follows:

Education .....	$208,000,000
Welfare .....	100,000,000
Public Assistance .....	135,000,000
Health .....	20,000,000
All other functions .....	84,000,000
Total .....	$547,000,000

Education

Educational requirements occupy a large place in this budget. They aggregate 38 per cent of the entire General Fund recommendations as compared with only 23 per cent eight years ago. This 208 million dollars compares with 97 million dollars in the 1939-41 Budget, an increase of 111 million dollars.

The major item in the recommended appropriations for education is the appropriation for the support of public schools, which is used almost wholly for teachers' salaries. This item has been increasing as follows since 1939:

1941-43 biennium .....	70,000,000
1943-45 biennium .....	104,000,000
1945-47 biennium .....	125,000,000

In the coming biennium the total of the funds included in the Budget for the benefit of the teachers of the Commonwealth over the last biennium, and, therefore, provided for by new taxes in this Budget, shows an increase of $26,074,400—$5,074,400 of this sum being increases in payments to the Teachers' Retirement Fund.

Two of your most important and difficult problems will be the determination of what further increases are necessary in order to provide just and adequate compensation for the teachers of the Commonwealth; and to what extent these increases should be contributed by the Commonwealth and to what extent by the local levels of government. The payment of these salaries has not been and should not be entirely a responsibility of the central government at Harrisburg. So far as concerns the payment of a portion of this increase by the local communities, I think we all agree that real estate can no longer stand a larger share of the cost of local government. The fact is that real estate is already bearing, and for a considerable time has borne, more than its fair share of that cost. Therefore, it will be necessary to enable the local school districts to have the tax base enlarged in order to enable them to raise a share of the contribution of these increased salaries out of other sources than local real estate.

There is still unallocated in this budget the sum of 27 million dollars available for the Commonwealth's share of an increase of teachers' salaries, and for such other purposes as you may determine. The important thing to bear in mind is, that it is necessary, on account of increased living costs, to further increase the salaries of the teachers. Therefore, you should determine how much they should be increased, and in what proportion that increase should be borne by local levels of government and what proportion by the Commonwealth.

In this connection, for purposes of comparison, and to indicate the present trend, it is pertinent to call attention to the fact that eight years ago the Commonwealth paid 23 per cent of the cost of the public school system and on the basis of current recommendations, without the last specified increases, will be about 40 per cent next year. It is clear, therefore, that unless the Commonwealth is eventually to take over the whole costs of the public school system this trend must be arrested by having the local levels of government assume a part of the constantly increasing costs.

Mental Hospitals

In the forthcoming biennium it is imperatively necessary that a great advance be made in the mental health program. Action on this program can no longer be deferred. There is, therefore, set up in the Budget sufficient funds to make a general forward advance on all fronts in the mental hospital problem in Pennsylvania, both in construction and maintenance.

The difficulty of obtaining materials may make it impossible to complete this program during the course of this biennium, but it is imperative that the program be set up on a basis that it may proceed without any delay as fast as materials are available.

The funds for this construction program are provided as follows: by using 16 million dollars of current funds; by using 9 million dollars from postwar projects recommended to be repealed; by using 5 million dollars from a 1943 appropriation, and 14 million dollars from the 1945 postwar program set up for that purpose, and the final sum of 45 million dollars by bonds from the bond issue authorized by the voters a year ago. In this way the program can proceed without delay, and if the contracts cannot be let during the biennium the Commonwealth will suffer no loss of funds by reason of the fact that the bonds in question will not be sold until it is found that contracts can be let. This program contemplates a priority of procedure for the mental health institutions, sidetracking the present building program for penal institutions with the exception of 500 thousand dollars for a classification center at White Hill, which is urgently needed, and the funds for a maximum security prison in eastern Pennsylvania in order to move the Eastern State Penitentiary out of Philadelphia to a suitable location.

Public Assistance

The expenditures of State funds for public assistance have been running at the rate of 125 million a biennium in recent months. An appropriation of 135 million dollars has been recommended for the next biennium. This is a very slight margin of safety and will be quickly absorbed if a rising cost of living forces another change upward in the schedules, or an upsurge of unemployment forces any large number of people to seek assistance.

In addition to this tremendous sum it is sobering to reflect that the Federal Government is also contributing for the same cause in Pennsylvania approximately 50 million dollars a biennium. So that the total of these two sums, to wit, 185 million dollars, is being expended in the Commonwealth by the State and Federal Governments for assistance at a time when employment in the state, and in the nation generally, is at an all time high for times of peace.

A case by case check-up is being made by the Department of Public Assistance for the purpose of complete analysis of the cause of this gigantic expenditure in time of maximum peace time employment. The result of that analysis when complete will be made available to you.

Health

In the Department of Health recommendations have been made for a six million dollar increase over the last biennium, exclusive of the postwar building program. This additional health appropriation was necessitated by reason of the startling disclosures of the condition of public health in Pennsylvania as evidenced by the health examinations made among school children of the Commonwealth pursuant to the direction of the last General Assembly, and the further amazing disclosure of the poor condition of the public health as made by the announced figures of Selective Service during the war.

In the past biennium four million dollars was appropriated in the postwar fund to make examinations of children of school age in Pennsylvania. A recommendation is made that this appropriation for the coming biennium be increased to $7,800,000 in order that there may be established diagnostic health clinics, and that nurses be provided throughout the Commonwealth in order that the conditions disclosed by these examinations may not merely be recorded as a matter of factual data, but that the children suffering from the discovered illnesses might be provided for and directed into channels giving them the benefit of proper medical attention.

The enlarged budget recommended for this biennium also more than doubles appropriations for cancer research and rheumatic heart diseases.

In the budget an increase of 40 per cent has been recommended in the amount of the appropriation for state-aided hospitals on account of the rapid increase in current price levels.

The pollution of the streams of Pennsylvania is one of the number one health hazards of the Commonwealth by reason of the fact that eight out of every ten residents of the Commonwealth now are obliged to drink water obtained from heavily polluted streams. In line with the policy of the Commonwealth to free these streams from pollution the appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters has been increased in order to make continued advancement of this program possible.

There is also set up an additional appropriation of five million dollars as part of the State's obligation in the work of removing the silt from the Schuylkill River. I have recommended that five million dollars appropriation for this important work be made out of the fifty million dollar bond issue authorized by public approval.

There is also recommended an appropriation of ten million dollars out of current funds for the purpose of building dams to prevent the constantly recurring damage from flash floods in many parts of Pennsylvania, and to conserve supplies of good water during the rainy season for the building up of a supply of good water for domestic use during the dry season, and as an aid to fishing, recreation and other water sports of the Commonwealth.

Such a program has been promised the people of Pennsylvania for generations, and it is decidedly in the public interest that this plan be put into effect. I am, therefore, recommending this appropriation be initiated during the current biennium.

Agriculture

The budget provides for a substantial increase of funds to strengthen the work of the Department of Agriculture. These increased funds will help to make possible the elimination of the Gypsy Moth, the stamping out of the potato wart disease, increasing the control of Bangs disease, better control of rabbies, improving marketing facilities and grading farm products, better supervision of farm vegetable seeds, and by increasing the land resources of the Commonwealth by materially enlarging the research program.

Soldiers' Bonus

Those serving in the armed forces of the Commonwealth during the war have been promised a fair and liberal bonus. Whatever legislation is necessary to put that program into operation should receive the prompt and earnest attention of the General Assembly, bearing in mind that enabling legislation is necessary in this session in order to comply with the Constitutional provisions relating to an increase of indebtedness.

The program as outlined, exclusive of the soldiers' bonus, will require 133 million dollars of new funds. It is suggested that these funds be raised as follows:

1. Enact necessary legislation to exclude the carry-back, carry-forward of losses in levying the corporate net income taxes	$20,000,000
2. Increase cigarette taxes one cent	19,000,000
3. Increase tax on malt beverages $\frac{1}{2}$ cent per pint	22,000,000
4. Tax on soft drinks	38,000,000

5. Cigars and tobacco .....	10,000,000
6. Postpone during current biennium manu- facturers exemption from capital stock tax .....	24,000,000

The foregoing taxes are taxes on items that are not in any sense necessities of living. It is necessary to bear in mind in preparing any tax program that that program must be prepared with reference to the very heavy increase of taxes that will shortly be necessary in the Commonwealth when the soldiers' bonus legislation becomes law.

One thing it is necessary to keep repeating constantly. That is if the public and various organized groups insist on a constantly widening and enlarging variety of public service, this service can only be had by a constantly widening variety of new taxes. It is still as true now as ever that it is impossible to get new services without paying for them. In the final analysis the public foots the bill.

In conclusion, I think it is necessary to say that all the various tax programs confronting the people of Pennsylvania, and the other States in the Union, cannot be solved alone at Harrisburg, at Washington and at the various state capitals throughout the Nation; they must also be solved at the local levels of government by the thinking of the people back home, and by their appreciation of and participation in at first hand the various items that go into the making of this constantly mounting expense of government.

This message is a Budget Message and, therefore, by its terms is restricted to the consideration of financial problems.

However, in order not to be misunderstood in any quarter, I would like to reiterate what I said in my Inaugural Address. During the past campaign a wide range of specific promises and recommendations were made to the voters of the Commonwealth. It is definitely my idea that those promises are as valid now as when made, and should be carried out in the current session of the General Assembly.

The PRESIDENT. Governor Duff, in behalf of the Members of the General Assembly I want to thank you for your splendid message.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, Article III, Section 33, which requires Members to disclose their personal interest, I would like a ruling by the Chair as to whether or not by virtue of the fact that I hold the position of Justice of the Peace in the Borough of Aspinwall, County of Allegheny, I have a personal interest.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would rule on the inquiry of the gentleman from Allegheny, by reading from Article III, Section 33 of the Constitution, which says,

"A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the General Assembly shall disclose the fact to the House of which he is a member and shall not vote thereon."

Upon examination of the court decisions and opinions we find that where the matter under consideration affects a cause rather than individuals, personal interest belongs to that cause and is not such as to disqualify a Member from voting.

Therefore the gentleman serving in the office of Justice of the Peace is in the class of all other members of the profession of Justice of the Peace in the Commonwealth and should not be barred from voting on the question.

Mr. FLEMING. I thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am not voicing a party position in rising to oppose this bill. As far as I know, every other member of the Democratic caucus may be for it. I presume it is a Republican measure, otherwise it would not be on the calendar.

This measure has the same effect as a tax measure. It is a levy upon the resources of the people and it is a tax upon the indigent, the poor and the unfortunate. Those Members of this House who are lawyers know the class of cases that come before Justices of the Peace and Aldermen. They are not the fortunate, they are the people who are in trouble, they are the poor, and every other Member of this House who is a lawyer knows from his practice that in far too many instances aldermen and constables batten upon the miseries of the unfortunate.

I have been told if this bill is not passed that some aldermen may starve to death. Well, most of the aldermen I know could not starve to death too soon to suit me. Instead of perpetuating the vicious peoples' courts at the lower level, this House should be considering measures to establish a responsible judiciary, minor judiciary, before which honorable lawyers would not be ashamed to practice.

In Cambria County instead of having a multitude of Justices of the Peace and Aldermen we ought to have about five inferior courts manned, if you please, by lawyers, persons learned in the law, who could serve as justices, as judges of these minor courts, at not a great salary, and you would redeem the whole situation. In far too many instances, gentlemen of the House, there is no difference between a jackal and a lot of constables. You know it, the lawyers know it. They know that many of these courts outrage justice and operate simply for the purpose of increasing the emoluments of the Justice of the Peace. We have several Justices of the Peace in my town, whose takings, whose earnings and whose pilferings exceed the earnings of any lawyer at our Bar.

So, Mr. Speaker, while I am quite confident that this bill would not be reported out if it was not intended to pass, nevertheless, I cannot refrain from voicing my personal position, which I again say is not the position taken by my party.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state it.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, when a Member of the House submits to the Chair his reason for voting against a bill in writing, is it possible for him in one statement to give his reason for voting against two bills?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has a perfect right to file his reasons for voting against a bill or bills. However, the Chair would recommend that under good procedure and good practice it would probably be well to file, immediately following the vote on a particular bill, his reason for voting for or against such a measure.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, would the Chair say it is necessary, even though the reasons are the same for both bills?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would not say it was necessary.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I just did not want to take the time of the House to offer separate statements containing the same reasons.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will accept the gentleman's reasons for voting for or against both of these measures at this time.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. CHUDOFF filed the following reason for his vote on House Bill No. 92.

These bills would increase the costs of the people who find it necessary to use the courts of Justice of the Peace and Alderman. It has always been my personal feeling that any legislation making it more expensive to use any of the courts of the Commonwealth should not be passed.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 93, as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. CHUDOFF filed the following reason for his vote on House Bill No. 93.

These bills would increase the costs of the people who find it necessary to use the courts of Justice of the Peace and Alderman. It has always been my personal feeling that any legislation making it more expensive to use any of the courts of the Commonwealth should not be passed.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 346, as follows:

An Act to validate the title to real estate for which a deed or transfer was properly executed and recorded without containing a certificate setting forth the residence of the grantee

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 When any real estate or interest in real estate has heretofore been conveyed or transferred to any person and the deed or transfer therefor properly executed and recorded in the office of the proper recorder of deeds without containing a certificate setting forth the precise residence of the grantee as required by law such deed or transfer is hereby validated and the title to such real estate or interest so conveyed or transferred is hereby declared good and valid notwithstanding such omission

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, prayer was offered by the Reverend ROWLAND R. LEHMAN, D.D., District Superintendent of the Methodist Church.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, lift up us in this hour the light of Thy Holy countenance. Increase our faith and our hope in Thee. Give unto us always the consciousness of that peace which Thou alone canst give.

Grant this day unto these, who legislate for our Commonwealth, the strength and guidance which they need to safeguard the liberties and opportunities of our people. Make them wise and prudent as they give themselves to the duties which await them. Enable them to rise above self-seeking or party zeal to the larger sentiments of public good and human brotherhood.

Direct the citizens of this Commonwealth and of our Nation that they may fortify themselves for courageous living in these days. May we lay aside selfishness, jealousy, greed, bigotry and all clashes of various interests which are materialistic and hold close to ourselves the eternal truth of our Christian faith. May Thou Holy Spirit direct us this day and every day, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, on February 11, Governor Duff set aside the 16th day of February, 1947, as the date to commemorate the 29th Anniversary of the independence of Lithuania.

On March 2, 1947, at a huge meeting of citizens of Lithuania and descendants by birth, in Shenandoah, Pennsylvania, a resolution was adopted expressing gratitude to the Commonwealth and the Governor for recognizing and encouraging these courageous people who are striving for liberty and justice.

Mr. President, I have a copy of that resolution, and I ask unanimous consent to have it inserted in the Legislative Journal.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objection, the resolution will be inserted in the Journal.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, James Duff, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by a public release dated February 11, 1947, decreed the observation of February 16, 1947, as a date commemorating the twenty-ninth anniversary of the independence of Lithuania; and

Whereas, the Governor of Pennsylvania, in said statement, set a guiding light to "look forward to a new Day of Independence when Lithuania will be restored to her rightful free and independent place among the Nations of the earth"; and

Whereas, the Governor of our Commonwealth has set a standard and norm for all those who are interested in the cause of freedom and justice and to labor for its achievement; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, loyal citizens of the United States, of Lithuanian birth or descent, residents of the Borough of Shenandoah, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, meeting at the Shenandoah High School this second day of March A. Attest:

ANTHONY STANISKIS, Chairman.
LEONARD J. CHAIKOWSKY, Secretary.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have in my hand a resolution sent to me by the McGrail-Coyne Post No. 223, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, in which they ask that the state of Pennsylvania legalize horse racing in the state, on the pari-mutuel betting system.

In this resolution they mention neighboring states who have horse racing, and in the resolution they state that it is a known fact that much of their revenue is derived from patron visitors from the state of Pennsylvania, who visit their respective tracks.

They conclude by saying that this revenue should be ear marked for the benefit of the ex-service men of the state of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of welfare and the payment of the bonus.

Mr. President, I am not going to take the time of the Senate to read the entire resolution, but I would like to have it spread on the record as they have requested.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objections, it will be inserted in the Journal.

Fellow Citizens of Pennsylvania:

Be It Known: That McGrail-Coyne Post No. 223, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, assembled at a regular meeting in Memorial Hall, January 23, 1947, unanimously adopted the following resolution, and urged that said resolution be formally presented to our State Senator, Honorable Joseph M. Barr, for his indorsement, and also, for him to personally present our wishes to the august body of Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania for their just consideration.

Whereas: There has been considerable effort and time spent on the question of a Bonus for those who served in World War Two, and

Whereas: Various State Officials have seen fit to leave the preparation and presentation of a plan for a Bonus, and the payment thereof, up to themselves;

Whereas: It appears that such plan has now been prepared by representatives of various soldier organizations;

Whereas: Said plan seems just and equitable, at this time; and

Whereas: It appears necessary, for the payment of same, to float high bond issues that will not mature for many years; and,

Whereas: It is not the wish or desire, of any veteran, to saddle the people of our State with such a terrific burden; and

Whereas: Veterans of World War Two, and all other soldiers of the State who served in past wars, will be, from time to time, in need of assistance; and,

Whereas: A better plan can be worked out for the payment of said Bonus and all other needs of veterans of this Commonwealth.

Therefore: Be It Resolved, by McGrail-Coyne Post No. 223, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, that the following plan for a source of revenue, for all veterans, be adopted.

Request: That the State of Pennsylvania legalize Horse-racing in the State, on the Pari-Mutuel Betting System; as,

The following neighboring States, namely: Ohio, West Virginia, Delaware, New Jersey, New York and Maryland, have this form of revenue, and it is a known fact, that much of their revenue is derived from patron visitors from the State of Pennsylvania, who visit their respective tracks.

Further: That this revenue should be ear-marked for the benefit of Ex-servicemen of the State of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of Welfare and the payment of the Bonus.

Therefore, I hereunto place my hand and seal,

STEPHEN P. LAFFEY, Commander,
McGrail-Coyne Post No. 223 V.F.W.

Attest:

CHARLES P. HARRIS, Quartermaster,
McGrail-Coyne Post No. 223 V.F.W.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, several weeks ago I offered a resolution which if adopted would have required the Department of Labor and Industry to make a thorough investigation of the open hearth department of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation, Aliquippa, Pa.

I feel the same today as I felt on February 18th when I introduced that resolution. I am not angry at anyone, I have no axe to grind.

Immediately after adjournment on that day, one of my colleagues from the other side raised an objection to the phraseology of that resolution, and he informed me at that time that during his life time he had been engaged in approximately thirty thousand workmen's compensation claims, and that on many occasions he ministered to persons who were injured, and that he had called doctors, preachers and undertakers to bury the dead. What I hoped to do in that resolution was to postpone the calling of doctors, preachers and undertakers to minister to the injured and bury the dead.

I understand that the Committee on Labor and Industry met yesterday and gave this resolution some consideration, but again objection was raised to the phraseology.

Now, Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, I have a new resolution prepared and I have tried to remove the objections that were raised yesterday, and were raised immediately after the presentation of my first resolution.

I am going to offer this resolution in the hope that this continuous gamble that goes on daily between lives and dollars will some day come to an end.

Mr. President, I offer the following resolution without moving for its immediate adoption.

REQUESTING DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION OF THE OPEN HEARTH DEPARTMENT OF THE ALIQUIPPA PLANT, JONES AND LAUGHLIN STEEL CORPORATION

Mr. KLEIN offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Labor and Industry:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 12, 1947.

Whereas, The Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation is engaged in the manufacture of steel and steel products in Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The Aliquippa plant of said corporation employs approximately ten thousand men and women; and

Whereas, It is alleged the work of many of these employes, particularly in the open hearth department, is of a hazardous nature and hence their lives are in constant danger; and

Whereas, It is alleged the said Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation has failed to provide the necessary safety measures and the proper equipment to assure these employes a reasonable degree of safety; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania request the Department of Labor and Industry to make a thorough and complete investigation of the open hearth department of the Aliquippa plant, Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania desires that, on completion of such investigation, the Department of Labor and Industry, if it finds conditions unsafe for the said employes, shall instruct the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation to provide the necessary safety measures at its Aliquippa plant so that its employes are free from danger and hazardous working conditions.

NAYS—0

in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 296, as follows:

An Act relating to the incidents of legal and equitable interests in real and personal property, including the validity thereof, the powers, rights, and duties of persons with respect thereto, and the disposition of interests which fail, and containing provisions concerning termination of trusts, releases and disclaimers of powers and interests, perpetuities, accumulations, charitable estates, rights of a surviving spouse in property as to which the decedent has retained certain powers, spendthrift trusts, limited estates in property, rules of interpretation, estates pur autre vie, estates in fee tail, and the Rule in Shelley's Case.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill go over in order.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection this bill will go over in order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that this bill should go over in order without a little more light on the bill. For a great many years, Mr. Speaker, at every session of our General Assembly some young lawyer has risen to explain the rule in Shelley's Case. I have listened to the explanation of the rule in Shelley's case on nine different occasions. I have never heard any lawyer explain the rule in the Shelley case as it has been explained by some other lawyer, and I think before this bill goes to a vote the sponsors of this bill should both be required, just to display their legal knowledge, to explain the rule in Shelley's case.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, that was the object in asking that the bill go over in order, in order that Mr. Brown from Allegheny, who is an expert on the rule on Shelley's case, and Mr. Lee from Philadelphia and Mr. Readinger might have a chance to explain it to the House on Monday.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Venango, Mr. McKinney.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Venango permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McKINNEY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, just for the sake of the record, lest some inference be taken from the gentleman's remarks which I do not think he meant, and I hope he didn't mean,—I would like to ask the gentleman if he did mean that Mr. Lee and Mr. Readinger were not experts.

Mr. McKINNEY. I meant they all were, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. The gentleman said Mr. Brown, the expert, and then he mentioned the other two.

Mr. McKINNEY. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. GREENWOOD and DENNISON.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 22.

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1947.

Whereas, no revisions of the Vehicle Code and the Tractor Code of this Commonwealth have been made since 1929, but frequent amendments have been made and laws on subjects related thereto have been enacted, which render these laws difficult of apprehension and uncertain in their application and effect, and

Whereas, the expected improvement and expansion of State highways coupled with the expected high production of motor vehicles and tractors and the resultant increase in travel and in the use of tractors which will result therefrom, create an immediate and pressing need to revise, modernize and clarify the Motor Vehicle Code, the Tractor Code, and laws on related subjects; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that the Joint State Government Commission is hereby requested, during the interim between the present session of the General Assembly and the regular biennial session of 1949, to study, revise, and prepare for reenactment the Vehicle Code, the Tractor Code, together with all their amendments and all separate laws that should properly be incorporated therein, and to present them for the consideration of the General Assembly at its next session.

Referred to the Committee on Motor Vehicles.

By Mr. LAYER.

RESOLUTION No. 23.

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1947.

In every community of the Commonwealth there are times when the problem of juvenile delinquency makes headlines, to the distress of individual families, their children, and the community as a whole.

It is contended, with good reason, by FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover, and others, that juvenile delinquency actually should be called "parental," or "adult" delinquency.

There are few among us who, in complete honesty, can claim that we are completely fulfilling our responsibilities to our children, and to the children of our communities.

Within recent months, in the Borough of Marcus Hook,

Delaware County, there has been organized a "Juvenile Opportunity Club," which has as its purpose the aim implied by its title—to give greater opportunity to the youth of the community.

In co-operation with the local police, the Juvenile Opportunity Club has set up its own "court," with judges, attorneys, and juries before which boys who have misbehaved are brought for "trial." Ten days ago, the club further organized a "Junior Police Force" of fifty-one members.

Sponsored by Amvets Post No. 43, and sparked by Charles Imburgia, a Marine veteran of Pacific battles, the Juvenile Opportunity Club of Marcus Hook has attracted the attention and has won the enthusiastic co-operation of parents, school, police and public officers, as well as the judges of the Delaware County Courts, for the sound, practical steps it is taking to provide opportunities for the youth of the community to become responsible, stable members of society.

Since the inception of the club, the supervising principal, teachers and janitors of the borough schools, as well as the regular police officers of the community, testify that there has been marked improvement in the behavior of youth in the community. It is reported that only one case out of many tried by the "court" has been serious enough to be referred to regular police courts. A commendation recently was received from FBI Chief Hoover; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that commendation is due to the American Veterans of World War II, Marcus Hook Post 43, and to Charles Imburgia, chairman of its Juvenile Delinquency Committee, for their contribution to the betterment of juveniles and for setting an example in guiding youth which can be followed with profit by every community in the Commonwealth.

RESOLUTION No. 25.

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1947.

Whereas, Never before in the history of the Nation or the Commonwealth has there been a greater need for the positive expression of religious precepts to lead the way in the establishment of a permanent and lasting peace; and

Whereas, Good Friday represents to all Christian people throughout the world, the supreme sacrifice of the Son of God on behalf of the fellowship of man; and

Whereas, It behooves all Christian people to express by appropriate services the deep and holy significance of Good Friday; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania take cognizance of the observance of Good Friday as a Holy Day of the deepest significance, and that it respectfully requests the Governor to issue a Proclamation urging the people of the Commonwealth to observe Good Friday by attending the churches of their choosing and otherwise observing Good Friday in a religious and spiritual manner.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. GREENWOOD.

RESOLUTION No. 26.

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1947.

Whereas, On the highways of all the states of the United States, the amount of interstate vehicular traffic is increasing, adding to the existing intrastate traffic safety problem additional difficulties, accidents, and fatalities; and

Whereas, The intrinsic hazards of operating motor vehicles on public highways are increased by strange terrain, unfamiliar traffic signs, signals and markings and ignorance of extrastate traffic regulations; and

Whereas, The need for securing a uniform system of traffic signals, signs, and markings and traffic regulations governing operation of vehicles has long been recognized by the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety, the Fourth Conference of which adopted and published in November one thousand nine hundred thirty-five a uniform system of traffic signs, signals, and markings, which system has been approved in this Commonwealth by the Act of June five, one thousand one hundred thirty-seven, Pamphlet Laws one thousand seven hundred eighteen, which amended the appropriate sections of the Vehicle Code of one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine; and

Whereas, A uniform system of traffic regulations governing the operation of vehicles in all states is equally necessary; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws be urged to examine the subject of uniform traffic signals, signs, and markings, and uniform traffic regulations governing operation of vehicles and rules of the road and to promote at the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws the drafting and adoption by the National Conference of an act or acts to make uniform traffic signals, signs, markings and traffic regulations governing operation of vehicles and rules of the road; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to each member of the Board of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and to the presiding officer of the National Conference on Uniform State Laws.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, prayer was offered by the Senator from Berks, Mr. RUTH.

Almighty God our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast permitted us to come together again to take up the work for our people whom we represent here, and we pray that Thy spirit will guide us to do the work so that all in all our state shall be benefited by our labors.

We pray also that Thou wilt let Thy spirit guide the leaders of the world, as the world is facing a new crisis, that they may be guided to so direct affairs that peace and human brotherhood shall become the essential goal of all nations, that the great message that Thou has brought to us through the centuries may be put into action, that men everywhere shall look upon one another as brothers, and shall recognize Thee as the only true God. We ask it in Thy Holy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. TALLMAN and Mr. FRAZIER, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

RESIGNATION OF WELDON B. HEYBURN AS PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, some weeks ago this honorable body elected me as its President pro tempore. This was made necessary, Mr. President, due to the fact that the man who had been selected by the majority party to fill this exalted position had been stricken with serious illness caused by an automobile accident.

It was my unpleasant duty, Mr. President, to visit the hospital on the day of our caucus and I saw in that hospital a very ill man; the stout heart was there and the happy pleasing personality was there, and now, Mr. President, a kindly providence has returned him to us to give further service in this great legislative body.

Ordinarily one resigning from such a high and exalted position would be rather loathe to do so, but in this case, Mr. President, I am extremely happy, because it means that my great and good friend, M. Harvey Taylor, is back here to assume his rightful position and to receive the honor of which he is so richly deserving.

Therefore, Mr. President, I send to the Chair a letter which I request the Clerk to read.

The Clerk read the letter as follows:

"OFFICE OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

"Weldon B. Heyburn,
Pres. Pro Tempore

"SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

March 17, 1947

"To the Honorable, the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

"During the history-making 1945 session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the President pro tempore of the Senate was Senator Harvey M. Taylor, of Dauphin County. His great leadership and guidance was a memorable chapter in the annals of this deliberative body. When the majority of the Senate held its reorganization caucus last December, preparatory to beginning the current session, the distinguished Senator from Dauphin County was again selected and nominated by his colleagues to assume the leadership as President Pro Tempore.

"I presided over that meeting and carried the notification of this honor to Senator Taylor at the hospital where he lay seriously stricken with illness as the result of an automobile accident. When the General Assembly convened Senator Taylor was still critically ill and unable to assume his duties. In his absence I was elevated by my fellow colleagues of the Senate by election as President Pro Tempore.

"It was a profound honor to me to have been so selected and elected and to carry on in the absence of the able and brilliant Senator from Dauphin County.

"Now my great and good personal friend has been, through the grace of God, restored to good health after that terrible period of illness which took him so close to the valley of the shadow. We of the Senate thank the Merciful Provider that he has been sent back to us in health and strength to give us the benefit not only of his enthusiastic, cheerful and smiling personality, but his competent and forthright leadership.

"The time has now come for him to again take over the reins of leadership, and to make that possible, it becomes my honor and privilege to resign, as President Pro Tempore of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, effective immediately.

"In submitting my letter of resignation to the Chair I take this opportunity to tell each and every member of this great deliberative body how proud and grateful I am to have had the honor and privilege to have served you as president pro tempore and to tell you how much your wholehearted support has meant to me personally."

Respectfully submitted,

WBH:R

WELDON B. HEYBURN

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I understand that it is necessary that someone move that the resignation of Senator Heyburn be accepted, in view of the fact that he was elected to the office of President Pro Tempore by this body.

Before I make that motion, Mr. President, I am certain that I reflect the thinking of the men on both sides of this body when I say that Senator Heyburn, during the period of time in which he has served as President pro tempore of the Senate, has done so with fairness, with great ability and certainly with great credit to himself. I am certain that I reflect, too, the wishes of every man in this Senate when I say that he has our good regard, and kindly feelings and a great deal of affectionate warmth from all of us for having done such a credibly fine job.

And so, Mr. President, I reluctantly move that the resignation of the gentleman from Delaware be accepted but certainly that it be accepted with a full understanding of the situation, and also with the keen happiness with which we all welcome Senator Taylor back.

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

A voice vote having been taken, the Chair announced that the resignation of Weldon B. Heyburn as President pro tempore of the Senate was accepted with deep regret.

NOMINATIONS FOR PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, in presenting to the Senate the choice of the Republican Caucus to fill the high office of President pro tempore of this body, I derive a great deal of pleasure in presenting a man who typifies the sort of thing that has made this country what it is.

I am about to put into nomination, Mr. President, one who was born in this town a few years ago, worked here, Mr. President, in the factories, later served in this very chamber as a page boy, and now, Mr. President, is about to be elected to the high office of President pro tempore of this body.

To me that clearly indicates, Mr. President, that America truly was and still is a great land of opportunity, and that it is our job, a big job in all great legislative bodies, Mr. President, to forever keep it so.

I am the possessor of complete happiness at this moment, Mr. President, when I place in nomination the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor, Senator from Dauphin county, for the office of President pro tempore of the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I take pleasure in seconding the nomination of Senator M. Harvey Taylor for the office of President pro tempore.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any other nominations

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it is my privilege and pleasure to nominate for the office of President pro tempore a man who is a credit to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania and, furthermore, a credit to the people of Pennsylvania, a man who has served in this august body for a number of years with honesty and fidelity. He happens to be our Democratic Floor Leader.

I therefore place in nomination, Mr. President, for the office of President pro tempore, the name of John H. Dent from Westmoreland County.

Mr. BARR. I am very happy, Mr. President, to second the nomination of Senator John Dent for the office of President pro tempore.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any further nominations?

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that nominations for President pro tempore of the Senate be closed.

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. On the election of the President pro tempore the Chief Clerk will call the roll, and the clerks of the Senate will act as tellers. The candidates are the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor, of Dauphin County, and the Honorable John H. Dent, of Westmoreland County.

The roll was called and resulted as follows:

FOR MR. TAYLOR—31

Becker,	Doehla,	Letzler,	Tyler,
Berger,	Farrell,	Lord,	Wade,
Blass,	Frazier,	Mahany,	Wagner,
Carr,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Watson,
Chapman,	Hare,	Scarlett,	Wilson,
Crider,	Heyburn,	Snowden,	Wolfe,
Crowe,	Homsher,	Stevenson,	Wood, L. H.,
Dent,	Kephart,	Tallman,

FOR MR. DENT—13

Barr,	Klein,	Rahausen,	Tarr,
Haluska,	Lane,	Ruth,	Taylor,
Holland,	Leader,	Stiefel,	Woodring,
Jaspan,

The PRESIDENT. The clerks agree in their tally and the results show that the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor received 31 votes and the Honorable John H. Dent received 13 votes. The Chair declares the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor elected President pro tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE MADE UNANIMOUS

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move at this time that the vote by which the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor was elected President pro tempore of the Senate be made unanimous.

Mr. JASPAN. I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ESCORT PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR TO THE ROSTRUM

The PRESIDENT. The Chair appoints the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Tallman, and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, as a committee to escort the Honorable President pro tempore-elect to the rostrum to take the oath of office.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH TO PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDENT. The oath of office will be administered to the newly elected President pro tempore by the Honorable J. Paul Rupp, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County.

The oath of office was accordingly administered.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair now has the honor of presenting to the Senate the President pro tempore, the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor of Dauphin County.

REMARKS OF ACCEPTANCE BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE, M. HARVEY TAYLOR

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President and gentleman of the Senate, you know, this is a funny experience to me. I am not going to say it is a surprise because it is not—I fully expected it. I do want to say the only time I ever vote for a Democrat is when I am in the Senate. I have twice voted for a Democratic candidate for President pro tempore; it was a pleasure to vote for you, John, especially when I was sure I was going to win.

But, gentlemen, words are very futile at a time like this, I am not going to talk about not deserving the honor—I know I do not and you know I do not—but I do appreciate it.

I want to say to you, Senator Heyburn, you have again proven to me that you are a real sportsman and a real gentleman and if ever I can return the compliment in any way I am yours to command.

Mr. JASPAN. In 1951.

Mr. TAYLOR. Well, you told me you would like to vote for me but you did not want to break away from your caucus. Another Democrat told me that today; he said, "I would like to vote for you but I feel I must stick to my caucus." So I feel I have friends on both sides.

I had a very thorough examination Saturday and the doctor said to me, "the only thing you have to be careful about is resistance." Well, I am starting resistance right now—when I accepted this honor I knew that. I want to say to you that I am a pretty fortunate fellow. I jumped out of the way of an automobile and fell into a concrete sewer, I would call it, and fractured my knee. I did not know I had fractured it and tried to walk around and then, I do not know how you say this, but anyway I had an embolism or something. You know about these blood clots—so many people are supposed to die of heart disease but ninety-nine per cent of them die of blood clots, I found out since I have been in the hospital—they were reporting every day somebody dying from blood clots, and of course that built me up a lot.

But I was very fortunate, and I am very fortunate today, and I want to say to you I appreciate this honor and I will give you the best I have and as long as I live I will remember this occasion.

And as long as I live I am going to remember you, Senator Heyburn, for being a real fellow. Thank you.

The PRESIDENT. At this time the Chair would like to express to Senator Heyburn his appreciation for the valuable services which he has rendered during his term of office as President pro tempore of the Senate, and particularly for the splendid cooperation and help he has given to the Chair.

The Chair also wants to say he is looking forward to pleasant association and valuable experience with Senator Taylor.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and members of the Senate, last week the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, and I introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of the Liquor Control Board.

Since that time the Governor has submitted his budget message to us, and I say that his message alone would warrant this investigation, because several weeks ago there was put on our desks a report of the committee headed by Senator Heyburn and Senator Tallman on the part of the Senate, comprising a sketch of the financial situation of the state of Pennsylvania, and in this report it was noted that with the new raise in the prices of liquor in Pennsylvania, when they have taken the forty-eight per cent mark-up on this extra $5.00 excise tax, that it was going to bring to the state of Pennsylvania $40,000,000 more in the next biennium. Ten days later the Governor submitted his budget to us and his figures call for the Liquor Control Board to produce $5,000,000 less in revenue than in the last biennium.

I for one contend that I think the Governor is correct, because in my part of the country, in western Pennsylvania, in any one's home you go in now, you drink Ohio or West Virginia whiskey.

At the moment I want to read an editorial which appeared in this morning's Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, the caption of which was "Top Liquor Prices." The editorial reads as follows:

"Pennsylvanians may note with concern that they are charged more for whiskey than the residents of any other monopoly state except Utah.

"Prices in Ohio and West Virginia, neighboring monopoly states, are considerably lower than those in Pennsylvania, as are those in the adjacent open license states of New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland.

"We look upon this situation with some alarm not because we wish to promote greater liquor sales in Pennsylvania but because it can lead to serious abuses.

"When liquor can be made for 16 cents per one-fifth gallon and is retailed in Pennsylvania stores for prices averaging $5.13, the temptation to moonshiners and interstate rum runners may prove irresistible.

"A special legislative committee should study this situation and make appropriate recommendations."

The Pittsburgh Press, in commenting on the figures which were sent to us by the Pennsylvania Alcoholic Beverage Study, Inc., opened their article in the paper by saying that a bottle of whiskey costs more in Pennsylvania than in any other state except Utah. The average cost of sixteen brands in a wide range is $5.13 a fifth in Pennsylvania against a monopoly state average of $4.50. It is ninety-three cents higher here than the average in Ohio.

Mr. President and members of the Senate, I think that something should be done in regard to the merchandising of liquor in our state. I do not blame the governmental end of the Commonwealth for trying to get money for necessary things that are done, but I do not think it should be done to the detriment of the people of Pennsylvania, and also to the point of encouraging rum-runners and whiskey bootleggers from the neighboring states of Ohio and West Virginia, near where I live.

One other thing I noticed in the budget was the Department of Commerce. Salaries and expenses for the biennium 1945-47 were $280,000, and now recommended for the same department for salaries and expenses is the sum of $950,000. Mr. President and members of the Senate, that is a $670,000 increase. You know and I know that the Department of Commerce has been a political dumping ground for the last two administrations.

This to me is the most brazen piece of bugetary work I have ever seen in my life.

They have been raising their bugetary requirements and I would like to offer to them a suggestion where they can do something that may be of some help to the people of this Commonwealth. Liquor stores are a blight in every block where they are located; they detract from the real estate value of every other business in the block. I would suggest to them that they brighten these windows and let the Department of Commerce do it, if they do not want to display the brands they are selling from behind the counter with some sort of display advertising national parks or state parks or some of our resources, and so forth, here in Pennsylvania.

If that whiskey is to be sold and the Commonwealth is in the business, I for one think the bottles should be put in the window, but I know that a gentlemen like Mr. Gelder, Chairman of the Liquor Control Board, who is a dry himself, would not sanction that. He is one who has always fought against it, and my voice is futile as against the dictatorial powers he has in the Liquor Control Board.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I do not know whether I understood the distinguished Senator from Allegheny properly or not, but I understood him to say the Governor in his budget message stated there would be $5,000,000 less profit from the liquor stores than there was in the last biennium.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, for the next biennium the profit would be $5,000,000 less than was estimated for the present biennium, 1945-1947. I think you will find it on page 50.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, may the Senate be at ease.

(The Senate was at ease.)

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HEYBURN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, a short time ago the distinguished Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, raised a question as to the estimated liquor store profits being $5,000,000 less in the coming biennium than in the present biennium. For the moment I could not get my hands on the figures but, the explanation for that is this: the original estimate for the biennium was $55,000,000; that is the present biennium; there is $12,000,000 profit there in the mark-up in prices between January 1 of this year and the end of the biennium, the end of May; there also was $20,000,000 accumulated surplus in the liquor store account, Mr. President, which makes $87,000,000 total actual estimated income for this biennium.

Of course, in the next biennium there will not be any $20,000,000 surplus, and therefore the estimate for the next biennium is $82,800,000.

That is the explanation of the decline of $5,000,000 in the estimate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am glad this is before dinner and not afterward. I may be confused a little but my recollection of the report by the committee studying the fiscal problems of the Commonwealth gave an estimate of $40,000,000 additional income from the Liquor Control Board's business in Pennsylvania for the next biennium. Added to the actual income from 1945 to 1947, there was $87,300,000 odd. If that figure were true, then the Governor's estimate is not only $5,000,000 less than the amount but is approximately $45,000,000 less than the fiscal committee estimated there would be in the Liquor Control Board fund at the end of the biennium.

When we are dealing in millions we might as well get down to brass tacks. The estimate from 1941 to 1943 was $41,000,000. The present estimate is $82,000,000. Perhaps they are trying to say there is $40,000,000 more than there was in 1939. However, the committee made itself clear because it gave the actual figure of $120,000,000 as the income from the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board for the next biennium, and that is far different than the $82,000,000 given by the Governor.

Mr. President, I want to comment at this time upon the figures given to this Legislature by the present Budget Director, who has been the budget director for the past four bienniums. We have always tried to show, on the minority side, that there is a deliberate under-estimating of the revenue and a deliberate over-estimating of budgetary needs. Mr. Logan has not been right the last four guesses he has made for the past four bienniums, and I see no reason for feeling he will be right in this biennium, so whether it is $5,000,000 or $40,000,000, it means nothing to Mr. Logan.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, made a very good argument to substantiate what I just said. He said in the 1941-43 biennium the Liquor Control Board made $41,000,000 and for the next biennium they estimated $82,000,000, and if that is not up $40,000,000 plus I can not figure. That is exactly what we reported to this body here, Mr. President, and the difference between the 1943-1945 biennium and the next one is the difference between $34,000,000 and $82,000,000, so I repeat, Mr. President, the estimated upward income of $40,000,000 is right and correct.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I only wanted to clear up one thing. I wanted to give the Majority Leader—or the ex-majority leader—an out on the $40,000,000 estimate they made. I said they had the $40,000,000 if they compared it to the 1939-41 biennium, but the fiscal committee compared it to the 1945-1947 estimate that they prepared.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I have listened with a great deal of interest to what has been said and it reminds me of when I was a child, my father used to quote an old saying, figures do not lie but liars can figure, and I suppose whoever has the last word in this discussion will probably think he is right.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND ADOPTED

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I have a resolution to introduce but before doing so I should like to make a brief explanation of my purpose for so doing.

In the previous brief debate, Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Senator Walker, was quite amazed at the rapidity which the Senator from Westmoreland brought us from millions of dollars down to brass tacks and I would suggest that we are going to have a number of problems during the balance of this session that will involve millions of dollars and on which we will have to get down to brass tacks if we are going to get out of here before summer.

One of the problems we are hearing so much about, Mr. President, is this matter of public schools and subsidies and salaries of teachers. We have bills in both houses of this legislature and we have telegrams and letters and correspondence urging us to vote for this, that and the other measure, but I have not yet seen any accurate figures as to what these bills will cost in millions of dollars, what part of it is to be paid by the state and what part of the load, if any, would go back to the local taxpayers. Because, Mr. President, we have the machinery to ascertain accurately the cost of these things in dollars and brass tacks, on behalf of Senator Homsher and myself, I introduce the following resolution which is very pertinent to this study, and ask for its immediate consideration.

RESOLUTIONS

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS SUMMARY OF COMPARATIVE COST ENTAILED IN SCHOOL BILLS BE PRESENTED TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Mr. WAGNER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 17, 1947.

Whereas, There is present before the Legislature in the various committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate, legislation dealing with public school problems; and

Whereas, Said legislation has been subject to uncertainty, confusion and speculation as to amounts of moneys involved and necessary for the carrying out of provisions of the bills as introduced; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concurs), That the State School Commission and the Director of the Budget, present to the House of Representatives and the Senate on or before Monday afternoon, March 24th, a summary of comparative cost entailed in the various school bills which deal comprehensively with subsidies, salaries and increments now in the various committees in the House and Senate.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. BERGER, offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, March 24, 1947, at four o'clock, p. m.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, March 24, 1947, at four-thirty o'clock, p. m.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, during the session of 1945 we passed a municipal authority act which has been a blessing to the people of Pennsylvania, especially those communities that are civic-minded.

I was about to offer a bill this afternoon, but I learned that my colleague from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, and my colleague from Lebanon, Senator Becker, introduced a bill clarifying and further amending the municipal authority act.

It so happens that under the authority act borough councils choose their men on a staggered system of one, two, three, four and five years. Many of the authorities have now expired, that is, the members who were chosen for one year, their terms have now expired. Nothing in the act states how they should be reappointed, whether by the authority or by the sponsoring body. It cost a great deal of money to set up an authority. Many projects are now under way and I am very fearful, Mr. President that unless we act immediately we will have a general breakdown within the Commonwealth. Right in my own community we have a big project under way and the authority now is expiring.

I have spoken to Senator Becker about it and I would like to see the Committee on Law and Order meet tomorrow, if possible, to discuss this issue and get a ruling from the Attorney General, as otherwise we may be forced to re-enact our authorities and go through a long procedure and the projects that are now under way may be voided.

I am sure every member is interested in his own community and this is a mighty important matter, so I trust the Committee on Law and Order may consider it, with Senator Becker and Senator Dent, and if they agreed with me, prepare the proper amendments and try to pass them as soon as possible.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LEE. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, House Bill 296 and the two following bills (House Bills 297 and 298) on today's calendar were introduced as a result of a study by the Joint State Government Commission under the able leadership of the former Speaker of the House, Ira T. Fiss.

At the last session of the Legislature there was introduced in the Senate Resolution No. 46, which provided for the recodification, revision and the making of such other changes as were deemed advisable in the Decedents' Estates Laws, which had not been revised since the Acts of 1917, commonly known as the "Seven Sisters."

There was appointed to the sub-committee of the Joint State Government Commission on the part of the Senate the Senator John M. Walker, Vice Chairman of the Committee; Senator McGinnis, Senator C. J. Talman and Senator Charles H. Ealy.

On the part of the House there were appointed Messrs. Homer S. Brown, Reuben E. Cohen, Jack J. McDowell, John H. McKinney, Albert S. Readinger and Charles L. Robertson.

The study undertaken by this Committee was a very technical one and a very difficult one and it was necessary to appoint an Advisory Committee consisting of the leading judges of the Commonwealth and the outstanding members of the Bar, all of whom were experts and experienced in the laws of decedents' estates.

There was appointed to this Committee the following judges: Honorable W. Walter Braham, President Judge of the Orphans' Court of Lawrence County; Honorable Ethan A. Gearhart, President Judge of the Orphans' Court of Lehigh County; Honorable Andrew Hourigan, President Judge of the Orphans' Court of Luzerne County; Honorable David G. Hunter, Judge of the Orphans' Court of Philadelphia County; Honorable Frederick A. Marx, President Judge of the Orphans' Court of Berks County; Honorable Karl E. Richards, Judge of the Orphans' Court of Dauphin County; Honorable Thomas P. Trimble, President Judge of the Orphans' Court of Allegheny County and the Dean of the Orphans' Court Judges in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; Honorable A. Kirk Wrenshall, President Judge of the Orphans' Court of Washington County; and Honorable J. Colvin Wright, President Judge of the Common Pleas Court of Bedford County.

I think that we should also note for the record the following outstanding attorneys who studied the plan of this Advisory Committee: Robert Brigham, Esq., Philadelphia, Chairman of Advisory Committee; Shippen Lewis, Esq., Philadelphia, Secretary of Advisory Committee; Robert W. Archbald, Jr., Esq., Philadelphia; Paul Bedford, Esq., Wilkes-Barre; Lieutenant Governor John C. Bell, Philadelphia; William Eckert, Esq., Pittsburgh; Roland Fleer, Esq., Norristown; W. Pitt Gifford, Esq., Erie; A. J. White Hutton, Esq., Chambersburg; Mark E. Lefever, Esq., Philadelphia; William W. Litke, Esq., Bellefonte; Alan S. Loose, Esq., Mauch Chunk; J. Paul MacElree, Esq., West Chester; Richard G. Miller, Esq., Washington; Ralph D. McKee, Esq., Pittsburgh; Raymond M. Remick, Esq., Philadelphia; William Robinson, Esq., Pittsburgh; Mr. Arthur Scully, Pittsburgh; C. L. Shaver, Esq., Somerset; Boyd Lee Spahr, Esq., Philadelphia; Thomas Stokes, Esq., Philadelphia Mr. Paul C. Wagner, Philadelphia; and Adolph L. Zeman, Esq., Washington.

In drafting these new statutes the Advisory Committee has attempted to simplify the statutory structure, but only where this could be done without impairing the authority of decisions under prior acts. In recommending changes in substantive law the Advisory Committee has recommended only such changes as it deemed to be necessary, workable in actual practice and offering a prospect of reducing litigation.

I feel that it is incumbent upon me to have it noted particularly for the record that the Advisory Committee rendered a great service to the study through the unflagging efforts of its members, and the sacrifices that were made in attending the many meetings at remote places in the Commonwealth.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I urge that these bills be passed.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to Senate for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the position taken by a minority is usually of little importance to the majority, especially if it is a powerful majority. The minority's position has, however, recently been accorded a considerable measure of attention in the press and otherwise. Any misapprehensions or misunderstandings arising as a result of press reports or the absence of them are beyond my reach. However, there should be no misunderstandings in this chamber. We should be able to make ourselves understood and make our position clear in this Hall.

One powerful newspaper recently stated, and I quote:

"Democratic strategy will be to attack for the sake of attacking, irrespective of whether there has been any justification for attacking."

Another equally powerful newspaper said:

"Democratic minorities in the House," in the House, mind you, "have already mapped plans to snipe at the fiscal recommendations from all angles."

Now, Mr. Speaker, I do not know whether the partisan Democratic press or the partisan Republican press invented sniping. I do know that if I wanted instruction in the art I would not consult a legislator. I would sit at the feet of the partisan press, Republican or Democratic, to listen and to learn.

What has been the record of our sniping in this House so far this Session?

First, there was an inquiry regarding the mystery of the vanishing roll call, electric roll call, an inquiry in which this House joined.

Second, there was an inquiry concerning the vanishing two hundred million dollar surplus, an inquiry in which both this House and His Excellency the Governor joined.

Third, we have questioned the accuracy of the figures compiled, ostensibly by a special committee appointed to ascertain the financial needs of the Commonwealth. Read the budget message, read the Committee's report. The figures do not agree. You cannot accept both of them, but if you question either of them you are sniping.

Fourth, we have asked information concerning the teachers' retirement fund, an inquiry in which this House joined. The Governor in his recent message suggests substantially increased appropriations for the fund, which has been short changed by the Commonwealth these many years. The Governor's message justified the intent of the inquiry.

Fifth, we have asked for information concerning departmental personnel with the view of ascertaining whether the State's personnel has been reconverted from a war-time to a peace-time basis. We probably won't get that information. The powers that be won't want to explain the difference between the payrolls last May and some of the payrolls in October and September.

Sixth, we have questioned the wisdom of some of the features of the Governor's budget. I do not believe that any Governor's budget is sacred or inspired. There are some Members of this House who seem to regard the discovery of the formulation of the budget that has been submitted as something miraculous, something so far out of the ordinary that it was not proper to question it. The Governor's budget is properly subject to inquiry, scrutiny, and if necessary criticism.

Seventh, we have asked the Department of Property and Supplies for a report concerning the liquidation of all of the properties owned by the General State Authority. We haven't gotten a report as to the personal property which the Department liquidated, and, gentlemen of the House, I doubt, so poorly have records and inventories been kept,—I doubt the ability of the Department to furnish such a report.

Now, gentlemen of the House, we do not propose to oppose anything in this House for the sake of opposing, and we do not propose to attack the Governor's budget simply because it is the Governor's budget, but we do have the right to ask certain basic, fundamental questions.

What actually are the State's needs? That is the first question this House must determine—what actually are the State's needs, financial needs?

Next, what amount will actually be spent during the next biennium according to the over-all plan, not what commitments will be made, not what they are going to do in 1952, but how much money does this administration need during the next biennium. They say $110,000,000 for impounding dams. Maybe the State needs $130,000,000 for impounding dams, but how much are they going to spend during the next biennium. Our position is that we should not raise taxes or commitments beyond the life of this General Assembly.

For new construction, $70,000,000, $80,000,000, $90,000,000; yes, but how much is going to be spent during the next biennium? We oppose the principle, and will oppose the principle of creating appropriation liabilities greatly in excess of the current revenues during the next biennium. We do not believe it is sound policy to question the good faith of the next Legislature. If we do our duty and spend all of the money that should be spent, and that can be spent in an economical manner, it is not our function to see that the program during the next biennium after we have come and gone is financed.

We say further and we agree with the Governor when he spoke through the Press on February 15 when he said, "don't spend the $50,000,000 bond issue now, save it for an emergency." We would preserve the bond issue until it absolutely had to be spent, and we would recreate the General State Authority for financing the building program contemplated by this administration in its entirety, and then fit your tax program to fit your needs. We contend that we have not yet been shown that if the authority formula is used for construction that all of the new taxes, or indeed any of the new taxes proposed, are absolutely necessary. We are not clear, we do not understand the basic objection for using the authority formula.

Now, gentlemen of the House, I have been unable to understand the perturbation of the press concerning the position of the minority. You have a Governor who is a two-fisted citizen who is able to speak the English language. And it doesn't seem to me that there is any reason why the press or others should run to the public and say "Ma, ma, do something about it, those thirty Democrats in the House are kicking those one hundred seventy Republicans all around, and won't you do something?"

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I shall not attempt to solve the budget or the general policies that are contained in the budget at this time. There is only one little matter in the gentleman's statement that does disturb me a little bit, and in that connection I should like to interrogate the Minority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Minority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, no lawyer's questions.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed with the understanding that there will be no lawyer's questions.

Mr. SORG. I should like to ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if at any time he has witnessed a lack of cooperation on the part of the majority of this House in solving any of the inquiries that he has made?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in all my parliamentary experience I have never known a minority, a minor minority, that has been accorded the courtesy and the consideration that has been accorded our minor minority here since this session began. And there has been no case in which I believe the leadership of the House has impeded any request for information. I am still awaiting action as to whether or not the Rules Committee will release the resolution inquiring about the personnel at the various periods during the recent past.

Mr. SORG. I thank the gentleman for that one, Mr. Speaker.

I should like to inquire further of the gentleman as to whether or not there was any concern demonstrated by the majority of this House as to the ethics of the opposition?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, as far as the leadership of the House is concerned there has been no questioning of the ethics of the minority, but by some strange coincidence it has happened that the indictment of the minority ethics is based upon wide newspaper publicity, and I just don't know what they have in mind, or what they are afraid of.

Mr. SORG. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

The disturbance that was within my mind has been very well clarified by the gentleman. I desire only to reassure him that the parliamentary procedure and all courtesies that could possibly be extended will be continued to the end of this session.

RESOLUTION

Mr. LEISEY offered a resolution which was laid over under the Rules.

FORMER MEMBERS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very happy to welcome to the House a former Member and a former leader of this House, now County Commissioner in the City and County of Philadelphia, the Honorable Morton Witkin.

The Chair also welcomes to the hall of the House another former Member, the Honorable Ed Flynn of Sullivan County.

CLASS OF MECHANICSBURG HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is also very happy to welcome to the House this afternoon the ninth grade class on Pennsylvania Government of the Mechanicsburg High School under the direction of Miss Josephine Fish, who is the daughter of the Representative from Cumberland County.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, during the early days of the session one of these newspapers about which the minority seems so much concerned made the statement that the old men of the House sat down in the front. I haven't thought much about that—not assuming that I am among the old men in the House, but I have felt that perhaps we should say that the elder statesmen of the House sat down in the front row of seats, and therefore it seems to me that if we accept the term of elder statesmen, that we also ought to accept the responsibility of elder statesmen from time to time, pointing out some of the things concerning our State government with which this Legislature should be concerned.

Therefore, I have since the Governor's budget message turned over in my mind some of the acute problems, and I have come to the conclusion that I perhaps might be permitted to say something concerning those thoughts that have been running through my head.

I was struck with the fact that during the Governor's message in speaking of the amount of money that would be necessary for the schools he made some reference to the assumption of some responsibility on the part of local government, and then he said that of course real estate is bearing a very heavy proportion of the burden of local government. Therefore, I started to think about the burden that real estate is bearing, because I with others have during the past fifteen years or so continually mouthed the same phrase, that real estate was bearing an unfair share, or a great share and could not bear any further share of local government.

I therefore became interested in ascertaining something about the amount of real estate tax which was collected by school districts, the amount contributed by the Commonwealth, and the relation of these expenditures to the school population, to ascertain the burden which real estate was bearing and its relation to State subsidies. Dr. Alderfer, of the Bureau of Municipal Affairs, at my request, has given me the following data, which I believe to be of tremendous interest in determining the policy of the State in handling its subsidies to the schools:

DATA CONCERNING PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Explanation: Figures are derived from Statistical Reports of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the years indicated.

Because of differences in reporting procedures it is impossible to compare accurately statistics since 1900. Reports to and including 1915 are based on data submitted by the County Superintendents to the Department of Public Instruction. The 1920 Report was prepared directly by that department. 1925 and subsequent data are comparable inasmuch as the present reporting system was inaugurated in that year.

The Department of Public Instruction reports do not contain a breakdown of Tax Receipts into "Real Estate Tax" and "Per Capita Tax." According to a Report by the Pennsylvania Local Government Commission in 1944 entitled Costs of Government in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, information is available which makes it possible to estimate the real estate and per capita taxes. Page 51 of that study contains the statement that "The per capita tax collection was 6.1% of the total tax collections by all school districts . . ." This figure was computed in order to effect a relationship between the per capita taxes and the total of all local taxes and is based on 1942 figures. For lack of a better source, therefore, we have adopted this ratio by calculating the "Real Estate Tax" on the basis of 93.9% of Total Tax Receipts and "Per Capita Tax" on a 6.1% estimate.

Prepared by the Bureau of Municipal Affairs, Dept. of Internal Affairs at the direction of Representative Ellwood J. Turner. (By Robert A. Finley). March 14. 1947.

From the foregoing it is interesting to note that the school population in 1930 was approximately 360,000 more than in 1945 and the tax receipts were $2,142,000 more in 1945 than the receipts for the year 1930. However, the amount appropriated by the Commonwealth for the year 1945 was twice as much as in the year 1930—$57 million plus, as against $28 million plus. In other words, with a decreasing school population (which the Department estimates will still continue to decrease), real estate in 1945 bore only $2 million more of the tax burden, while the Commonwealth had doubled its appropriations.

We are all familiar with the fact that there is a wide difference in the value of real estate and in its earning power between 1930 and 1945. The basis upon which the Commonwealth has always paid its subsidies to the school districts has been the "ability" of the district to carry the program. In view of this policy, should we not re-evaluate the ability of local government to pay a greater share in considering the statement made by Governor Duff in his Budget Message that local government must carry some part of the increased burden. I know that basically the whole question of local taxes is tied up with the question of equalizing assessments on real estate. Maybe that would alter the picture. But at this time I am only suggesting that the foregoing figures should stimulate our thinking.

However, no matter where we place some of the burden, the time has come when the Commonwealth should arrive at a definite determination of the manner of handling its school problem.

There can be no doubt that the teaching profession is not attractive to thousands of able young men and women who would be an asset to that profession. There can be no doubt that unless salaries are brought to a comparable position with wages which are being paid in industry, the teachers, no matter how inspired they may be with a devotion to the cause, will be compelled to leave the classroom and go into industry. There can be no doubt that we must, therefore, protect the coming generations by providing the means to secure an attractive salary for the teacher.

On the other hand, we have seen the steadily mounting subsidies paid by the State. When I first came to the Legislature the total appropriation for education was about $70 million. Governor Duff's Budget makes a total recommendation of $208,000,000. We are informed that the request now being made by the P. S. E. A., representing the teachers of this Commonwealth, would add another $75 million for the coming biennium to the subsidies already paid. If this were the only problem confronting the Commonwealth, it might not be difficult to dispose of it, and although taxes are never popular, the funds might readily be found.

But unfortunately, we have some other functions of State government which likewise pose a dilemma to the thoughtful student.

The necessity for improvement of welfare institutions, the mounting cost of the maintenance of such institutions and State-aided hospitals, and the expanding of our penal and correctional institutions and the increase in the cost of maintenance have thrust a heavy burden on the taxes of the Commonwealth.

Secondly, I have seen in my time in the Legislature the appropriation for public assistance increase from about $15 million to the high tide of something over $200 million, and now to the proposal for the 1947-49 biennium of $135 million. Of course, we know that only a part of this is unemployment relief. But I am including all the categories in assistance which demand $135 million for the coming biennium, and which in view of our past experiences will undoubtedly demand greater sums should we hit a long period of heavy unemployment in Pennsylvania.

Also, we are facing in another biennium an increasing indebtedness of $400 to $500 million for soldiers' bonus. No one is able to accurately estimate the amount, but which on a guess will require $58 million for the first biennium for amortization and interest.

It is apparent that our present tax structure will not carry the burden because too great a proportion of the amount which the State collects is paid by business and industry. Common sense tells us that business and industry in Pennsylvania must be able to meet the competition with business and industry in other states, and therefore cannot be placed at a disadvantage by taxation if we hope to have them remain in Pennsylvania, or new industry come here to live. Our natural resources have been rapidly depleted. Our coal has for a generation presented a serious problem. Manufacturing and agriculture are the hope of the Commonwealth. Therefore, any tax structure that is created must keep this sharply in mind.

I would consider the program that is being enacted this Session as but an expedient. But we cannot continue to meet our fiscal problems by expediences. What I am trying to say to you is that the time has come when we must sit down and take the services of government and determine how far we can go in relation to our capacity to meet the expenses. Before we can determine that question we must determine what is our capacity. We must determine what kind of tax structure is the best for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in relation to the demands of the kind of programs which the Commonwealth intends to carry on.

Unless we do give thoughtful attention and consideration to these problems, the future of the Commonwealth looks very dark to me. It need not be so. We have everything in Pennsylvania. All we need is some clear thinking leadership with the will to keep Pennsylvania in its outstanding place among the states of the nation. But we should begin planning now.
